

NEWS BRIEFS

Army Prepares To Take Hand In Coal Fray

Troops May Be Sent Into Striking Mines

Washington, Nov. 19.—(UP)—The Army is ready to take a hand in the soft coal dispute.

The War Department says it will cooperate fully with coal Administrator Krug if Krug asks for any help in maintaining peace in the coal fields in the anticipated coal strike. The announcement means that troops may be sent into the soft coal fields, if their presence is needed. Any government attempt to operate the pits if John L. Lewis does not back down from his present stand is certain to cause trouble.

Lewis Stands Pat

With little more than 24 hours of grace left, Lewis still has not withdrawn his contract termination notice. Although facing a possible jail sentence for contempt of court unless he reverses his walkout decision, Lewis remained silent again today. But one quarter of his men—nearly 100 thousand coal miners—stayed away from work today in wildcat strikes which already have cost the nation nearly three quarters of a million tons of coal.

This drop in coal production has not yet affected the nation's economy. But a spokesman for the steel industry says that steel production will be curtailed almost at once if there is a strike. And the government has drafted a series of brown-out orders for the coal burning states east of the Mississippi, which will go into effect tomorrow night if the coal strike comes off—as appears only too likely.

Budget Group Divided On Medical Program

Raleigh, Nov. 20.—(UP)—Governor Cherry has denied reports that the State Advisory Budget Commission is divided on the controversial Medical Care Program. Cherry says the budget group has voted unanimously on all questions to date and that meetings have been harmonious. A member of the Advisory Commission, Thomas J. Pearsall of Rocky Mount, has publicly stated that he feels the entire Medical Care program can be financed by the state.

Teachers' Pay Boost Is Thought Adequate

Raleigh, Nov. 20.—(UP)—Governor Gregg Cherry says he expects all the state's teachers will be satisfied when the legislature takes final action on teacher salary increases. The Governor says most of the members of the State Board of Education which requested 20 per cent salary raises for teachers were fairly liberal and undoubtedly had the best interests of the schools at heart.

W. B. Umstead Leaves State Democratic Post

Raleigh, Nov. 20.—(UP)—William B. Umstead of Durham has submitted his resignation as chairman of the North Carolina Democratic Executive Committee. Governor Cherry received the resignation from Umstead this afternoon. Umstead has been head of the party in North Carolina since 1944 and has conducted two election campaigns. Cherry says he knows of no immediate business to be handled by the Executive Committee and assumes a successor will be named at a meeting of the executive committee in the spring.

Hannegan May Resign As Democratic Leader

Washington, Nov. 19.—(UP)—A report is circulating that Robert Hannegan soon may resign as Democratic National Chairman. His doctors have ordered him to take a complete rest.

WEATHER TODAY
Cloudy and warmer.

Three of the 40 lovely contestants for the title of Yackety Yack Beauty Queen take time out from flashing their beauty to gather around the piano and catch up on the latest gossip. The beauties left to right are: Barbara Lynn of High Point sponsored by Chi Omega, June Sauer of Chapel Hill sponsored by The Daily Tar Heel, and this year's Yack Queen, Joyce Peterson of New York city sponsored by Phi Gamma Delta. (Photo by Bob Reams.)

Women Guests May Be Housed In Women's Gym this Weekend

Must Observe Same Regulations as Coeds; Linen to Be Supplied for Nominal Charge

Tentative plans are now being made to house 80 women guests of regularly enrolled students in the Women's gymnasium during Duke weekend. However, the planning committee now needs an indication of student interest to continue its work.

All men who have been unable to find rooms for their weekend guests are asked to register in Dean of Men Fred Weaver's office before 3 o'clock this afternoon.

If sufficient student interest is shown, guests will be given lodging both Friday and Saturday nights. The University will supply sheets, pillows, blankets, towels and other necessary items for which a nominal charge will be made.

Observe Same Rules

All women living in the gymnasium will be under the same regulations as women students. Dean of Women Katherine Carmichael said yesterday that coeds and guests living in dormitories would be given 2 o'clock permission Friday and regular 1 o'clock hours Saturday.

Plans for housing guests in the Woman's gymnasium came as a result of crowded housing conditions making it necessary for some men to reserve rooms as far away as Durham and Raleigh. This plan is also an alternative to room accommodations for guests in fraternity houses.

Mezerik Will Be Presented At SCHW Meeting Tonight

A. G. Mezerik, author of the recent book, "Revolt of the South and West," will speak tonight in Gerrard Hall at 8 o'clock under the sponsorship of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare. Mezerik has just completed an extensive tour of the country and has participated in conferences concerning the South's current problems. The New York Times marked his book on the "colonial empire economy" as it exists today a prophetic volume. A noted author and industrial consultant, Mr. Mezerik is currently editor of Business News Service. He has served as managing director of the Institute of Standards.

Industrialization for South
Mezerik has made an impressive case of the economic subjections of the South and West. The main hope of the South, he feels, is industrialization. He emphasizes the potential influence of the cheap power supply of the TVA in the South and Bonneville, Boulder, and the Grand Coulee dams in the West.

Students May Sign SP Petition Today

The Student Party petition advocating the payment of indebtedness on Lenoir hall, the construction of new dormitories by state funds and a thirty per cent increase in faculty salaries will be in the Y building again today from 9 until 4 in the afternoon.

