

Zeta Beta Tau Names Mendel New President

Don Mendel of Atlanta, Ga., is the new president of Zeta Beta Tau fraternity here. Other officers chosen recently are vice president, Bob Raskin; secretary, Jerry Sternberg; treasurer, Bob Goodman, and historian, Gene Oberdorfer. Recently initiated brothers of ZBT are Gene Oberdorfer, Theodore Frankel of Atlanta, Ga., and Joseph Freedman of Westport, Conn.

Carolina Social Whirl

By Wuff Newell, Society Editor
Chapel Hill had its own Azalea Festival Thursday afternoon when the Chi Phi's entertained the Chi Psi's at a party on the patio of the Chi Phi house. The party was named in honor of the one azalea plant which the fraternity has. The new initiates of Chi Phi are Will Lounon, Jim Wordsworth, Lamar Stroupe, T. Z. Dunn, Frank McKeown and Bill Ward. Harold Bowen of Charleston is a new Beta pledge. Another recent party was the one held by Arthur Briskin's radio production class at Hogan's Lake Sunday. The class plans to hold several more picnics before the quarter is over.

entertained the Tri Deltas at Hogan's Lake Monday afternoon. The group sang, ate hot dogs, roasted marshmallows and played softball. Jeanne Baily, Margo Kuhn, Winured Walker, Arden Boisseau and Margaret Gwaitney are new members of Tri Delt sorority.

Wednesday night the new Chi O officers were installed. As usual, pinnings, engagements and weddings are in the social spotlight. Mabry Bass, Sigma Nu from Tarboro, was married to Pat Shayer of Wayne, Pa., April 14. The couple will live in Chapel Hill until Bass graduates in June.

Another Sigma Nu, Jack McGinn of Savannah, Ga., is to be married this month. His bride will be Margery Chapman, also of Savannah. They will make their home in Winston-Salem.

Jake Schoonderwoerd, a Sig Ep, has pinned Janet Ellington, president of Town Girls Association. Frances Ferguson, who was here in summer school and who is now teaching in Winston-Salem, recently became pinned to Phi Delt Harvey Brinkley.

Phi Delt Jim Montague and Daphne Yelverton, who attended summer school here last summer, will be married June 17. The engagement of Jane Hold of Oak Ridge to KA Jimmy Harvey was recently announced.

Jane Lyons and Mary Deane Williams were initiated in Alpha Gam sorority Tuesday night. At the meeting the following night Jane was elected Altruistic work chairman and Mary Deane was elected chaplain.

Last night the Wake Forest Lambda Chi's entertained the Alpha Gams at a party.

Phi Mu Alpha Elects Clay Crisp President
Clay Crisp has been elected president of Phi Mu Alpha Sigma Iota Fraternity. Other officers are vice president, Will Headlee; secretary, Carl Baxter; treasurer, Robin Scroggs; warden, William Hudgins; historian, Max Lindsay; and alumni secretary, Joe Morrow.

AGD To Have IRD Luncheon
Alpha Gamma Delta's are keeping busy this weekend with their annual International Reunion Day luncheon today, a coffee tomorrow afternoon and a party given by the Wake Forest Lambda Chi's last night.

Alumnae from all over the state are expected to attend the luncheon which will begin at 1 o'clock. Social Chairman Shirley Mathews is in charge of all arrangements.

Theta Chi's Banquet Honors Anniversary

Alpha Eta Chapter Elects Don Maynard New President To Succeed Alan Spivey

Alpha Eta chapter of Theta Chi joined with 95 other chapters last night to celebrate the 94th anniversary of the fraternity. Each of the chapters throughout the country held a banquet at the same time, and the same program was carried out at each one. The local chapter had its celebration at the Carolina Inn, and it was attended by actives, pledges and alumni. The banquet was a double celebration, for it was held in honor of the chapter's first anniversary on campus since it was reactivated last spring.

The banquet was preceded yesterday with an intrafaternity softball game. Don Maynard, junior from Garden City, N. Y., has been elected president of Alpha Eta chapter. He succeeds Alan Spivey, who has served as president since the chapter was reactivated last May.

Other officers for the coming year are vice president, Henry Phelps; secretary, Neil Glenn; treasurer, Will Worth; marshal, Dave Seitz; chaplain, Nelson Taylor; librarian, Cecil Perry; historian, Troy Pate; first guard, Lotes Holmes; second guard, J. Ray Edmondson; assistant treasurer, Steve Fasul; Interfraternity Council representative, Ray McCaskell, and alternate, Richard Stone.

Phi Delta Chi Initiates Eight New Pledges
Phi Delta Chi, pharmaceutical fraternity, recently initiated eight pledges. Those initiated were Bob Pifer, Truman Hudson, Jim Ben-nick, Bill VanValkenberg, Wilbur Ward, Gene Allen, J. C. McGhee, and Dewey Stonestreet. The fraternity will attend a state convention Monday in the George Vanderbilt Hotel in Asheville.

Church Groups Plan Meetings At Usual Times

The Presbyterian Fellowship will hear a discussion by the Rev. Mr. Charles Jones on the objectives of the individual and of society at its meeting tomorrow night at 6 o'clock.

Dr. Samuel Tilden Habel will speak at "Is One Church the Answer?" at the Baptist Student Union supper at 6 o'clock tomorrow night.

The Wesley Foundation will meet at the Methodist Church at 6 o'clock tomorrow night for supper and an election of officers. Coffee and doughnuts will be served to the 9:30 Student Bible Discussion Group at the Episcopal Church tomorrow morning. Dr. Claiborne Jones will discuss Saint Paul's Epistles to the Corinthians.

The Canterbury Club will meet at 6 o'clock for supper. Dr. Preston Herchel Epps will speak on the Old Testament.

More than two hundred people work to get you your paper in time for that first cuppa coffee every morning except Monday.

Rufus Bynum Elected President Of ATO

Rufus Bynum, junior from Potsdam, N. Y., has been elected president of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity here.

Other officers for the coming year are vice president, Dick Allsbrook; treasurer, Bill Belle, and secretary, Larry Botto. Bynum is succeeding Ralph Lee, III, as president.

The Daily Tar Heel day begins at five a.m. and ends at about three the next morning.
