Tar Heel Baseballers Down Duke In Big Four Opener, 3-2

Late Blue Devil Rally Fails; Cassell Credited With Win

By Larry Fox

With righthander Dean Cassell bearing down in the ninth to stifle a dangerous Duke rally, the Tar Heel baseballers tional Senior AAU Meet. opened their Big Four schedule in grand style here yesterday afternoon by edging the Blue Devils, 3-2.

The victory was also Carolina's.

second in the Southern Conference against one loss.

Cassell, who went all the way, had to do plenty of clutch pitching in the final inning when the Blue Devils, trailing by one run, got men on second and third with none out.

right. Cavalier took second on under way. Rightfielder Ed Lamb's error.

mer for the final out.

Bergeron was the leading man point. at the plate for the afternoon On the nights program are of the day.

game, won his third game of the crawl, 75 yard medley relay, 50 season. He has lost two. Norm yard free style, 25 yard breast Benfer, who toiled nine innings stroke, and the 200 yard free for the Blue Devils, was the loser. style.

Bergeron's homer to rightcenterfield, which went just over Lamb's outstretched glove opened up the scoring in this tight Big Four game, but the Tar Heels took advantage of Benfer's momentary loss of control in the second and pushed across a pair meet must have their entries in of runs to take over the lead.

Coed Swimmer In Mural Meet Thursday Night

Bowman Gray Pool promises John Falwell opened the last to be hte campus number one inning with a single to center and spot of interest this Thursday advanced to third on pinch-hitter night at 7:30 as the big Coed Benny Cavalier's one-baser to Intramural swimming meet gets Coeds from many of the cam-But Cassell, senior ace of the pus organizations will compete Freshmen Drop Carolina staff, had what was both individually and as teams needed. He got Red Lucas on a in the big splash contest. The 7-3 Decision called third strike, Bill Bergeron meet will feature some lively was out on a short, fly to center competition setween sororities To Blue Imps field, and Brandon Davis popped and dormitories and should prove out to secondbaseman Skeet Hes- exciting, even if you're only interested from a sport's stand-with three hits in four trips, in- several regular speed events as cluding a home run in the first well as events which will be inning for the only extra-base hit judged on the basis of form.

Scheduled for the meet is the 25 ten hits off pitcher E. Z. Pazdon, Cassell, who pitched a sharp yard free style, 25 yard back and a series of seven errors. Pazdon allowed only one earned run. Henning led the Tar Babies with two hits while Hooks, Crowder, and White collected one

A great deal of interest is be- each. Lea, Duke short stop, with ing centered on the 75 yard med- two for five, and Bill Werber, ley relay, in which teams from Duke first sacker, with two for the various coed organizations three, led the yearling Blue will compete against one another. Devils.

Coeds who wish to enter the at Woman's gym by 5:00 Wed- they have run their current win ficials.

year.

her to Palm Beach.

opening Big Four game.

Sara Dives In Florida Golfers Meet Deacons At Raleigh Sara Wakefield, 22 year old senior from Charlotte and Palm Beach, left yesterday for Palm To Resume Southern Loop Battles Beach, Florida where she will compete in the one meter board diving championship at the Na-

By Biff Roberts

Miss Wakefield finished sixth in this event last summer when she made her debut in diving. The title was won by Olympic champ Zoe Ann Olsen, who is expected to compete again this ternoon when they match irons week. Last year Miss Miss Wakefield won the National Junior AAU one meter diving title Club in Raleigh.

and last month took the Florida State Southestern AAU championships. She has been coached point loss to the linksmen from second twosome. here by Carolina diving coach Don Draper, who accompained

The Blue Devils capitalized on Open Tomorrow

> Carolina's freshman track team will open the dual meet season tomorrow when the Tar Babies journey to High Point to meet

State earlier in the season and the request of High Point of-twosome will be Roy McKenzie, with Navy.

