Tar Heels Rout Citadel, 77-39; Frosh Edge Wolfcubs, 65-61

Holy Cross Top Team, Wolfpack9th

THE BOX

16 7 23 FG FT PF

Choo Holds Party

For Grid Finale

NEW YORK, Jan. 30-(A)-For North Carolina the third straight week, unbeaten Kappler i Holy Cross tops the Associated Guyes Tsantes f Press basketball poll with al-Ferraro most 60 per cent of the first place Nearman c Bennett votes. easy g

Although the Crusaders were Turk fille last week, they drew 92 of Patterson g a possible 157 first place ballots Godwin from the nation's basketball from the nation's basketball writers and sportscasters. Holy Cross and Duquesne, the only unbeaten major powers in the country, have identical 14-0 season records but the Crusaders piled up a point edge in the pol. 1.446 to 1.040. Points are figured on the basis of 10 for a first place vote and so on down to one for tenth place.

Charlie Justice had his final Duquesne made Youngstown its 14th victim, 69-49, to pick up football roundup last night. 10 firsts. The Iron Dukes now Carolina's All-America tailhead into a rugged week that back pitched a barbecue party includes games with both Cin- for his teammates, friends, and cinnati and Louisville.

Solid victories over Tulsa and an appreciative farewell to col-St. Louis enabled Bradley (17-3) lege football. to vault from sixth to third | More than 100 guests gathered place with four firsts. Close be- at the Chapel Hill Country Club hind came Long Island Univer- and heard the captain of the sity (14-2) which ran over Law- 1949 Tar Heels act as master of rence Tech, 84-54, in its only ceremonies. start. Seven writers ranked LIU Acting President of the Great- in the fray. No. 1.

St. John's (16-2), Kentucky michael, Jr., made the only talk, (13-4), Ohio State (11-3) and speaking lightly of the work of La Salle (12-2) were tightly Justice, who has accepted a post bunched in that order from fifth with the North Carolina Medical through eighth positions. St. John's returned to action football career at Carolina, with a 65-46 win over St. Francis. The Redmen, early AP poll among the many distinguished leaders, drew only four first guests present, who listened to place votes. After an upset loss to Notre selections by former Metropolito dump Xavier and Georgia, and the Sigma Chi Sextet. good enough to attract six firsts.

Six men rated Ohio State tops in the nation after the Buckeyes' 63-58 triumph over Minnesota. La Salle subdued Temple, 67-51 for an important win. They drew five firsts

Tourney Bound? Nemo, Hugo FG FT PF TP Lead Mates To Loop Win

By Joe Cherry Carolina's varsity basketballers moved a notch closer to a berth in the Southern Conference tournament last night by blasting an outclassed Citadel quint, 77-39, before 3500 well pleased spectators in Woollen Gym.

With Captain Nemo Nearman and Hugo Kappler displaying some classy shooting, the Tar Babies rapidly pulled away after five minutes of nip-and-tuck ball to easily rack up their third Conference victory in four days.

> Nearman, who topped the locals' point-making with 21 points, moved into the Southern Conference scaring lead with a 177 points total in Conference tilts. Tex Tilson of Virginia Tech, who was the top man in the loop until tonight, is in the runnerup position with 157.

Kappler was close behind Nearman with 20 points to show for press and radio in this area as his night's work.

Carolina Coach Tom Scott played his second stringers almost half the contest, and before the game was over he had emptied the bench of all reserves, with a total of 14 Tar Heel cagers taking part

The entire starting lineup for er University William D. Carthe Tar Heels played good ball, with forward John Tsantes and guards Howard Deasy and Dick Patterson tossing in six points Foundation after completing his apiece.

Forward Dick Zelinski broke the ice after only eight seconds Chancellor R. B. House was had elapsed with a tap-in shot to give the Cadets a 2-0 lead, but a program of songs that included

Dame, Kentucky bounced back tan Opera star Norman Cordon the Citadel ahead again, on a lars except Kappler, and the ed to a 4-0 lead on a pair of quick

Locals Drop State Again In Woollen

him nearly a decade ago. By Larry Fox Proving to the home folks that their victory last week over highly-rated State College was no fluke, the Tar Baby cagers came from behind last night to take a ed salary. thrilling victory from the Wolf-cubs, 65-61. In a game that saw the score deadlocked 13 times, the local frosh erased a four-point lead held by the visitors with five minutes to go and tied things up University of Iowa. at 61-61 with 1:20 remaining in the game. A layup by Forward Dr. Bill Osmanski, who cap-Ernie Schwarz put the Tar Ba- tained the college football forces bies ahead for good at 18:58 and under Anderson. just before the final gun sounded Schwarz caged another one from close in to clinch the victory for worked for a three-point spread the Carolina. The halftime score of their own before State tied it up once again at the half. was 31-31.

