EDITORIAL:

- Medical School Needed
- · Come Out in the Open · Move Over, Bud!

The Daily Tar Heel

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

NEWS:

· Lightning Navy Ticket Sale

· Dorsey Dance Advance Tickets · Di Senate's New President

VOLUME LV

1-28-47

United Press

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1946

NUMBER 28

NEWS BRIEFS

Byrnes Agrees With Stalin: War Not Near

Says Foreign Policy Still Follows FDR's

PARIS, Oct. 3-(UP)-For the past several weeks Secretary of State Byrnes has remained silent on some of the most controversial foreign issues under fire.

Today Byrnes spoke out: In clear, understandable language he discussed the Stalin peace statement, the Wallace controversy, Paris peace conference troubles, and his own debated Stuttgart speech on Germany.

He told the American Club in Paris that he agreed with Premier Stalin that war is not imminent. But he quickly added that we must nevertheless take every precaution to see that the seeds of future war are not planted. And he said he hoped the Stalin statement would put an end to charges that any nation or group or national is trying to encircle the Soviet Union.

Byrnes admitted candidly that there were many Big Four differences which must not be minimized. He gave assurance that we are following the foreign policy laid down by the late President Roosevelt and said that there would be no more retreating to

Plane Crash Kills 39 In Air's Worst Wreck

STEPHENVILLE, Newfoundland, Oct. 3-(UP)-A search party has reached the scene of the plane crash in Newfoundland and reports that "no survivors" were found. All 39 persons aboard the four-engined plane of the American Overseas Airline apparently died instantly when the big transatlantic airliner smacked into the side of a hill and exploded. It's the largest death toll ever recorded in an airline crash.

Pacific Longshoremen Ready to End Strike

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3-(UP) -The striking CIO longshoremen on the west coast are willing to go back to work. Their leader, Harry Bridges has telegraphed Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach that his men are ready to end their three-day-old strike and submit the one remaining issuejurisdiction over the loading of 16 steam schooners-to federal arbitration or fact-finding. The strike has tied up all merchant vessels in west coast ports.

Wallace Says Baruch Delays Atom Accord

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3-(UP) Henry Wallace has issued a stinging reply to Bernard Baruch, the author of the United States atomic control plan. Wallace charges that the stubborn and inflexible position taken by Baruch has created an impasse in the government's efforts to achieve international control of atomic energy. The ousted commerce secretary repeats his belief that atomic energy control can only follow upon the creation of mutual trust and confidence between also flung back at Baruch the charge | ium ends at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, Russia and this country. Wallace the elder statesman hurled at him last night-that Wallace was creating public confusion on the subject.

Edinburgh University Gives Ike Law Degree

EDINBURGH, Oct. 3- (UP) General Eisenhower covered his fivestar-studded uniform with a red robe today to receive an honorary law degree from Edinburgh University. "Ike" told his audience that "the time must come when civilization will place men of my profession in the rank of the permanently unemployed."

Baptist Student Forum Will Convene Tonight

The Baptist Student Union will hold its regular weekly supper forum hour at the Baptist Church 6:15 o'clock this evening. All students are cordially invited to attend.

Over 2,000 Tickets Sold For Navy Game

Coed Gay Morenus is shown handing out leaflets welcoming Carolina students to a meeting of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare held Wednesday. The organization's clever display, set up on a lawn near South Building, carried thoughts familiar to many a Chapel Hill resident.

Tommy Dorsey Dance Tickets To Be Placed on Sale Monday

Ducat Books for Both Hops, Concert-Will Cost $6.50 for Stags, Couples

Advance tickets for the Tommy Dorsey Grail dance set to be held the week-end of the Duke-Carolina grid contest will be placed on sale Monday in a special booth at the YMCA, according to an announcement yesterday. Dorsey will appear for dances Friday

For Tax Session

the campuses of U.N.C. and Duke.

game in Kenan stadium.

Laundry Lists

will begin October 10.

Columbia street.

