

Bobbing in Sports

By Bob Goldwater

Probably no college in the country can exhibit as high a record in any sport as that compiled by North Carolina in the 19 years that John Kenfield has coached its tennis teams. Since 1928 when the popular mentor began directing Tar Heel net fortunes, Carolina has registered the phenomenal total of 246 victories, only 18 defeats and three ties. One-half of the losses came during the extremely lean war years of 1944 and 1945.

On the winning side of the ledger, Kenfield has turned out nine undefeated teams, including a four-year streak between 1930-33 and another three-year skein from 1939-41. It was during the latter streak that the winning ways stretched through 66 straight matches before being brought to a halt by Princeton.

Heading the parade of stars coached by Kenfield would be Bryan "Bitsy" Grant, Wilmer Hines, Harris Everett and Vic Seixas, who achieved national ranking as number nine in 1942 while only a freshman in college. With three years of eligibility left, Seixas would be a welcome addition to Coach Kenfield's please for another unbeaten unit next season, when most of this year's team, which hung up the impressive slate of 15 wins in 16 clashes, returns for another year of competition.

Recent visitors to the campus during the past month included four regulars from Coach Bunn Hearn's 1943 pennant-winning crew. Three of these, Dub Johnson, Mack Morris and Lew Hayworth, formed three-fourths of one of the smoothest infield combinations Carolina ever fielded and the first two had been elected co-captains for the 1944 campaign succeeding Hayworth, but entered the service before the season opened. Johnson, a first baseman, and Morris, a second sacker, will probably return to action next year, with only the former encountering difficulty, in the person of John Gregory, in regaining his position. Hayworth, equally adroit at short or third has signed a professional contract and would be ineligible should he come back to college.

The fourth member of the quartet, Ken "Whitey" Black, makes another visit here tomorrow when he performs with the Norfolk Naval Air Base outfit against his alma mater. A freshman outfield sensation in 1943, Black also expects to appear in a Tar Heel uniform in 1947. From reports received from Norfolk, he has been whaling the ball at a steady clip all season and, along with Morris and Johnson, could provide the much-needed punch lacking, with a few exceptions, in this year's nine.

If North Carolina's gift to the St. Louis Cardinals, Max Lanier, and his two teammates go through with their threatened jump to the Mexican League, there is no doubt but that it will hurt the Cards' pennant chances, despite Sam Breadon's statement that "we can win just as well without them." A life-long resident of Denton, the big southpaw leads the National League hurlers with a 6-0 record. There seems to be little doubt but that Lanier, pitcher Fred Martin, and infielder Lou Klein, will continue with their contract-jumping plans, since, when last heard from they were headed in the general direction of Mexico.

While on the subject of the majors and Mexico, we believe that "Babe" Ruth, currently a guest of the Mexican loop's president, will receive more than just a slight jolt upon learning that Bill Dickey succeeded Joe McCarthy as manager of the New York Yankees. The "Babe" never made a secret of the fact that he would "gladly" accept the position, and once told owner Jake Ruppert to "choose between McCarthy and me." Ruppert chose McCarthy, who went on to win seven pennants over an eight-year period. Larry McPhail's choice of Dickey appears as wise as that of the Chicago White Sox front office in making Ted Lyons manager to succeed Jimmy Dykes.

Incidentally, Taft Wright, White Sox outfielder, is an uncle of hurler Hamp Coleman, who leads Bunn Hearn's pitching corps with a 5-3 mark.

Middies Take IC4A Carnival At Annapolis

Annapolis, Md. — (UP) — Navy has won the 70th annual outdoor track and field championships of the IC4A by running up 36 and five twenty-eighths points—three more than the runner-up, Army.

The Midshipmen won only two first places—Bill Kash's in the quarter-mile and their relay team in the mile—but picked up enough places to retain their title.

Army's score was 33 and one-seventh points, the Cadets' lone first place was in the javelin throw, where Bill Cynoweth broke the Thompson Stadium record by heaving the shaft 210 feet, three and a quarter inches.

Another stadium record was smashed by Manhattan College's Ed Walsh, who was home first in the mile run with a hustling four minutes, 12 and three-tenths seconds.

Southern RR Union Campaign Is Begun

Little Rock, Ark., May 25—(UP)—A new CIO campaign to organize all southern railroad workers into one big union has been opened at Little Rock, Arkansas.