Last night's defeat for the Wolfcubs marked only the second second half with a rush, and the time they have been defeated this five-minute mark the local yearseason and both jobs were done lings started to inch ahead of the by the Carolina yearlings in Woollen Gym. It was the 10th locked at 37-37 Bud Maddie and victory for the locals as against Schwarz caged a pair of quick ones and field goals by Wallace, three defeats.

Carolina's Vince Grimaldi was Schwarz, Maddie, and Grimaldi by far the oustanding man on gained the home team what the floor and lead both teams in proved to be their widest margin of the contest, 50-44, with 10 scoring department with a total of 20 points. A fine ball-handler, minutes to go.

But field goals by Mosely, Er-Grimaldi was equally valuable on nie Yurin, and Buck Seif tied defense and Schwarz' tie-breakthings up again and two more ing goal in the final minutes of field goals put the Wolfcubs in the Grimaldi took over at this point and in rapid succession dropped Forward Jack Wallace was in a long set, followed up a long had run up a 49-24 margin, and while Bill Kukoy bucketted 16 to shot that missed, and racked up Tsantes and Kappler connected after ten minutes of play they lead the Wolfcubs. Schwarz tal- a jump shot to bring Carolina within three points of State. The lineups:

Anderson To HC

WORCESTER, Mass., Jan. 30

-(A)-Dr. Eddie Anderson is returning to Holy Cross whose rooters hope the skillful physician-football coach can re-

State Frosh (61) Kukoy (16)

Halftime score: State 31, Carolina

Carolina Frosh (65)

Schwartz (14)

Grimaldi (20

Wallace (17) Maddie (4)

Lacrosse Drills Start

Approximately 20 men re- a call for more boys interested ported to Navy Field yester- in playing the sport and anday afternoon for the first nounced that practice will be workout of the Carolina la- held from 4 to 6 every aftercross team. Coach Bill Darden has issued noon and 10-12 on Saturday

PAGE THREE

The odds are greater that you will have an accident in winter. So weigh the odds in your favor by having your brakes checked. Use tire chains for safety's sake when snow or ice conditions prevail.

Be Careful—the life you save may be your own!

This advertisement sponsored in the interest of your safety by

STROWD MOTOR COMPANY Your Ford Dealer

PHILIP MORRIS

A six-point spurt by the Ca- play was scored after Grimaldi the nearest thing to a rally the Kent Mosely. losers could put on.

on foul tosses to even the count were ahead 54-28. At this point lied 14 for Carolina at 2-2. Zelinski came back to put Coach Scott pulled all his regu- Although the Tar Babies jump-minutes of play on a push shot sinking five straight foul tosses. lead and State soon tied it up time with a tap-in basket but the game for Carolina, the home the lead on a set shot and a lay-

At the 7:30 mark the locals next high man with 17 points jump shot, with Nearman tying Tar Heel forward closed out baskets by Wallace, they were visitors out in front for the third time with a tap-in basket but Tsantes made and basket basket but Tsantes made and the land basket but Tsantes made a

Tsantes made good on a foul toss team still more than held its up and that was the way it went

Tar Heels in the final minutes,

HUGO KAPPLER ... back in stride in the first stanza, Benton Bennett swished a jump shot to give the Tar Heels a 20 point margin, with the score standing at 36-16. At intermission, Carolina held a very comfortable, 37-18 advantage.

dets early in the second half was had stolen the ball from State's lead.

the score at 4-4-all after three his scoring for the evening by unable to open up any kind of Morris (8)

North Carolina State (15-3) carned six first place votes by held tonight at 7:30 for men who whizzing past Louisville and have not had orientation firing. Virginia Tech, moving up from The regular firing in competition tenth to ninth place.

The top teams: (First place votes n parentheses and records including Ian. 28 games with points on 10-9-8-7-1-5-4-3-2-1 basis). Wednesday night at 7:30. TUESDAY'S BASKETBA SCHEDULE 4:00: Ct 1. Alex 2 we C. D. Points 1,446 1,040 773

Records 14-0 14-0 17-3 14-2 16-2 13-4 11-3 12-2 15-3 10-2 Holy Cross (92) Duquesne Bradley (10) Bradley (4) Long Island (7) St. John's (4) Kentucky (6) Ohio State (6) La Salle (5) State N. Y (6)

FENCING PRACTICE

All varsity and freshmen fen-cers are urged to attend the prac-tice this afternoon at 4:15 in the Tin Can. This meeting will de-termine which fencers will make the trip to VMI and Augusta Military Academy. The teams will leave this Friday.