Already bearing 1,750 signatures, the petition will be presented to the state legislature of North Carolina when it meets in Raleigh in January. By that time, it is hoped that 4,000 students will have added their names to this proposal for the betterment of the University.

DEAN W. D. BERRYHILL

Dean W. R. Berryhill Talks to Di Tonight

Dr. W. R. Berryhill, dean of the University Medical School, will lead in outlining the current North Carolina Good Health program at the meeting of the Dialectic Senate this evening at 9 o'clock in the Di Hall, third floor, New West.

Also on the agenda will be the initiation of new members who were accepted last Wednesday night. They are: David Ferebee, Jr., George V. Strong, Jr., Joseph Lee, Jr., John Brooks, Mary L. Sparks.

CAROLYN BOWMAN

Student Musician Will Give Recital

Carolyn Bowman, music major from Shelby, N. C., will appear in her senior piano recital tomorrow night at 8:30 in Hill Music hall.

Last spring, Miss Bowman appeared with Charles Stevens in a two-piano recital, which was popularly received on the campus. She was also rehearsal accompanist for the Playmaker's production, "School for Husbands."

The major work on the program will be the second Sonata of Johannes Brahms. Also on the program will be works by Scarlatti, Beethoven, Liszt, Ravel, Griffes, and Coplan.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Colonial Period Will Feature Pathways...

Williamsburg Style to Be Dominant Factor Of New Brick Walks for University Campus

By Earl Heffner

Colonial architecture is usually a tad practiced by dowagers possessing a love of the past without a realization of what it tends to present generation.

Such isn't the case of the University which is paving walks throughout the campus in old Williamsburg style, i.e. the establishment of quaint brick walks to replace the traditional paths that are wont to cover students' shoes with dust and mud from generation to generation.

Eventual bricking of all walks on the University campus is the goal of J. S. Bennett, supervisor of utilities, who yesterday explained away questions as to how brick may be acquired for this project while housing still is a crucial problem of national and local administrations.

No Brick Shortage

Housing has posed a serious headache for politicians since the end of the war. However, Bennett showed yesterday that the University is procuring the brick for the walks without benefit of priority, as brick apparently is no longer a vital material of shortage in home construction.

UNC, Duke Rallies Will Be Broadcast

'Uncle George' Washington Will Make Traditional Pre-Game Speech Friday

By Darley Lochner

Carolina students will be able to hear the broadcast of both the Carolina and Duke pep rallies during the intermission at the Tommy Dorsey dance Friday night. An added attraction to Thursday night's celebration will be "Uncle George" Washington, Negro janitor of Wilson hall and traditional speaker at other pre-Duke rallies.

"I think the Carolina student body can out-yell Duke, but we'll have to have Memorial hall filled to do it," Mike Morrow, University club president, said yesterday.

Appearing on Friday's program will be Pete Mullis, assistant basketball coach, Lath Mariff, better known as Tarzan, former Carolina cheerleader, and Kay Kyser.

Poster Parade Tomorrow

Thursday's rally will begin with a torchlight parade and will be climaxed by a bonfire at Fetzer field. The Pi Kappa Alpha poster parade, originally scheduled for Friday night, is now planned as a part of the program tomorrow.

Dr. Frank Graham, Coach Carl Snaveley and team co-captains Ralph Strayhorn and Chan Highsmith are among the speakers at Thursday's bonfire celebration.

"UNCLE GEORGE"

Dorsett Appoints Student to Take Calendar Grips

Students who have complaints about the academic calendar should see or call Jack Booraem, recently appointed student representative to the University Schedule Committee, Charlie Warren, speaker of legislature recently announced.

Since no student members served on the committee and because "the arranging of the academic calendar is of concern to the students as well as the faculty," the legislature recently adopted a resolution to submit a student representative to the University schedule committee.

Upon adoption of the resolution, Jack Booraem of Ruffin dormitory, was appointed by Student Body President Dewey Dorsett. All complaints should be made directly to Booraem, the legislature speaker pointed out.

The student member of the committee will be appointed annually by the president of the student body at the same time appointments of other executive positions are made. He is considered a full member of the University Schedule Committee and has the privileges and rights of the faculty members.

Candlelight Room To Star Kistler In Show Tonight

Featuring Ben Kistler, well-known student-comedian from Greensboro, as the master of ceremonies, this evening's entertainment at the Candlelight Room will begin at 8:30 with the familiar strains of "Stardust," theme song of the local combo.

Highlights of the floor show which will begin promptly at 9:30, are the two comedians, Ben Kistler and Donald O'Conner, both well known throughout this section of the country.

Kistler, having been on the stage since the age of three, broke into the limelight as a comedian when he was thirteen and has been there ever since. He has also had considerable experience in play directing, being the director of G.I. shows while in service. Since his return to the campus he has performed for the University Veterans Association and for the Sound and Fury production last spring, "State of the Campus."

Also to entertain on this evening's program along the melody line will be Miss Gwen Hughes, vocalist; Rusty Collins, crooner, and the vocal trio, the Athas Sisters. Buddy Robinson will again do a tap routine and Johnny Miles will demonstrate his art of magic.

Upon adoption of the resolution, Jack Booraem of Ruffin dormitory, was appointed by Student Body President Dewey Dorsett. All complaints should be made directly to Booraem, the legislature speaker pointed out.

The student member of the committee will be appointed annually by the president of the student body at the same time appointments of other executive positions are made. He is considered a full member of the University Schedule Committee and has the privileges and rights of the faculty members.