National Director A. B. Martin of the CIO Railroad Workers of America has arrived in Little Rock. He's ready to begin organizing among the 20 or so brotherhoods representing workers of the Missouri Pacific Lines in Arkansas.

After the Missouri Pacific, the state's largest railroad, Martin plans to go after others in the state. He estimates that 7,000 Arkansas railroad men will be affected by his campaign.

Martin declares, "we feel that the members of the present unions are fed up with the representation they are getting. We plan to have one big union among railway workers instead of the hashed-up affair of 15 or 20 as at present."

Norfolk Naval Nine To Meet Tar Heels in Tilt Tomorrow

Led by a former Carolina star in the person of centerfielder Ken "Whitey" Black, the Norfolk Naval Air Base nine will play the Tar Heels in Emerson stadium tomorrow at 4 p. m.

The identity of the starting pitcher for the home club is still questionable, for Coach Bunn Hearn has two big games with Duke coming up this week and will want to have his hurling staff primed for the Devils.

Monk Whiteheart, veteran ace from Winston-Salem, is the man whose turn it is to take the mound according to the way the Carolina hurlers have been rotating, but Hearn may decide to save Whiteheart for a later appearance and throw another twin city native against the sailors in the person of John McElrath.

Five Wins

Whiteheart has accounted for five Tar Heel wins this spring as against four losses, while McElrath, left-handed pitching hold-over from last year's team, has a one and one mark.

Black, who starred as a freshman for the Tar Heels in 1943, has been playing excellent ball in the service and is one of the leading hitters on the Norfolk club.

The game with Norfolk is one of two remaining home games for the Tar Heels, who will play Duke here on June first. On Wednesday, the Hearmen will travel to Durham to meet the Devils on their home grounds. The last time Carolina went to Durham, Bob Houghton pitched a fine one-hit ball game against them to even up the Duke-Carolina series at one game apiece.

Gregory and Beason

John Gregory, fancy-fielding first-sacker, and Harry Beason, hard-hitting outfielder, dominate the latest Tar Heel batting statistics. Gregory is the leading hitter with a .298 average and also tops the hits and runs columns with 26 and 17.

Beason leads in doubles, homers, runs batted in, and total bases, while outfielder Charlie Cole has stolen six bases for top honors in that department.

Mays Cracks Record To Qualify in Race

Indianapolis, Ind.—(UP)—Rex Mays, America's automobile racing champion, has cracked all 1946 time records at the Indianapolis motor speedway by qualifying for the Memorial Day 500-mile race by driving nearly 129 miles per hour.

Golfers Down Virginia Team To End Season

Liles Shoots 70 To Pace Golfers

With Graydon Liles leading the way on the wings of a blistering par 70, North Carolina's golfers wound up their 1946 season with a decisive 21½-5½ decision over the University of Virginia linksmen at Hope Valley yesterday morning.

This win gave the Tar Heels a season's record of 10 victories against four defeats, and sweet revenge for a trouncing handed them by the Cavaliers at Charlottesville several weeks ago.

Smarting under that licking, the worst they had received this year, the Tar Heels really went to work on their Virginia neighbors this time. Liles, a pre-war star who has led the Carolina attack all year, was in excellent form as he negotiated the Hope Valley layout in even par figures. His drives were right down the middle, his putting was sharp, and he seldom got in trouble. His opponent, Bill Jason, didn't have a chance to break the scoring column.

But the best match took place in the same foursome when Ed Bailey, No. 2 star for the Tar Heels, carded a 72 in defeating Henry Leonard, 2½-1½. Bailey's terrific tee shots constantly kept him a jump ahead of his rival, who put up a big scrap before bowing out.

The Virginians scored all but one of their points in the third foursome, where they took their only individual match of the day. Duke Eisemann played a steady game to edge out William Wood, 2-1, and prevent the Cavaliers from taking a white-washing in that phase of the contest. Ed Ashby and Dan Nyimicz produced their usual steady brand of golf to take all but a half point in the No. 2 foursome.

Liles, UNC, defeated Jason, 3-0. Bailey, UNC, defeated Leonard, 2½-1½. Best ball: UNC 3, Virginia 0.

Ashby, UNC, defeated Roberts, 3-0. Nyimicz, UNC, defeated Loving, 2½-1½. Best ball: UNC 3, Virginia 0.

Eisemann, Virginia, defeated Wood, 2-1. Cox, UNC, defeated Galt, 2-1. Best ball: UNC 1½, Virginia 1½.
