Veterans Must Report Changes of Addresses

Veterans going to school taking on-the-job training must report any change of address promptly to the Veterans Administration if they wish to receive their subsistence checks without delay, according to Elliot G. Bourne, local VA training officer.

This is necessary as many checks are now being returned to the regional VA office due to incorrect addresses. Those not getting their subsistence checks regularly should comply with the following rules for address changes: Send in VA claim number; former and present address; type of benefit being received, such as pensions, compensation, or subsistence allowances. Send this in to Regional Office, Veterans Administration, Nissen Building, Winston-Salem, N. C.

HILLEL SERVICES TOMORROW

Hillel services commemorating the Festival of Chanukah will be held at 7:30 tomorrow evening in Roland Parker lounge, Graham Memorial. Rabbi Fred I. Rypins of Temple Emanuel in Greensboro will be guest speaker.

Barter Theatre Group To Appear in January

The widely acclaimed Barter Theatre of Virginia, under the direction of Robert Porterfield, will give a one-night performance of Shakespeare's comedy, "Much Ado About Nothing," in Memorial hall January 8 under the sponsorship of the Carolina Playmakers.

Tickets, priced at $1.23, are now on sale at Ledbetter-Pickard's and the Playmakers business office in Swain hall. These will be obtainable until the Christmas holidays, and sales will resume January 4.

MEADOWBROOK RESERVATIONS

Reservations for the Dec. 29 Carolina night at the Meadowbrook in Cedar Grove, N. J., may be made with Harrison Tenney, telephone 8641. After the holidays, direct reservations may be made by calling the Meadowbrook, Little Falls 40110, New Jersey.

Student Council Runoff
 The three-cornered race for Student Council at-large seat proved closest, with candidates seesawing in and out of the lead with every new tabulation Tuesday evening. Bob Broughton, UP, topped the field with 577 votes, compared to 465 for Ed York, Student Party candidate, but a runoff election will be necessary early next quarter. Independent Al Lowenstein, who ran third with 411 votes, was able to take enough votes from both regular party nominees to make the second poll necessary.

Nearly as close was the contest for Men's Council, which ended in a victory for UP nominee "Swift" Buel. He led Bill Starnes 563 to 544 in the final tabulation. Victor for the men's representative on the Student Council was Laurie Hooper, who tallied 635 votes to SP candidate Jack Booraem's 481.

Town District Vote
 For town seats in the Student Legislature, University party candidates took seven of eight vacancies, leaving SP nominee Bill Mackie in eight place. Winners are Tag Montague (endorsed by both parties) with 388 votes, Jack Folger (333), Charlie Norton (332), Bill Raker (276), Earl Woodard (273), Bill Moffitt (272), Walt Talley (264), and Mackie (247).

Six-month town legislators are Ernest House (329), Elton Forehand (309) and Benson McCutcheon (295).

Dormitory Winners

Dormitory voters turned the tables on the University Party by electing ten SP legislators for one-year terms to one UP nominee. Victors for the Student Party are Charlie Long (362), Kenneth Black (317), Dick Walker (305), Jim Castleberry (282), John Giles (278), Kenneth Limeback (274), Basil Sherrill (258), Cecil Prince (254), and Joe Byrd (261). UP candidate Bob Stockton tied Prince at 254.

For the six-month dormitory term two SP candidates, Johnny Clampitt (266) and Herman Baker (251), were winners.

December Mag Due Saturday

December's Carolina Magazine, third of the year for editor Fred Jacobson, will be distributed to the student body by Saturday.

Fiction by authors John Sink, Stu Harris, Jerry Hurwitz, and Dick Stern, and Martha Linney will be featured. Special articles on the recent World Peace contest, and the Vet Village, the latter a word-picture combination by Bill Woestendiek and photographer Bob Reams, will also be included. The cover is by John Sink and the center spread is the work of John Davis.

 The usual distribution system will be used to get the December Magazine to the student body. Those who do not regularly receive the Daily Tar Heel delivery are asked to pick up copies of the Magazine in the YMCA or Graham Memorial on Monday.
 Any student having copies of the DTH to be bound must bring them by the Daily Tar Heel business office by 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Open Minds
 —for open Country

TELEPHONE men are hard at work extending and improving telephone service in rural areas served by the Bell Companies. They're pushing a $100,000,000 three to five year program to give telephone service to all who want it just as fast as possible.

To do this they had to look beyond conventional telephone practices. New techniques and new and improved equipment had to be planned, developed and proved. Now they are furnishing telephone service over rural power lines, over new steel wire that requires fewer poles per mile, over insulated wire that can be buried directly in the ground and by means of rural radio.

Men who approach every problem with open minds... who are guided by ingenuity and resourcefulness rather than by established method... find telephony an ever stimulating and interesting career.

There's Opportunity and Adventure in Telephony
