Netters Capture 16th Win in Row; At Amherst Today

(Special to Daily Tar Heel)
Williamstown, Mass., April 29.—The touring Tar Heel tennis team from the University of North Carolina recorded its 16th match in a row here this afternoon, breezing past out-classed Williams college by an 8-1 score.

Vic Seixas, the Carolina national ranking star, had easy pickings in the feature match of the day, and only in one doubles skirmish did the going really get tough for the Tar Heel netters. This No. 2 doubles match went three sets before Williams finally won in the final set 10 games to eight.

Seixas, who just yesterday was defeated by Charlie Oliver of Army, was in his regular form as he set Williams' Robinson down, 6-2, 6-1. Clark Taylor, the clowning Tar Heel No. 2 contestant, also slipped by his opponent by a 6-2, 6-1 margin.

The undefeated Tar Heel combination, which already holds impressive victories over such eastern teams as Colgate, Cornell, Yale and Army, moves to Amherst, Mass., tomorrow for a battle with Amherst college. They play Wesleyan Thursday, Yale Friday and NYU Saturday.

The results:
Singles: Seixas (C) over Robinson, 6-2, 6-1; Taylor (C) over Schribner, 6-2, 6-1; Gruner (C) over Schaaf, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2; Rice (C) over Takemine, 6-2, 6-1; Nicholson (C) over Wright, 6-2, 7-5; Daniels (C) over Platt, 6-3, 6-3.

Doubles: Seixas-Taylor (C) over Schribner-Schaaf, 6-4, 6-3; Robinson-Takemine (W) over Kenfield-Rice, 6-4, 6-8, 10-8; Nicholson-Skakle (C) over Spencer-Thurbur, 6-2, 6-3.

Milne Breaks Two Mile Mark

New Time Fastest Ever Run in South

By Morty Schaap
Back in 1928 one John Henderson of the University of North Carolina set a record in the two mile that remained on the books for a long time. In fact, until last Saturday when at the Penn Relays Jack Milne, a sophomore here, cracked the old mark by almost 18 seconds.

Henderson's time for the two mile was 9:38, while Milne finished second to Curt Stone of Penn State in 9:20.5. Stone was clocked in 9:19.4.

It is believed that Milne's mark was the fastest time turned in by a collegiate in the history of southern track. It bettered the conference mark by Tommy Fields of 9:36 and also the indoor mark of Lumpkin of Richmond set in 1937.

On Saturday at the Relays before 43,000 screaming fans, the Carolina 480-yard shuttle hurdle team finished in a dead heat with Virginia in the trials and then went on to the finals where Indiana nipped them by an inch at the tape. The race was close all the way with never more than a foot separating the runners.

Dick Taylor turned in the two finest legs on the relay team, and much can be expected from this quartet in time to come.

Chuck Simmons took a close third in the individual 120-Invasion high hurdles and also anchored the blue and white relay team.

Jack Moody took a sixth place in the high jump with a leap that tied his University mark of 6 feet 3 inches. Five men tied for first with leaps of 6 feet 4 inches.

Bob Seligman completed the Tar Heel entrants with a fourth in the discus, only five inches out of third and a foot out of second.

Basketball Clinic To Be Ended Tonight

The final Carolina basketball clinic will be held tonight at 7:30 and brief spring drills for about 20 Tar Heel 1947-48 cage candidates will begin Monday afternoon, Coach Tom Scott of the White Phantoms announced last night.

Tournament Deadline

All entry blanks for the intramural tennis and horseshoe tournaments must be turned in by this afternoon, Assistant Mural Director P. A. Lee announced last night.

Beason's Blow Knocks Count For Carolina In Eighth; Game May Be Replayed Later

By Irwin Smallwood
They settled exactly nothing in Emerson stadium yesterday afternoon, nothing that is in the Big Four baseball race, for the Tar Heels of Carolina and the Deamon Deacons of Wake Forest fought it out nip and tuck for 10 wild innings before their Southern conference contest was called because of darkness with the scoreboard indicating a 9-9 deadlock.

There was no decision made as to whether the game would be replayed or not, but Carolina Coach Walter Rabb indicated that the encounter would be played at a later date if it became evident that it would have any effect on the final Big Four standings.

The tie ball game left Carolina with a 2-1 record in Big Four competition and Wake Forest with a 1-4 mark. The Tar Heels are idle the rest of this week until Saturday when the Duke Blue Devils make their second invasion of Chapel Hill of the season. The Carolina-Duke series is knotted at 1-1.

Lefty Vinnie DiLorenzo and Monk Whiteheart shared the pitching duty for the Carolina nine, and Whiteheart's steady hurling in the last two frames saved the day for the Tar Heels after Centerfielder Harry Beason had sent the tying runs in with a Texas league double to left in the bottom of the eighth.

At the end of four innings of play, Carolina rested comfortably with a 4-0 lead, but the Deacons exploded for two tallies in the fifth, three in the sixth and three in the seventh to go into the lead, 8-7 at that point. The Tar Heels had scored three times themselves in the sixth to match the torrid scoring pace set by the slugging Baptists.

Wake Forest put together a single, a double and an error to make their margin 9-7 as the Tar Heels came to bat in the eighth, but Beason's timely two-base blow with Bo Hackney and John Gregory on base evened the score. Both teams went three up and three down in the ninth and 10th cantos.

Jack Hussey led the Tar Heels in runs batted in, his triple with two on in the third accounting for two of them. Jim Hamilton also registered a triple for Carolina—with one on in the second.

Five bobbles afield on the part of each team added to the looseness of the ball game, and Coach Rabb of the Tar Heels used a total of 16 men in the fray.

Rain held up operations for 12 minutes in the sixth frame.
