Carolina Runners Owe Much To Able Coaching of Ranson

By Jim Pharr

The Tar Heel trackmen, who will wind up a successful track season Saturday on Fetzer field with the running of the A.A.U. Track and Field Championship Meet owe a large measure of their success to the capable leadership of Coach M. Dale Ranson.

Shown above is Coach Dale Ranson, who, along with Coach Bob Fetzer, has directed Carolina track fortunes during the past 21 years. During that time, Tar Heel cinder squads have captured most of the track laurels in the Southern Conference.

Coach Ranson, a member of the famous Ranson family of track athletes, has produced a team this year that has won two of four dual meets, finished second to Duke in the Southern Conference Meet, and placed seventh in the I.C.4-A. meet at Annapolis.

"Coach Dale," as he is affectionately known by members of his teams, has worked with Coach Bob Fetzer ever since finishing school here at Carolina. In recent years, Coach Fetzer has turned practically all the duties of directing the trackmen over to Ranson due to Fetzer's increasing duties as director of athletics.

Distance Runner

Ranson graduated at Carolina in the spring of 1925, after a brilliant career as a long distance runner here on the Hill. Coach Dale competed in the 880, mile run, and two-mile events while a student athlete here.

Since Coach Dale has been connected with Tar Heel trackmen in a coaching capacity, his teams have won 11 Southern Conference Outdoor Meets and 10 Southern Conference Indoor Meets. In addition, he has produced 14 Southern Conference cross country championship teams in his 21 years of coaching service to the University.

In dual meet competition, the Tar Heels under Coach Ranson, have won a total of three out of every four dual meets they have been entered in, according to statistics recently released.

Coach Dale is a strong family man and is one of the leading citizens of Chapel Hill. He is married and has three children.

Hamp Coleman Slated to Hurl In First of Two-Tilt Series

Win Moves Hearnmen Into Third Place In Loop; Teams Meet Again Saturday

By Bob Goldwater

Making a final effort to escape the Big Four cellar, a fighting Carolina nine invades Coombs Park at Duke today at 3:30 p. m. in the first clash of a two-game series.

With the season's play between the two clubs resting at one apiece, both teams will be out to sweep the series and gain the edge for the year. The Tar Heels have an added incentive in that one victory will assure them of a third-place deadlock with Wake Forest while a double triumph gives them undisputed possession. The second battle will be played in Emerson Stadium Saturday.

Hamp Coleman, holder of two of Carolina's three loop wins, will be Coach Bunn Hearn's choice to take the mound today against the Blue Devils. The slim right-hander's most recent performance was an eight-hit, 7-2 triumph over Wake Forest for of the season with a one-hitter against the Tar Heels, the lone safety coming with two out in the ninth inning. Houghton's record for the campaign shows three wins and one defeat. Leading the Blue Devil assault is leadoff man Carlyle Groome, currently pacing the Big Four hitters with a .439 average.

The two-game series has no bearing on Duke's final standing in the league. Assured of second place, the Devils lost all chance of sharing in the loop laurels last Saturday by dropping a 4-3 contest to the pennant-winning State Terrors.

BIG FOUR STANDINGS

	W	L
State	9	3*
Duke	6	4
Wake Forest	4	8*
Carolina	3	7

* Completed schedule.

Probable starters for the two rivals in the weekend battle are Monk Whiteheart and Lee Griffith. The Carolina ace bested the Duke southpaw in a pitching duel last month for the initial Tar Heel triumph in the circuit.

Carolina's only decision over the Deacons in four contests. Jim Hayworth is Coleman's probable battery-mate.

The rest of the lineup will have John Gregory, Johnny Colones, Fred "Rip" Ryan, and Johnny Hearn around the infield, and Bo Hackney, Charlie Cole, and Harry Beason on the outer patrol. Beason leads the Carolina batters in loop hitting with a .306 mark and his trio of three-baggers is high in the entire circuit.

Houghton to Hurl

Coach Jack Coombs' nominee to oppose Coleman on the hill will be Bob Houghton, who twirled the league's best game

Out of the Frying Pan Into the Fire

Washington — (AP) — The trials of "basic training as a civilian" were described by a G.I. from Missouri in a letter to Representative Gillie (R.-Ind.):

"The Army says I can't wear a uniform after I arrived home because I'll be impersonating a soldier.

"The stores say I can't buy a suit of clothes because they haven't my size.

"The police say I can't go on the streets naked because it is against the law.

"I would gladly stay off the streets but I can't find a house to live in and with the shortage of lumber I can't buy a barrel.

"Having been wounded, the Army won't take me back because I'm not physically fit." (Reprinted from the Durham Sun.)

Two American Golfers Gain in British Tourney

Southport, England, May 28 (UP)—Chick Evans, of Chicago, has entered the fourth round of the British amateur golf championship by downing Britain's Robert Ridgeway, 4 and 3, here today.

The only other American entry, Frank Stranahan, of Toledo, drew a third-round bye.
