

Zetes, Everett Play For Grid Title Today; Mat Murals Begin

Final Victims Are Chi Psi, B Dormitory

By Lew Chapman
An electrifying 50 yard scoring play which averted certain defeat and a vital extra point enabled Zeta Psi to come from behind to retain the fraternity championship by nipping Chi Psi, 7-6, yesterday in the finals of the fraternity tag football playoffs. While the Zetes were pulling the game out of the fire, action on the adjoining field saw Everett trounce B Dorm, 14-6 and thus annex the dormitory laurels for 1949. Zeta Psi and Everett will clash today at 4 on Intramural field 2 to decide the campus champions.

The fraternity finale was a championship clash in every meaning of the word. Both Zeta Psi and Chi Psi, seemingly perennial tag football powers on the Carolina campus, had survived grueling league competition and had emerged on top in a playoff game to earn them the right to the title shot.

Chi Psi Scores

After a tightly played scoreless first half that featured a punting duel between Chi Psi's Tom Clayton and Zeta Psi's Heath Alexander, the Chi Psi's struck first after intermission on a forty yard scoring pass from Clayton to end Bo McColl. The six points marked the first time in two years that the Zetes had been scored upon in fraternity competition. A pass for the extra point was broken up and Chi Psi led with 10 minutes to play, 6-0.

Following the ensuing kickoff, Zeta Psi attempted to get an offense rolling but were felled by determined Chi Psi. With 4 minutes left, the Zetes were forced to punt from their own 10 and Clayton, in returning the ball, unleashed an errant pass which the Zetes' alert Jim Ballou snatched at midfield and converted the interception into a tally with a short pass to Bud Ruffin in paydirt. Alexander's placement was true and Zeta Psi's successful defense of the title was insured.

Everett Rallies

Although the Dorm game was not as close, Everett had to also come from behind to win. Joe O'Shields took one of George Short's tosses in the end zone to give B Dorm an early lead but Everett bounced back with a tally scored by Fred Brady to knot the score at halftime at 6-6. The closing half saw Everett assume an 8-6 lead on a quick safety and salt the victory away five minutes later on a score by Jack Hobbs.

Tar Heel Soccermen Battle Duke This Afternoon On Fetzer Field

By Art Greenbaum
Round and round the victory wheel goes; where it will stop, nobody knows. The Tar Heelers are off on another victory streak. Their last victory span went from Washington and Lee through Virginia, a four-game win streak which was finally halted by Penn State in a close contest.

This afternoon, the Blue Devil soccermen will invade Chapel Hill to play the role of the villain. The Carolina booters have won two straight and hope to continue on their winning ways today on Fetzer Field.

The Duke booters, who almost spelled defeat for the Tar Heels on Tuesday afternoon, demonstrated to Coach Allen and his players that victory does not come easily. It was not until late in the final quarter that the Allenmen's Dave Ferebee booted the winning tally.

The Blue Devils tried to upset the applicator on Tuesday but the Tar Heels fought back with determination. Coach Allen spent yesterday afternoon polishing up the

Frosh Harriers Set

Carolina's freshman cross country team will attempt to revenge an earlier defeat at the hands of the Duke frosh when the two teams engage on the Carolina two-and-a-half mile course tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Tar Baby frosh went through their final workout of the season yesterday in preparation for the big rematch of the meet and for the freshman Big Five meet to be run in Raleigh on Monday.

Carolina's "Big Three," Mike Healy, Bobby Byrd and Bob Webb will lead the Tar Babies into action.

core of his passing attack and now all that remains is the worm which the Carolina soccermen will be glad to present to the Duke booters this afternoon.

Since changing from fullback to goalie, Buck Blankenship has performed admirably at his new position along with Billy Rhoades who has teamed with Frank Nelson to bolster the defense.

After the Duke encounter is completed, Coach Allen will use the three remaining practice days to sharpen up for the storming Maryland Terrapins who will invade Chapel Hill on Tuesday. The "Old Liners" have won all scheduled contests except for an overtime loss to Penn State.

A win this afternoon will give the locals a record of seven wins against two defeats. Coach Allen and his cohorts are confident that they will rack up their seventh victory which will lengthen their present streak to three.

The Tar Heels have scored twenty-six goals in their first eight games with Foy and Ferebee registering sixteen of these tallies. Other Tar Heel scoring is divided among eight local booters with Greenbaum and Langley tallying two markers apiece.

Gliarmis, Gwynn, Garner, Moore, Sawyer, and Winsor have scored one each to complete the scoring column.

Justice To Play Against Duke; Team Nears Best Physical Shape

Charlie Justice's injured ankle has shown great improvement and North Carolina's All American back may get to see considerable action Saturday against Duke, the team he has helped defeat the past three seasons.

This was disclosed yesterday when the Choo Choo, although still in light gear, worked a long while on passing and did a little running. He expressed the opinion that he would be able to play and trainers and coaches also thought so.

Last year Justice gained 120 yards rushing against the Blue Devils, scoring one touchdown and passing for another, as the Tar Heels scored a 20-0 victory. In 1947 he ran for two touchdowns in a 21-0 triumph and in 1946 he passed for one and ran for another in a 22-7 win.

