Coal Walkout
In Full Swing

Non-Striker Kills Two
In West Virginia Mine

Washington, Nov. 21—(UP)—Elsewhere, the soft coal strike is in full swing—and the government has started its proceedings to throw John L. Lewis in jail for refusing to call it off. Lewis has been ordered to appear in a Federal Court in Washington on Monday to show cause why he should not be put behind bars for refusing to comply with terms of an anti-strike injunction.

Two men have been killed in the first outbreak of violence in the nationwide soft coal strike. West Virginia state police say that two union pickets were shot to death in Eckman, W. Va., tonight by a foreman of a small mine operator who refused to stop hauling coal.

Special Session Seen

The number of Congressmen who think President Truman should call a special session of Congress to act on the coal crisis is growing—with both Republicans and conservative Democrats asking Mister Truman to act. One of the leading Republican labor tacticians—Senator Joseph Ball of Minnesota—says that if the government loses its show-down fight with Lewis, Congress will be forced to pass laws which would, in his words, “curtail the freedom of all groups, including labor.”

Thomasville Strikers
End Furniture Walkout

Thomasville, Nov. 21—(UP)—An agreement has been reached between the management of the Thomasville Chair Company and the CIO United Furniture Workers of America at a conciliation meeting in Thomasville. The agreement was announced a short while ago by United States Conciliators Albert L. Lohm and John L. Cone, but terms were not disclosed. A special meeting of local 286 of the Union will be held in the city hall at Thomasville tomorrow night to vote on the agreement. It is understood the exact terms will be kept secret until then.

Allis Chalmers, UAW
Talks Yet Deadlocked

Milwaukee, Nov. 21—(UP)—Negotiations between Allis-Chalmers and the United Auto Workers were denounced as a “farce” by both sides today. Each accused the other of bad faith in bargaining, and the 207-day old dispute seemed further from settlement than ever.

Bilbo Probers Convene
Behind Locked Doors

Washington, Nov. 21—(UP)—The Senate War Investigating Committee met behind closed doors for three hours today—hearing new evidence on charges that Senator Bilbo of Mississippi took gifts from war contractors.

British UN Delegation
Opposes Troop Listings

Lake Success, New York, Nov. 21—(UP)—Britain today became the only big power in the United Nations to balk at the Soviet proposal for troop listings abroad. British Foreign Secretary Bevin said he would not support the proposal unless it was considered as part of the general question of disarmament.

U. S. Apology Expected
On Ukrainian Shooting

New York, Nov. 21—(UP)—It has been learned that the United States will issue a formal statement of regret over the delicatessen hold-up incident during which a Ukrainian delegate to the UN was shot. The note will come either from the State Department or the American delegation at the UN.

WEATHER TODAY

Cloudy with occasional rain and mild temperature.

Snavely To Make Keynote Talk At Rally Tonight

UNC-Rollins Battle Over Ackland Grant Nears End

Florida College Faces Deadline For Filing Suit

By Earl Heffner

Academic warfare over the acquisition of the William Hayes Ackland Memorial Art museum boiled nearer to a close yesterday with the revelation that Rollins college in Winter Park, Florida, has until December 20 to file exceptions to the findings of trustees.

Expressing the opinion that the court will uphold trustee findings, Undersecretary of Treasury O. Max Gardner predicted that the University soon “may boast one of the best art galleries in the world.”

Million for Upkeep Purchase

Should Rollins fail to file counter suit, or should such counter suit be denied by the Washington District court, the legacy will include a $300,000 grant for the memorial art museum and an endowment of approximately $1,000,000 to be set up in trust for upkeep of the museum and purchase of art objects. Gardner said the income from the trust would amount to about $30,000 a year.

Ackland left an estate of $1,395,399 with the directions to spend $300,000 on a museum. Previous wire releases from Washington had listed the figure as $1,185,000. With the exception of $44,000 in legacies and a $50 annual scholarship for a Rollins College student, the estate's balance is to be used as an endowment for the museum.

Trustees Edson B. Olds, T. Stanley Holland, and a representative of the American Security and Trust company then visited Rollins and the University last summer and recommended that as a result of their findings they came “to the conclusion that the University . . . is entitled to preference over Ackland as a site for the museum.”

Reasons for Choice

The trustees based their findings on following points:

The University is more similar to Duke in location, size, standing, financial stability, cultural influence, educational facilities, purposes and standards, than Rollins. The trustees also contend that the University is located in a more outstanding educational center, that location at Chapel Hill will mean a wider distribution of its cultural benefits throughout the South, that the University is better qualified than Rollins to carry out the charitable purposes of Ackland's will.

The benefits to the cause of art in the South intended by Ackland in bequeathing the museum to Duke will be more closely approximated if the museum is erected at Chapel Hill, and, finally, that the University is fully authorized by law to provide the site for the museum and to administer the trust provisions of the will.

Only 15 Students Show Signs of TB

Only 15 students out of a total of 6,000 X-rayed during fall registration here produced films which showed any suspicious signs of tuberculosis or other chest disorders, according to Dr. O. David Garvin, Orange-Person-Chatham district health officer, who directed the X-ray proceedings.

This group will be given further X-rays to determine whether or not active tuberculosis is present, Dr. Garvin said. As it was impossible to obtain reliable readings from these films, additional pictures will be taken during next week's clinic.

Tests will be given during the morning hours, 9 through 12 o'clock, at the district health office on Fraternity Row here.

ROCKY MOUNT STUDENTS

There will be a meeting of the Rocky Mount club tonight at 8:30 in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial. Plans for the Christmas dance will be discussed, and all members are requested to be present.

