In Annual Festivities....

'Queen of May' Will Be Crowned Sunday

The question, "Who will be the Queen of May," which has been asked hundreds of times on the campus will be answered next Sunday in Forrest theatre at the annual May Day festivities.

A Queen to reign over the occasion was selected several weeks ago in a mass coed balloting, but her name will remain a secret until she and her attendants are revealed next Sunday.

The event will be sponsored by the Panhellenic council, and the CICA with the cooperation of the Dramatic Art department, Chi Omega, Phi Literary society, and the modern dance group.

Last year's pageant which took place in Sleepy Hollow and featured Rip Van Winkle and his dream drew much campus attention and comment. Patsy Harry and 12 attendants were crowned in the ceremonies.

In case of rain May Day exercises will be held in the Forrest theatre on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

PRE-SCHOOL CLINIC

The pre-school clinic sponsored by the Health department will be held at the elementary school building Tuesday morning, May 6, from 9 until 1 o'clock. All children who expect to attend next fall for the first time should attend the clinic.

Names of all new students should be turned in to Miss Mildred Mooneyhan, principal of the elementary school. The office phone number is 7281.

Publications Board To Meet Tomorrow

The Publications board will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in the office of the Philanthropic assembly on the fourth floor of New East. Students wishing to bring business before the board at this time must contact Robert Morrison, board president, before the meeting.

ALPHA DELTA PI MEET

The Alpha Delta Pi Alumni club will meet at 7:30 in the Alpha Delta Pi house, 407 East Rosmary street. All Chapel Hill alumni are asked to attend the meeting.