Nemo Adds To Scoring Lead With Play Against SC Foes

Manley

Captain Nemo Nearman had tallies against VPI, Patterson little trouble finding the scoring ended up with 87.

range against four Southern Con- Kappler's lay off cost him the ference foes during the last two runner-up position as John weeks and with the greatest of Tsantes, who ranked behind ease came up with a total of 70 Nearman early in the season, repoints for the four games' work. gained the spot by scoring 75 With 20 points in both the South markers against the Southern Carolina and VPI game and 16 Conference teams. Tsantes now against State's Paul Horvath, has 169 points for the season as Nearman hit the hoop for an compared to Kappler's 151. average of 17.5 per game, some- Nearman's outburst in the last thing heretofore credited only to four games brought his season total of points scored to 248 one Sam Ranzino.

As usual Nearman's deadly and increased his game average free throws helped considerably to 13 for the 19 encounters of toward his high scoring. With the year. He still holds the lead 10 coming against the Wolfpack, in the free throw department Nearman made 20 points from with 78. The big man is also the the foul line. He had his best top fouler with 69 personal fouls night from the floor against called against him so far.

South Carolina when he hit for The team, supposedly a low scoring one, has hit for an aver-9 field goals.

Forward Hugo Kappler, who, age of 54 points per game. In the until his well known sickness last four games, however, it has forced him out of two games and gone well over that average. The season's scoring including the slowed him down in another, Davidson game: FT 78 38 42 26 18 20 33 16 10 PF

Nearman Tsantes

Kappler Deasy g

White a

erraro

Turk g Terrell g Guves c Redding

Vitasek

Godwin

Patter ennett

had pushed Nearman for scoring, fell way behind the tall center, Kappler scored 11 against Davidson on Saturday night after seeing limited action against VPI.

Dick Patterson who replaced Kappler at forward against South Carolina and State ranked behind Nearman for points scored in the four games. With 21

Rifle marksmanships will be Carolina in the lead, 7-6. After a Citadel free throw had scoring seven points.

7-7, the Tar Heels when ahead to ding, Irving Turk, and Marion TUESDAY'S BASKETBALL SCHEDULE 4:00: Ct. 1- Alex 2 vs. C Dorm 4: 2-C Dorm vs. Grimes; 3- Town vs. Steele: 4- Lewis 2 vs. B Dorm 2: 5-Q Hut vs. Ruffin 2; 7- Aycock 3 vs. Manley L stay 9-7, on Kappler's hook at Godwin followed the second five into the fray, and Redding made Nearman and Kappler, aided the score 71-34 in favor of Caroby Deasy's lay-up shot and some lina at the 18 minute mark when Manley I. 5:00: Ct. 1- Mangum 2 vs. A Dorm 1; 2- YMCA vs. Everett 2; 3- Pharm Sch vs. Aycock 4; 4- Lewis 1 vs. A Dorm 4; 5- Miller vs. C Dorm 3; 7-Manley 2 vs. Alartic 4. nice floor work by the other Tar he flipped in a nice hook shot. Heels, combined to run up a Ferraro closed out the Tar Manley 2 vs. Alex 1. 7:00: Ct. 1- ATO 2 vs. Lamb Chi 3: 2- SAE vs. Chi Phi 2: 3- Kappa Psi 2 vs. Chi Phi 2: 4- Kappa Sig 1 vs. Sig Chi 2: 5- Sig Eps 3 vs. DKE 2: 6-TEP 1 vs. Zeta 1: 7- KA 1 vs. Chi Pai 2: 22-7 advantage at the midway Heel scoring by dropping in the mark of the first half. next six points, while Charley

For a period of seven minutes Fabian cut the Carolina margin the Cadets were unable to con- to 28 points on a crip shot with nect from the floor, with Britt only five seconds left in the finally scoring from beneath the game.

Sports Meeting

There will be an important defense, and they managed only meeting of the Daily Tar Heel four more field goals before in- sports staff this afternoon at termission, all set shots. 2 o'clock in the DTH office in

With two minutes remaining Graham Memorial.

and Nearman sank a nice hook own against the quint from until 10:45 when Bob Speight There will be an important after driving all the way to put Charleston. Ferraro paced the drove in to make it 18-16, State. meeting of the Monogram Club That started a Wolfpack surge tonight at 7:30 at the club's that netted them a five-point lead building. This meeting will ac-

MEN'S SHOP

COLOR CARTOON