After battling off the golf who capably took over the num- Wake Forest will throw an this afternoon when they take Duke last week, 9-0. They fell to threats from invading Yankees ber one spot while the Tarboro impressive sextet at the Tar Heels on Presbysterian College here at Davidson earlier by a score of for the past two weeks, Carolina's golfer was away. MvKenzie had with Arnold Palmer, twice South- 3 o'clock. golfers will resume their South- a one-over-par 71 when the Tar ern Conference champion, lead- Coach Kenfield's undefeated The visitors will be facing a ern Conference struggles this af- Heels met Ohio University last ing the way. Against Harvard, netters were idle last weekend, Carolina squad that has allow-

Forest at the Carolina Country Navy meet with a par 70, will be tory of 36-0, Palmer and number locals travel to Wake Forest for matches. playing out of the number three the Carolina team after being their first big four encounter. The Tar Heels will be attmept- position for the Tar Heels and two man, Frank Eden, both ing to climb back in the winners will be teaming with either Stubb went over the par 72 Raleigh number three singles player who circle, after their recent one- Sapp or Frank Brooks in the course with 69's.

the U. S. Naval Academy. Prior Sapp proved to be the most resented by Dick Tiddy, playing knee has shown any improveto the Navy meet, the Carolina consistent of the Carolina golfers out of the number three slot, ment, Coach Kenfield said yesstrokers had gone through six in the last two matches with a Mickey Gallagher, Jennings Ag- terday. successive matches without a loss. 71 against Ohio and a 72 against ner, and Bud Worsham. Against

The Presbyterians, usually a There will be a little steady- Navy. Brooks was medalist Harvard Tiddy had a one-under strong club in Southern compeing influence, in the person of against the boys from the Buck- 71 while Gallagher and Agner Harvie Ward, on the course this eye State with a 70 but soared to were even with 72's.

afternoon that was sorely missed a 79 against the Middies. The Tar Heels will return to in the meet with Middies. Ward, Jack Brantley will be fifth man the Hope Valley Course on Thurswho shot a 74 on Sunday to place man for the local golfers and will day to meet the traveling Uni-DURHAM, April 10-Duke's him third among the amateurs at make up the final twosome with versity of Michigan. They are freshman baseball nine defeated the Masters Tournament in Au- either Frank Eckert, Jim Hadley, then scheduled to go to Pinehurst the Carolina yearlings 7-3, here gusta, Ga., will be back to lead or Harvie Oliver. Eckert held for the annual North-South Amatoday. It was the Tar Babies first Don Draper, who accompanied down the number six position in teur on Auril 17 and 22. They defeat of the season and their away during the last two battles. the recent meets but Hadley shot will then meet the Deacons in Playing with Ward in the first a 72 while playing a single match a return match here on the 25th.

Frosh Cindermen Freshmen Netters Meet Duke In Durham This Afternoon

The Freshman tennis team Blue Devils.

travels to Durham to play a Coach Hughes Davis was dispowerful Duke squad in big appointed over the Tar Babies' the High Point High tracksters four tennis competition today. play against State Saturday and in a meet originally scheduled With three straight wins behind game. "Duke will be the toughest The Blue Devils had defeated for Monday, but postponed at them the team will be out to team we've met or will meet make it four straight against the this season."

Undefeated Varsity Netmen Seek 10th Win Here Today

By Harvey Ritch

The varsity tennis team will than usual this year. The South be seeking its tenth straight win Carolinians were defeated by 7 to 2.

whom the Deacons defeated 351/2- resting up from four home mat- ed its opponents only one point with divoting Deacons from Wake Rod McKnight, low man in the 1/2 as compared to Carolina's vic- ches last week. Thursday the at the most in the last nine

> Heath Alexander, Tar Heel was hurt in a match with Har-The Deacons will also be rep- vard, may see action today if his Organdy with lace trim organicy with life thin ruffle pocket, and bod-ice, also bow in back and tiny pearl buttons in back. Silp-blouses to complete ensemble.

tition, are reportedly weaker

PINAFORES

in

All Sizes

$2.98

Under Ledbetter-Pickard

PAGE THREE

Army Khaki Pants $2.95 Navy Grey Pants $2.95 1st Quality T-Shirts .38 Full Line of Jackets & Sport Shirts SURPLUS SALES 425 W. Main St. Durham, N. C.

