Hodges Paces Mangum Outfit With Hurling

Lewis Gets Hot But Mangum Holds

By Jim Pharr
Staving off a last inning Lewis rally, Mangum dormitory, Green League champions, held on to an early game lead to edge out the Blue League winners, 8-7, for the intramural softball championship Monday.

R. Hodges, of Mangum, limited the losers to six hits in achieving the victory. D. Jennings and Hobbs shared the pitching chores for Lewis and allowed four hits between them. Mangum salvaged the game in spite of five miscues in the field, as compared with two errors for Lewis.

Lewis Gets Hot

With Mangum holding a four run advantage going into the seventh inning, the Lewis outfit put together two walks, a single by Branch, and two bobbles in the field to score three runs before the Mangum defense managed to put out the fire.

Mangum got off to a six run lead in the second inning, taking advantage of Jennings' wildness that netted five walks. The Green League team added a run in the fourth frame and another in the fifth to clinch the game.

Third Frame

Lewis started its scoring in the third inning, on two walks, a single, and a fielder's choice. The Blue League outfit added two more in the fourth, on singles by Jordan, Coleman, and Collis, and two free passes.

Shortstop Woody led the hitting for Mangum, cracking out singles in the third and fourth innings. Correll and Kasper tied for second place honors, with one hit each.

B. Jordan, shortstop for the Lewis outfit, led the batting attack for the losers, with two hits in five trips to the plate. Jennings, Branch, Coleman, and Collis each picked up one bingle for the losers.

Lewis reached the finals by defeating Old Stacy in the semi-final event, 7-1. The champion Mangum team advanced to the finals by conquering a strong Old Stacy team 12-8 in the semifinals.

Carolina Swimmers To Close Season With Meet in Wilson

By Marvin Horton

Carolina's Blue Dolphins will have completed another swimming season with the Carolinas' AAU meet at Wilson, August 30 and 31. Swimming for the Dolphins in the sprint events will be Mike Morrow, co-captain of the team; Bill Ward, outstanding sprinter of the Southern Regional meet; and Garnet McCoy, individual high scorer in the Southern Regional meet. Berman, Morrow, and Bultman will be entered in the breaststroke events. Backstrokers will be Dempsey, Cannon and McCoy. In the distance events and the 220 yard freestyle Carolina will be represented by Bob Hutton and Marvin Horton. Buddy Crone, Goldsboro, who won the 1 meter and 3 meter diving in the Southern Regional Meet, will contest for another first place at Wilson.

Successful Season

The Blue Dolphins got off to a fine start with an exhibition meet in Kessing Pool on July 11th. This gave Dolphin fans an insight into the potency of the summer crew. The next day they walked off with all the major events in the Carolina's Open AAU Classic. Jim Calhoun and Bruce Harlan gave Mac Erle a hard battle in the diving events.

The Carolinas' AAU at High Point on July 27th and 28th, however, was the scene of the most frenzied Blue Dolphin action. They took a 96-point total for the team championship including a new record in the 1500 meter by Snooky Proctor, and a record in the 300 meter individual medley by Mike Morrow. National Junior titles went to Bill Ward in the 50 meter free style and to Leroy Little, Bob Hutton, Garnet McCoy, and Marvin Horton in the 800 meter freestyle relay. This is the first time Carolina has won all the first places in the High Point meet two years straight.

The Blue Dolphins were also well represented in the Carolina's District team at the Nationals in Atlanta. Snooky Proctor took first in the 1500 meter free style and Frances Kenney got a first in the Women's National Junior 800 meter Freestyle.

Southern Regional Meet

The Carolina's AAU Association swimmers notched the Southeastern AAU and open swimming title in Kessing Pool last weekend, amassing a two-day total of 110 points against a low 39 points by the Southeastern district team.

Garnet McCoy, University freshman from Charlottesville, Va., took first place in the individual scoring by compiling 18 and five-sixths points in the two day event. Mike Morrow, Carolina merman from Wilmington took second place in the scoring with 17 1-2 points.

