Dark Room Installed In Graham Memorial

Graham Memorial has recently installed a fully equipped dark room for Carolina amateur photographers. The room contains a printer, an enlarger, a processing tank, a dryer, printing frames, trays, and chemicals. Everything but printing paper is supplied for $25. Anyone who desires to use the dark room may call at the GM office for the key.

Local Reserve Officers To Form Association

All Reserve Officers of the Army, Navy, and Marines interested in the forming of a local Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association are invited to attend a meeting in the Roland Parker Lounge of Graham Memorial at 8 p.m. next Monday evening.

Major Pinckney M. Bernstein, representative of the North Carolina Military District, will be present to discuss the present status of plans for the training of the Officers Reserve Corps and the activities of the Reserve Officers Association.

LIBRARY HOURS

During the Summer Session the University Library will be open Monday through Saturday from 8:45 in the morning to 10:45 at night and on Sunday from 2 to 5.

Schedule Announced For Tuition Payments

Schedules for the payment of tuition have been sent to most of the students registered in the first summer session, and T. H. Evans, University Cashier, has asked that the students adhere to the schedule as well as possible and mail their checks in, if convenient, to prevent congestion at the Cashier's office.

All those who registered for their classes last quarter are expected to pay on the following days: June 14, A through B; June 15, C; June 17, D through K; June 18, L through N; June 19, O through S; June 20, T through Z.

The new students who registered at the beginning of the summer session will follow this plan for payment: June 21, A through B; June 22, C; June 24, D through K; June 25, L through N; June 26, O through S; June 27, Y through Z.

According to the Cashier's office, veterans whose tuition and fees are paid under P. L. 16 or P. L. 346 are requested to pay their laundry deposits of $6.00 during the pay period or mail their checks to the University Cashier, Box 690, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Pictures taken in India by Lt. Clyde Ritchie Bell, son-in-law of Mrs. Ethel Fore, will be shown at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening, in Gerrard hall under the auspices of the Minnie Wilson Circle of the Methodist church. Admission will be ten cents for children and 25 cents for adults.

Yacks to Be Issued

This afternoon in the basement of Graham Memorial the 1946 Yackety Yack will be circulated from 3:30 to 5:30. All students who were registered from November through June are entitled to receive copies of the book.

Blonde Beauty

JUNE PREISSER, lovely little eyeful, is seen in Universal's comedy with music, "I'll Tell the World," which co-stars Lee Tracy and Brenda Joyce. Raymond Walburn and Thomas Gomez are also in the film.

Person Hall Site of Art Exhibition

An exhibition of pre-Spanish Peruvian fabrics selected from the Textile Museum of the District of Columbia and circulated throughout the country by the Council for Inter-American Cooperation has been on view in Person Hall Art Gallery since Sunday, June 16, and will continue on display through June 30.

Also on view at the same time in the small gallery of the Hall will be an exhibit of French paintings. "From Fouquet to Cezanne". Gallery hours are from 10 to 5 p.m. on week days and from 2 to 5 on Sundays.

Pan-American Arranged

Entitled "Ancient Peruvian Textiles", the main exhibition was arranged with the cooperation of the Pan-American Union, the Office of Inter-American Affairs, and regional Inter-American centers throughout the country. Major Alfred Kidder II, previously with the Peabody Museum of Harvard University, aided in the selection of the textiles and edited the catalogue, for which M. D. C. Crawford, distinguished authority on textiles, contributed and introduction and technical descriptions.

The fifty textiles included in the exhibition represent all but a small part of the famous collection assembled by George Hewitt Myers in the course of almost twenty years. They are among the first in the world as far as technical virtuosity, perfection of design, and color and preservation are concerned.

VETS MAY HEAR FIGHT

All members of the Veterans Association are invited to listen to the Louis-Conn fight broadcast Wednesday evening at the Vets Club just east of Woollen gym.

"If you talk about your troubles And tell them o'er and o'er The world will think you like 'em And proceed to give you more." —The Twig.

Then there was the little moron standing on the corner with a gun and a knife in his hand debating whether to shoot around the corner or cut across the street.

FACULTY

Both in English

Cotten and Olsen, both members of the University English Department, will be officially installed this afternoon. Olsen is a professor in the public speaking division of the English Department; he has long been active in student affairs, having had much experience with such fee-paying agencies of student government as the Debate Council. Cotten is an instructor of English literature, and has become particularly well known to students as an authority on modern poetry.

Swim Suit

One of the swim suits favored by an all-male jury known as judges of the finest in American beauty styles is shown above. Serving on the jury were Sherman Bilingley, Don DeFore, Philip Wylie, Richard Conte, Howard Cullman, Walter Abel, Tom Belmore, and Alex Ross. Cotton candy stripe makes a ruffled bra (worn with or without straps) and short full skirt.

CLASSIFIED

Advertisements must be paid for in advance and turned in at the DAILY TAR HEEL business office, Graham Memorial, by 5 o'clock the day preceding publication. Dial 8841. Fifty cents each inch and fraction. The DAILY TAR HEEL will be responsible only for the first incorrect insertion and then only to the extent of a make-good insertion—to be run only in case of an error which lessens the value of the advertisement.

Children's Clinic Has Few Vacancies For Day Students

There are a few places left in day students camp-clinic for children with hearing, speech and orthopedic defects, which will be conducted at the Chapel Hill elementary school June 24 to July 20, Miss Ethel Honeycutt, executive secretary of the North Carolina League for Crippled Children, stated.

The League is conducting the school which is under the sponsorship of the University and the North Carolina School-Health Coordinating Service. Miss Pauline K. Winkler, head of the Conservation of Hearing Department of the public schools of Albany, N. Y., and staff members of the Conservation of Hearing Clinic, Albany Hospital, will direct the program.

All applications for room and board in the camp-clinic are filled, but Miss Honeycutt pointed out that several more children could be accepted as day students and they would be furnished lunches.
