

Tar Heel Netters Break Losing Streak; Defeat Duke, 5-4

Don Skakle Is Loser For First Time In 54 College Matches

By Harvey Ritch
(DTH Staff Writer)

Carolina's Jim Hammerstein and Hugh Bowman gave a sigh of relief when Duke's John Topley sent a high lob out of bounds on match point in the number three doubles match to give the Tar Heels their fifth and final victory-clinching point here this afternoon in a very close and bitterly-contested Southern Conference tennis match won by Carolina, 5-4.

The deciding match was a gruelling "now-we-have-it, now-we-don't" affair with Hammerstein and Bowman finally emerging over John Topley and John Ross in two sets, 8-6, 8-6.

Skakle Loses
Tar Heel Don Skakle crept back into the singles line-up after a week's absence due to illness, but found that he was far from ready when he tired in the second set and defaulted to Frank Carlross, Duke number six man. Skakle was down 4-6, 4-1 when he called off play. It was his first collegiate loss after compiling a phenomenal 53 consecutive singles victories over a four-year span.

The outcome of the contest was thrown to the doubles matches when the Dukes came through in the singles, splitting with the favored Tar Heels, 3-3. Heath Alexander failed to recover from his current slump and lost to Hal Lipton, 6-4, 6-1. Charlie Rice was the third Duke victim, dropping his match to John Ross in straight sets, 7-5, 6-4.

Taylor, Luxenberg Star
Clark Taylor and Bob Luxenberg carried the bulk of the Tar Heels' point making by sweeping through their singles and teaming up for a victory in the number one doubles match. Captain Taylor clubbed Duke's star, Lew Mc-Masters, in short order, 6-2, 6-0, and Bob Luxenberg slapped Jack Warmath 6-4, 6-3 in the fifth singles battle. Taylor and Luxenberg then combined to halt Mc-Masters and Warmath in the featured doubles, 6-4, 6-4.

The summary:
—Taylor (UNC) defeated Mc-Masters, 6-2, 6-0; Ross (Duke) defeated Rice, 7-5, 6-4; Lipton (Duke) defeated Alexander, 6-4, 6-1; Winstead, (UNC) defeated Tapley, 6-1, 6-1; Luxenberg, (UNC) defeated Warmath, 6-4, 6-3; Skakle (UNC) defaulted to Carlross.
Doubles—Taylor - Luxenberg (UNC) defeated Mc-Masters-Warmath, 6-4, 6-4; Carlross-Lipton (Duke) defeated Rice-Winstead, 7-5, 4-6, 6-1; Bowman-Hammerstein (UNC) defeated Ross-Tapley, 8-6, 8-6.

Baseballers Finally Win; Beat Frosh

By Vic Goldberg
(DTH Staff Writer)

The Tar Heel baseballers finally snapped their six-game losing streak yesterday afternoon at Emerson Stadium, defeating the Carolina freshmen by a lopsided 11-0 score in an eight-inning exhibition.

The effective two-hit pitching of Dean Cassell, George Whitted, Henry Schacht, and Luke Corbett was too much for the Tar Babies, who came up with only one scoring threat all afternoon.

Al Wood was in top form for the first two innings of the game, hurling no-hit ball against the Tar Heel varsity, the Hearmen broke the scoring ice with a single tally in the third, however, and from there on in, it was Katiebar-the-door.

The lone freshman threat came in the top of the second. After Wayne White and Johnny Mot-singer had grounded out, Jake Carter lined a single into center-field. A balk by Cassell advanced the runner to third. Jeeter Lee then drew a base on balls and stole second easily when Catcher Bull Page's throw was off. Holliday then popped to Will Hobbs at first closing the inning and leaving two runners stranded. No Tar-Baby got past first after the second inning.

Thomas Sends Sigma Chi, B Dormitory Win Mural Track Meet

Jimmy Thomas yesterday applied to the National Amateur Athletic Union, through Swimming Coach Dick Jamerson, for certification of his new American record in the 300-yard individual medley, 20-yard course, which he established in an exhibition at Petersburg, Va., Saturday night.

Thomas swam the event in 3:24.7. On Feb. 4 he established an American record of 3:26.7 in this event in Williamsburg, Va., in a dual meet between UNC and William and Mary, with AAU recognition now pending. Prior to Thomas' record-smashing performance, the national mark stood at 3:28.

The Carolina swim star also has on file with the AAU applications for sanction of two more records: the 20-yard course 440-yard freestyle (4:45.3) and short course 300-yard individual medley (3:25.3), which he set in college competition this year.

B-Dorm and Sigma Chi walked away with top honors in the intramural track meet yesterday afternoon at Fetzer Field.

B-Dorm tracksters compiled an 85 1-2 point total leading its nearest competitor, the Med. School by 50 1-2 points.

Sigma Chi won its second Mural track meet in two years in a close fight with the SAE and Zeta Psi teams. The Sigma Chis totaled 65 1-2 points points to edge SAE which accumulated 59 1-2 points with the Zetas just 1-2 point out of second place with 59 points.

In the Dorm contest Victory Village eked out a 32 1-2 margin over Mangum which totaled 31 1-2 points for third and fourth places respectively.

Phil Kemp of Emerson Dorm won the pole vault for the second straight time in the dormitory division, while Red Bennett, also of Emerson, established a new record in the high jump event with a 1 1-4" increase over the old record of 5'10".

Brown, Zeta Psi, posted one of the best times of the day in hustling to victory in the fraternity division 100-yard dash event. His time was 10.8 seconds.

The winners in the fraternity divisions turned in faster times than did the dormitory winners in each of the track events, but the dorm men were high in two of the five field events.

Counting all entries more than 500 boys participated in the event. The summaries:

Track events: 60-yard dash—Ellis, B-Dorm; Rue, B., Sigma Chi. 120 yd. low hurdles—Wheeler, Vic Vill., 15.0; Ahern, ATO, 14.5. 3-4 mile run—Singleton, Alexander, 3:51.9; tie between

Teams Ready For Southern College Golf

Special to The Daily Tar Heel
ATHENS, Ga., April 25—The best of the South's collegiate golfers are expected to arrive here tomorrow to open the 1950 edition of the Southern Intercollegiate Golf Tournament.

Although actual competition will not start until Thursday, Southeastern Conference, Southern Conference, Southwest Conference, and independent teams will be crowding the course tomorrow to get one final round of practice.

Play will open Thursday with 18 holes of competition. There will be another 18 holes round on Friday and the final round will be 36 holes on Saturday. Only the 50 lowest scores will qualify for Saturday's play, however.

Unlike former years, when match play was the vogue, the entire play will be medal with awards going both to the top individuals and to the top teams.

Most of the schools will be entering six-man teams in the opening rounds, although each team will have a full team in Saturday's play, regardless of the scores.

Freshmen Golfers Win

The Tar Baby golfers slipped past a strong Wake Forest freshman crew yesterday afternoon at Hillandale Country Club, beating the Baby Deacs, 10 1/2-7 1/2, in a Big Four clash.

Wake Forest's Russell Tiddy was low man for the day, blasting out a hot four-under par 68. The Tar Baby linksmen, carving out a pair of even-par 2's in going the route. Bill Williamson came in with a two-over 74, and Lew Brown carded a 76 for the Carolina freshmen. Both teams were composed of only four men.

The two squads are rated as the best frosh outfits in the Big Four.