Center Joe Neikirk, injured in the Notre Dame game, also took a turn in skeleton lineups and tested his running and maneuvering ability with favorable results. Trainers said he likely would be able to play against Duke.

"Right now it looks like we may be in the best physical condition we have been in for some time," Coach Carl Snaveley said. "The big problem is to get the boys up mentally again, after their try against Notre Dame."

For the third day in succession, the Tar Heels engaged in scrimmage work. Dick Bunting and Billy Hayes stood out in offensive running.

As a safeguard in case Neikirk is not ready Saturday, Irv Holdash and Andy Miketa were again worked at the offensive center

Record Crowd of 57,000 Expected at Duke

DURHAM, Nov. 16 — (AP) — Duke University athletic officials today revealed that the expected attendance for Saturday's Duke-North Carolina football game in Duke Stadium here will smash all previous attendance marks for a regular season football game between Baltimore and New Orleans.

The expected crowd for the big Southern Conference battle is 57,000, and that's a good thousand better than the old record which was set here two years ago when the same two teams met.

Attendance at that 1947 game is the present record for any football game in the Southern Conference and for any regular-season game between Baltimore's Babe Ruth Stadium and Tulane University's Sugar Bowl Stadium.

Duke mustered its football forces again this afternoon for a long, hard drill in which both defensive and offensive units got into scrimmage sessions against freshman combinations.

Wingback Fred Schoonmaker rejoined the squad, following an injury received last Saturday, but he did not take any part in the workout. Fullback Jack Mounie was again present but took no part in the rough work. It was the third straight day which Mounie has spent on the sidelines, and it is still not known whether he or Schoonmaker will be ready to play Saturday.

Justice Scholarship Fund Started By Durham Alumni

A movement to establish a Charlie Justice Scholarship Fund at the University of North Carolina has been launched by a group of Durham Alumni.

Charlie Justice, who closes out his football career at Carolina with the Virginia game, "is not only one of the greatest football players produced at Carolina, but is the Carolina player to receive the greatest national acclaim," the Durham group said in a statement urging prompt contributions to the fund.

"Charlie has won acclaim, not only for his athletic ability, but for his personal character, his sportsmanship, his team spirit, his modesty and his clean living. He has become the ideal for the youth of the nation and for all who love clean athletics and clean living," the statement said.

"While Charlie soon winds up his career as a player at Carolina, he will be long in our memory. We want to show our appreciation for what he stands for."

The Durham Committee organ-

McGuire AP Lineman

NEW YORK Nov. 16-(AP)—A lad from Oregon State in the Pacific Northwest is this week's Lineman of the Week. He is Stanley McGuire, a 192-pound end who stands five feet, 11 inches.

Among those nominated along with McGuire was North Carolina's Kenny Powell.

Carolina Coeds In Hockey Game

The Carolina coed field hockey team will play its first intercollegiate game this afternoon when Duke invades Kenan Stadium for a 4 o'clock game.

Carolina's lassies will go into the game after several weeks of practice. Coach of the locals is Mrs. George Hogan.

The next game on the schedule is with the Women's College on Monday at 4 o'clock.

Duke Ducat Dope

The last of the students tickets for the Duke game Saturday were issued yesterday, and the Athletic department announced there were none left over to be placed on public sale.

To all those who drew student coupons the Woolen officials issued a warning: Get there early, for Duke is providing only three students gates in contrast to the usual 10 used at Kenan Stadium. The gates will open at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

izing the fund is composed of James R. Patton Jr., Dr. W. M. Coppridge, Baxter H. Miller, Marshall T. Spears, Henry A. Millis Jr., and J. L. Morehead. Morehead is serving as treasurer of the fund and contributions should be sent to him at Box 307, Durham.

The committee hopes to raise the fund before the football season ends.

Major Norm Hays, Oklahoma A&M, '40
-Aviation Executive, U.S. Air Force!

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1935. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

Active in national 4H Club work while in college, he helped organize its statewide activities, won a national 4H championship in Public Speaking. In 1940 he received his BS degree in engineering.

A month later he began navigator training as an Aviation Cadet. In 1941, he received his navigator's wings and a commission as Second Lieutenant... married his college sweetheart.

Typical of college graduates who have found their place in the U. S. Air Force, Major Hays is Chief, Navigation Section, at Headquarters in Washington... with a secure career... a promising future.

Accepting a regular commission after the war, he was assigned to development of navigation instruments; navigated the B-29 "Pacusan Dreamboat" on its famed Hawaii-Cairo non-stop flight in 1946.

If you are single, between the ages of 20 and 28 1/2, with at least two years of college, consider a flying career as an officer in the U. S. Air Force. You may be able to meet the high physical and moral requirements and be selected for training. If you do not complete Aviation Cadet training, you may return to civilian life or have opportunity to train for an important officer assignment in non-flying fields.

Air Force officer procurement teams are visiting many colleges and universities to explain about these career opportunities. Watch for their arrival or get full details at your nearest Air Force Base, local recruiting station, or by writing to the Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force, Attention: Aviation Cadet Branch, Washington 25, D. C.
