Kappa Sigma Pledge Dance Held In Carolina Inn Ballroom

The Kappa Sig Black and White Ball, the main attraction of the weekend of festivities held last week, was a gala affair according to all reports from those in attendance.

The dance was held in the ballroom of the Carolina Inn which was decked for the occasion in black and white decorations. Pines, sprayed white, with black pine cones lined the walls. Profiles of the 22 pledges were scattered about the walls of the room. The bandstand holding Chic Burroughs and Band was lavishly decorated in black and white crepe paper.

All dates and chaperones were given gardenias upon their arrival. Pledges were identified by boutonnières of carnations. The pledges' dates were given hand bouquets of red roses at the start of the figure.

Pledges and their dates formed the star and crescent, the crest of the Kappa Sig as the figure. The girls composed the crescent while the pledges formed the star.

Immediately following the dance, a breakfast was held at the house where all dates received as favors compacts bearing the fraternity crest.

Other festivities included a party at the house Friday afternoon given for the brothers by the pledges. The brothers reciprocated with a party at Webb's Cabin Friday night for the pledges, brothers, and their dates where singing and dancing were the order of the evening.

Saturday, an afternoon party was held at Terrace View followed by a dinner party which broke up in time for the dance.

The pledges who were honored are George Freeman of Raleigh, president of the pledge class; Cliff Eller of Statesville, vice-president; and Bob Johnston of Statesville, secretary-treasurer.

Other pledges are Joe Aldridge, Kinston; Van Barringer, Mt. Airy; Al Blanton, Kinston;

Bob Caudle, Raleigh; Jack Cowan, Durham; Willard Coley, Graham; Dick Griswold, Goldsboro; Lloyd Hinton, Washington, D. C.; Clem Johnson, Benson; Henry Knott, Kinston; Ben Lackey, Winston-Salem; King Maxwell, Charlotte; Bill Morrison; Statesville; Dick Patterson, Pilot Mountain; Dan Perry, Kinston; Jimmy Purser, Raleigh; in Ryan, Sylva; and Howard Wentz, Albemarle.

Sigma Nu Pledges 12; Other Fraternities Active

With exams in the air, fraternity activities are scarce. However, on last Wednesday the Sigma Nus recognized 12 new pledges.

Rt. Rev. Penick To Administer Episcopal Rites

The Rt. Rev. Edwin A. Penick, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, will preach and administer confirmation at his annual visitation to the Episcopal Church, tomorrow morning at 8 and 11 o'clock, the Rev. David W. Yates, rector of the Chapel of the Cross said yesterday.

At 8 o'clock that morning, Rev. Yates said, there will be a cooperative communion of all Episcopalians, both students and townspeople whom the Bishop has confirmed, wherever the confirmation may have taken place. Bishop Penick will officiate at this service, also, the Rector said. The Bishop is head of the
