

Kyle Barnes Elected Sigma Chi President

Jim Cowan Is Chosen Vice President; Six Men Are Pledged By Fraternity

Kyle Barnes of Durham will be installed as president of Sigma Chi fraternity Wednesday night.

In addition to being president of the fraternity, Barnes is a member of the Interfraternity Council Court and is serving his second term on the Student Council.

Other officers who were elected last Wednesday night are: consul, Jim Cowan; magister, Hardy Harrison; annotator, Baird Sills; questor, Tad Riely; Buddy McColl; associate editor, Frank Harrison; historian, Dan Hobson; intramural manager, Key Lewis; house manager, Paul Trolinger; dining room manager, Buddy McColl; social chairman, Bill Rue; German Club representative, Herman Moore; IFC representatives, Lew Brown and Julian Albergotti; and University club representative, Vernon Ferrell.

New Sigma Chi pledges are Cooper Taylor of Raleigh, Kenneth Rogers of Rocky Mount, Tommy McAllister of Charlotte, Rod Cotton of Bellville, N. J., Eugene Whaling of Winston-Salem and Bill Swink of China Grove.

FRANCES DRANE AND J. K. RICHARDSON were two of the coeds tapped earlier this week by the Valkyries. The secret ceremony took place before dawn Wednesday morning. The Valkyries is an honorary organization for outstanding coeds. Only two per cent of the coeds of the student body may belong to it.

Dream Girl Dance Held By Theta Chi's

Alpha Eta Chapter of Theta Chi Fraternity held its first annual Dream Girl dance in the ballroom of the Carolina Inn last night, and Shirley Winfree of Raleigh was crowned Dream Girl. Cecil Perry also of Raleigh, was her date.

Sponsors for the dance were Wuff Newell, Orlando, Fla., with Don Maynard, president of the chapter; Theo Braxton, Graham with Clarence Pickard; Mary E. Small, Weicksville, with Dav. Seitz; Eleanor Senter, Raleigh with Carlyle Campbell, and Mac Copenhagen, Bristol, Tenn., with Al Spivey, retiring president.

The sponsors served as a court for the Dream Girl, who was chosen during the dance by a special committee.

At the banquet preceding the dance awards for the year were made to four members. Neil Glenn, president of the pledge class, received the best pledge award; Will Worth received the pledge scholarship award; Drew Colvard received the award for the most active, and Al Spivey received the Active Chapter Service Award, highest honor the chapter can bestow.

Three Chi Psi Alumni In New 'Who's Who'

Fraternity Pledges 14 In Spring Rushing; Mike Healy Is President Of Pledge Class

Three Chi Psi alumni, now members of the University faculty, are named in the current edition of "Who's Who in America."

The three all former of Beta chapter of Chi Psi which was located at the University of South Carolina until it went dormant several years ago, hold key positions on the local faculty.

Those honored are Dr. W. C. Coker, Kenan professor Emeritus of Botany, Dr. R. E. Coker, professor Emeritus of Zoology, and Dr. George C. Taylor of the Department of English.

The Coker Arboretum, a Chapel Hill landmark, was founded by and named for Dr. W. C. Coker, while Dr. R. E. Coker was this year's winner of the O. Max Gardner award for outstanding service to the state and University. Taylor, a long-time member of the University teaching staff, is recognized as one of the nation's foremost authorities in his field.

Chi Psi fraternity recently announced the names of the 14 pledges in its Spring Pledge class. Pledge officers for the coming year are Mike Healy, Allendale, N. J., president; Bucky Coleman, Winston-Salem, vice-president; and Charlie Collins, Greensboro, secretary-treasurer. Other members of the class