Footballers To Keep Up Drills During Vacation

While the University takes an academic rest football practice will hold forth in full swing, and while most of the students are home for vacation Coach Carl Snavelly will probably consider having a vacation himself . . .

a vacation from the crowds who throng the practice field daily to see how the potential Tar Heels are shaping up.

From here on out it will be rugged practice twice daily for the Tar Heels, who face their first opposition here September 28 when V.P.I. invades Kenan stadium. Coach Snavelly pointed out that V.P.I. had a good team last year, but he also said that judging from the size of both schools, Carolina ought to come out on top in the opening encounter.

Long Enough

"We will have had long enough to practice if nothing else," Coach Snavelly said in referring to the preparation of his team for the V.P.I. tilt. "The V.P.I. team will be strong enough to give anybody a good fight though," Coach Snavelly said.

In all probability the squad will run through a scrimmage session this afternoon, the second in two weeks of drill. The first was held Saturday. In the Saturday scrimmage the offense looked a little slow while the defense sparkled with the most promise. Snavelly will work on play execution in scrimmages today and Saturday.

Move Slowly

"We have been moving along slowly to avoid injuries," Snavelly said. So far there have been no serious injuries in the Tar Heel football camp, and Snavelly hopes to prevent their occurrence if possible. "If we had to play a game Saturday we would be in shape, physically because we have avoided injuries which are common to early practice sessions," Snavelly said.

Tentative plans are for Crowell Little to coach the "B" football team with other assistants. Coach Snavelly said that he had made some plans, but had been concentrating on the number one squad. He will confer with other athletic officials on the matter of a Jay-vee coach, and the program is expected to be all set and ready to go when the regular fall term begins.

A host of last season's veterans and several new boys reported for football drills for the first time this week to run the squad total up to 85, but there will be another pruning period around the middle of September.

Among those reporting this week are Leon Szafaryn, Frank Curran, Joe Cospito, Phil Funk, tackles; Bob Mitten, Bobby Hackney, Emmett Cheek, guards; Dan Stiegman, center; Max Cooke, end; "Cotton" Sutherland, Bob Kennedy, B. K. Grow, Don Hartig, Tony Amendola, Ken Parker and Bill Flamish, backs. Sid Varney, a regular at guard last year and Mike Rubish, end from last year, are expected to report for drills soon.

Over-enthusiastic crowds, the largest to watch pre-season football drills at Carolina, appear well pleased with the work being done every afternoon on the field. The crowds were a little too anxious about seeing all and knowing all, and as a result Coach Snavelly had to move indoors recently for his lectures which were previously conducted on the practice field.

Though there is no announcement regarding the coach, there will be a junior team at Carolina this fall. A five-game schedule has already been arranged.

Junior Team Schedule

Oct. 5—Navy at Annapolis
Oct. 18—Newport News here
Nov. 7—South Carolina at Fayetteville
Nov. 8—Virginia here
Nov. 15—Duke at Durham

Athletic Association Takes Orders For Navy Game Tickets Now

Tickets are now on sale for three of the Carolina football games to be played away from home, the Athletic Association ticket office announced yesterday.

Students can purchase tickets for the Tennessee, William and Mary, and Miami games, and orders are now being taken for the Navy game tickets.

Regarding the possibility of tickets for student dates for the home games, the Athletic Association is planning to use a policy similar to that employed last year. This policy will not be employed in games that are already sellouts, such as the Duke game.

Students May Still Obtain Football Pass Books For Wives

Students who have wives in residence may purchase season athletic passbooks for them at the Athletic office the remainder of this week, the Athletic Association announced yesterday.

The supply of tickets, which went on sale August 26-27 was not entirely exhausted, officials said. The passbooks will admit to football games and to all other sports at home.

In order to secure a passbook the student must present written evidence that he was registered during the University's early registration period—August 19-24—and evidence that he has a wife in residence.