Bogus Tickets In Circulation For Dances This Weekend

FROM CHARLIE FULTON, DELEGATA,
ORDER OF THE GRAIL

In view of the fact that counterfeit tickets are in circulation for the Tommy Dorsey dances, and because of the fact that people with counterfeit tickets will definitely not be admitted to the dances regardless of their personal innocence in purchasing them, everyone who has tickets which are questionable or for which the source of is questionable, is urged to check that ticket with an official sample which will be on display in a case in the YMCA all day today.

In the event that anyone finds that he has a counterfeit ticket he is advised to contact, as soon as possible, the person he purchased the ticket from, and get a refund, or he will be forced to sustain a loss of his investment. Everyone who does encounter this situation is also urged to turn into the Men's Honor Council the name of the person he purchased the ticket from, regardless of whether he thinks the person had anything to do with it or not. In this way it may be possible to trace the originator of any invalid tickets which may be in circulation and bring those responsible to justice.

It is merely a matter of checking tickets in order to tell which are legal and which are not. Because this is true, every ticket taken up at the door will be checked, and those who have counterfeit ones will be turned away.

Doors at the dance will be opened at approximately 8:30, and the dance will be over at one o'clock. Everyone is again reminded that those who are not properly dressed—evening gowns for the ladies and coats and ties for the men—will be denied admission.

Doors in Memorial Hall for the concert this afternoon will open at 3:30 and those who arrive first will get choice seats. The concert will last two hours. No additional tickets for either occasion are available.

Doors for the dance tomorrow night will open the same time as tonight, and the dance will be over at twelve. Dress requirements are the same for both evenings.

Legislature Asks Creation Of Traffic, Safety Council

Ten Man Group Would Recommend Passage Of Bills to Relieve Local Driving Congestion

By Bookie Jabine

Given impetus by the homespun urging of Speaker Charlie Warren, the student Legislature last night voiced its unanimous approval of a bill recommending the creation of a permanent traffic and safety commission which would serve the area in and around Chapel Hill.

Introduced by John Suratt, chairman of a special committee appointed by Warren to look into traffic regulations on the campus, the measure is actually a substitute proposal for a bill providing for a Student Safety Council.

The proposed new commission will consist of ten representatives: two from the University faculty, appointed by the Chancellor; two from the University administration, appointed by the Chancellor; two from the town of Chapel Hill, appointed by the mayor; two from the student body appointed by the Speaker of the Legislature; one each from the State Attorney General's office and the State Highway Commission.

If established, the function of the commission will be to examine safety problems and recommend, through University officials, reasonable legislation concerning campus traffic regulations to the State Assembly in Raleigh.

Introduced by Don Shropshire, a bill was to amend the original elections measure passed earlier in the year, was referred to the elections committee.

Carolina's ever-present mascot, Rameses, will come out of his special hideout again tonight in order to make an appearance at the final pep rally in Memorial hall. The stern-faced ram, a traditional sideliners at all Carolina's home games, will be decked out in his Sunday best in Kenan tomorrow as the Tar Heels do battle with the Blue Devils. Even the grass will taste sweeter to Rameses should there be a Carolina victory.

Huge 270-pound Laith Marriff, staunchest of all Tar Heel supporters, and famed as informal cheerleader at football games for nearly a decade, will rouse UNC spirit at the pep rally this evening. Coach Carl Snavely will make the chief talk for the occasion, and Clyde "Pete" Mullis will also speak.

Partial Sun Eclipse To Appear Tomorrow

A three-quarter eclipse of the sun is expected tomorrow morning, to plunge this section of the country into semi-darkness for a noticeable period up to three hours, the United States Weather Bureau reported yesterday.

The whole phenomenon will last approximately three hours, reaching its peak at 12:37 p.m. Effect will be seen mainly through an overcast sky, with a noticeable twilight effect at the height of the eclipse.

Aid to France Society Will Convene Sunday

The American Aid to France Society will meet Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Huse, 734 Ginghoul road, at 8 o'clock. All members of the group and any students interested in the work now being done by this group are invited to attend.

Tar Heel Songs

The Daily Tar Heel sincerely regrets having erred in the printing of Carolina songs yesterday. Following, they are reprinted in entirety, in correct form. It is suggested that new students clip out this section, and learn all of the songs, to sing at the pep rally tonight, and the game tomorrow.

HARK THE SOUND
Hark, the sound, of Tar Heel voices,
Ringing clear and true;
Singing Carolina's praises, shouting
NCU.

Hail, to the brightest star of all;
Clear its radiance shines,
Carolina, priceless gem, (pause)
Receive all praises thine.

Chorus:
For I'm a Tar Heel born,
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die, I'm a Tar Heel dead!
So it's rah, rah, Carolina-lina,
Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina,
Rah, Rah, Carolina, Rah, Rah!

TAR HEELS ON HAND
Tar Heels on hand,
To steal the thunder from the sky;
We'll take our stand;
As every man does right,
By Blue and White,
We'll give the Tar Heels a hand,
And cheer them on to do or die;

Yea, all of us are for UNC,
And you can betcha we're proud to be,
The Tar Heels on hand.

CAROLINA VICTORY
There'll be a Carolina victory,
When 'cross the field the foe has fled;
Cheer the team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Glory, Glory, UNC!

Our hearts will live with thee!
Fight, fight, fight,
The Blue and White, are rolling to victory!

HERE COMES CAROLINA
Here comes Carolina-lina,
Here comes Carolina-lina,
We hail from NCU!
We got the spirit in it,
We got the will to win it,
We wear the colors white and blue!
So it's fight, fight, fight, for Carolina,
As Davie did in days of old,
We will rally 'round the well,
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell,
For the glory of NCU!