Pickup Schedules

Laundry drivers will pick up bundles from students living in town on the following schedule. Service

Every other Monday drivers will call at residences on Cameron avenue, Basnight lane, Patterson place,

McCauley street, Ranson street to McCauley street, Pittsboro street to

McCauley street, Franklin street,

East Franklin street to Pratts Cottages, Hooper lane, Senlac road,

Battle lane, Park place and South

Church street, Rosemary street,

Columbia and Air Port road, Hen-

See LAUNDRY, Page 4

and Saturday nights, November 22 and 23, and tentative plans call for Accountant Group the two dances to sell for $6.50. Tickets will not be available separate-To Assemble Here ly to the dances and the bids will be priced the same for individuals or Accountants from throughout the set, Charlie Fulton, spokesman for ment shop with student workers, and state will assemble at Chapel Hill the Grail, said that "in order to fur- requested that anyone having previous and Durham October 24, 25, and 26, nish what we believe will be a better experience in this line contact her of Certified Public Accountants will Carolina students, and the number the shop must be a licensed barber, sponsor its seventh annual Sympos- available will be limited to 2,000. The she said, but other workers need only ium on Accounting and Taxation. Ses- Grail believes that this is better than have adequate experience. sions of the meeting will meet on allowing the gym to become so crowded as to render the dance unenjoy-Among the accounting authorities able."

on the weekend program are William editors of the Research Institute of early because of the limited number. found. America; John L. Carey, secretary of Tickets to the concerts will be placed the American Institute of Accoun- on sale later at $1 per person.

tants; and Mark Richardson, member of the American Institute of Ac- formal. The Grail booth in the YMCA thing from shoe shining to massages. With registration scheduled to op- and tickets will also be sold by mem- ployed if students call for one," Rice en at 11:00 a. m. October 24, the bers of the Grail.

Barber Shop

Is Cause of Delay

Plans to reopen the non-profit Gra- dean of the College of Arts and Sciham Memorial barber shop were announced yesterday by Student Union Director Martha Rice, who indicated it; if not, he drops it with grade of that the only holdup now was the "F." No course is dropped during the

The director explained that she In announcing plans for the dance hoped to completely staff the basewhen the North Carolina Association dance, tickets will be sold only to office this afternoon. The manager of

The four-chair shop was closed all surpass those of all previous years, summer for lack of help but with the Dr. A. K. King, associate dean of the great influx of student enrollment school, announced today. Students interested in purchasing Miss Rice felt certain that a sufficient J. Casey, chairman of the board of ducats have been urged to do so number of trained barbers could be will be open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and possibly a manicurist will be em-

Union to Open

Dearth of Workers

shortage of experienced barbers.

Graham Memorial operates, prices economics, and sociology also boast Both dances are scheduled as in- will be much lower than commercial a heavy registration, in decreasing of the committee on federal taxation formal pending possible change to shops. "Service will include every- order. Despite the fact that many students were not able to find housing and many others secured excellent

New President Challenges Di Senate To "Look Ahead"

Calling upon the Dialectic Senate to "build a greater and more Freshman Group Plans integrated organization in accordance with the ever-changing conditions around," Donald Shropshire, president-elect, took the oath of office before the historic society Wednesday night. The new presiding officer called upon the Shropshire

the field of debating, to set up stricter James K. Polk, president of the Unit- noon. Transportation both ways has membership, and to ed States; and Thomas Wolfe, the look to "good days" state's most famous novelist. The executive committee will meet

Other officers taking seats Wednescampus organiza- pro tempore; Dan McFarland, critic; tion, called upon Gay Morenus, clerk; Eddie Black, the Senate to rec- sergeant-at-arms; and Clifford Hor-

The DTH delivery complaint box is alumni and found- in the YMCA office.

Additional Thousand Ordered From Stadium in Baltimore

Woollen Gymnasium Office Will Continue To Take Orders for Tar Heel-Middies Contest

By Bill Sexton

Despite a complete sellout of 500 tickets to the Carolina-Navy game within an hour of the time they were placed on sale yesterday afternoon, the Athletic association will continue today to take orders for reserved admissions to the mammoth Baltimore

Municipal Stadium, Arrangements were already underway yesterday eve-Arts College ning to obtain another 1,000 seats for use by Carolina fans, and association officials are confident that they Degrees Need will be able to accommodate any demand for admission to the October To Be Checked 19 contest.

2,000 Purchased

Yesterday's rapid-fire assault on the Woollen gymnasium ticket office brought to a total of 2,000 the number of tickets purchased by U.N.C. For counselling purposes during students, alumni, and other Tar Heel the fall term, students in the College followers. A first block of 1500 seats of Arts and Sciences are divided placed on sale June 1 was sold out early in September, and the second shipment received yesterday morn-Arts and Sciences, the student should ing was gone in short order. The have reported to his assigned adviser. quick disposal of this second block was attributed to Tuesday's announquirements arises, he must consult cement that the Athletic association would sponsor a Carolina caravan to Baltimore for the important contest.

The Southern Railway has scheduled a special train for Carolina fans,

The Athletic association has rewith last names beginning with the quested that all students desiring tickets to the Carolina-Navy game at Baltimore leave their orders at the Woollen gymnasium ticket office between 2:00 and 5:00 o'clock this afternoon. Those requesting seats will be asked to give their plans for transportation from Chapel Hill to Baltimore-whether by auto or the Southern Railway's office is recorded with the grade of special train.

which will leave Raleigh at 7:45 p.m. and Durham at 8:45 p.m. October 18, arriving in Baltimore the morning of the game. Due to leave Baltimore at 9:00 p. m. Saturday evening, it will arrive in Durham at 7:30 a. m. Sunday. Coach fare for the trip has been set at $15.02, and Pullman accommodations will be available.

a grade, if the student is passing in Ticket Agent To Come Here Two problems-sale of railroad tickets and transportation between Chapel Hill and Durham-have not yet been settled. District Passenger Agent J. S. Bloodworth of the Southern said earlier that a special ticket agent would be sent to Chapel Hill if a sufficient of students indicate at the time they buy stadium admission that they desire passage on the special

> As for methods of getting to Durham and back, the Athletic association said that it might be able to arrange for overflow bus service to meet the special trains, but that the bulk of students would probably have to arrange private transport. Coeds Can Go

> Meanwhile, rumors that coeds might be barred from the caravan were killed by Dean of Women Carmichael, who announced that women students might follow the team so long as they file written permission from parents before leaving.

All Fraternity Houses Open to Coeds Today

Whit Osgood, IFC president, announced last night that all fraternities, having returned accepted Interfraternity Council Visiting Agreements, are granted visiting privileges by permission of the Dean of Women and the Interfraternity Council.

Women students may enter fraternity houses effective 12 o'clock noon, Friday, October 3, under the provisions of the visiting program.

'State of the Union' Tryouts Set for Today

The Carolina Playmakers tryouts for the current Pulitzer prize come-Those who expect to attend are dy, "State of the Union," will be held this afternoon in the Playmakers theatre at 4:00 and 7:30 o'clock. Harry Davis, director of the production, urged all students and townspeople interested to come to tryouts.

initial session will be held at 2:00 o'clock that afternoon. The symposhowever delegates will be invited to attend the Carolina-Florida football rather than to the "good old days." Robert Morrison, afternoon. retiring president ognize and meet ton, treasurer.

the Di's historic challenge set by in Carolina Inn at 5:30 next Tuesday election of officers.

of the 151-year-old day night were Tom Eller, president noon. All freshmen interested in going

725 to Pursue Grad Study

Sanction Necessary

After admission to the College of

In case a question about his degree requirements as soon as possible. Those letters A-G, should see Dr. William

Seniors Should Check

Wells; H-Z, Miss Geraldine Foster.

ces, the registration as approved by the adviser of the major department and the dean's office is the final regis-

A course dropped "unofficially, without the approval of the dean's

"F." To drop a course officially the student must secure in writing permission from his department adviser and the instructor's statement of his standing in the course at the time

No Drops Last Two Weeks

ences, the course is dropped without

After securing the approval of the of his request to withdraw.

last two weeks of the term.

Except for unforeseen circumstan-

Seniors should deck on degree re-

To Drop Courses

into two groups.

with 203 South Building.

tration for the term.

With 725 students enrolled this fall, Graduate School tabulation figures

The English department leads over the other 34 departments and graduate curricula with 83 students enroll-Due to the non-profit basis on which ed. Public health, chemistry, history, Exceeds Previous Peak #### teaching positions, the registration exceeded 1941, the peak pre-war year, by more than 125 students. Four hundred and sixty students were doing graduate work last winter, Dr. King said.

Park Outing Tomorrow

The Freshman Friendship Council is sponsoring an outing at Crabtree Senate to concentrate its efforts in ers like William Davie, governor; Creek State Park tomorrow afterbeen arranged. There will be recreation in the afternoon followed by supper, a meeting in the lodge, and Trucks will leave from the front of the Y at 2 o'clock tomorrow afterare invited.

asked to submit their name to Peggy Jurgensen in the information room at the YMCA before 5 o'clock today in order that enough food may be prepared for the outing.