

Carolina Baseballers Defeated By State In Final, 6-1

Cassell Goes In Fourth; 2nd Place Bid Lost

By Frank Allison, Jr.
Carolina's bid for a 500 season and a Big Four second-place tie with North Carolina State faded in the first inning here today as the Tar Heel nine bowed, 6-1, to the Wolfpack in the season's finale in Emerson Stadium.

Lunsford Lewis, State right hander, toiled the complete nine giving up six hits, four in the first two innings and a pair in the final frame.

The first two Tar Heel hitters in the ninth touched Lewis for singles, but the State hurler then retired the next three men in order to wind up the game and secure the second spot for the winners.

Dean Cassell made his last start in a Carolina uniform and was knocked from the box in the fourth inning after giving up all six State runs on five hits, three walks and a hit batsman.

In the hitting department, it was State left fielder Don Cheek who clubbed a two-run homer in the first inning and a single in four trips to the plate. Charlie Westbrook, State right fielder, had three singles in five trips.

State's final three runs were pushed across in the third on three singles and a pair of walks.

Tar Babies Slap State Again, 13-3

RALEIGH, May 22—Joe Pazdan scattered eight hits which were good for only three runs and then sat back to watch his mates pound three N. C. State pitchers for 13 runs as the Carolina freshman nine ended their season in style here today again trouncing the State frosh, 13-3.

Pazdan helped his own cause with three hits in four trips which drove in three of the Tar Babies runs. Ivalee Hill was right behind him with two for three as the Tar Baby nine made sure they finished with a winning season.

Five runs in the first and third innings pushed the Tar Babies ahead 10-0 and two more in the sixth gave them a 12-run lead before the State frosh even pushed a run across the plate.

Six straight base on balls followed by a single accounted for the early lead of the Tar Babies. In the third five more base on balls and two singles accounted for the next group of five. Pazdan singled in both rallies.

Carolina picked up two in the sixth on two walks and two singles. Thus five hits produce ten runs—a good return for effort spent.

The victory was Pazdan's sixth of the year as against three losses. The seasonal record for the Tar Babies is ten wins and nine losses.

Med School Wins Title

Med School won the Dormitory softball championship yesterday afternoon by defeating Emerson, 9-1 on intramural field. Charlie Gilliam went all the way in chalking up the important victory for the Med Schoolers with E. B. Sharpe contributing a home run in the first inning. Emerson's only run came in the second frame when Bud Maddie hit a homer to stop a shut-out performance for Gilliam.

In the fraternity semi-finals, Zeta 2 walloped Chi Phi 1 collecting 10 runs in the first inning and 4 in the third to win 14-1. Charlie Thorne was the winning pitcher for the Zetas.

The victory for Med School and for Zeta moved these two teams closer to the dormitory and fraternity Mural Championship for the year.

Mural Year To Wind Up On Thursday

Special to The Daily Tar Heel
By Walt M. Dear II
The 1950 intramural season will wind up this Thursday and the Mural department will begin tallying the winners of the Fraternity and Dormitory divisions.

With well over 4000 men participating in 18 sport activities and numerous other events, including the Winter Carnival, Big 4 Sports Day, and the Archery Tournament, Mural athletics have played a big part in Carolina's busy life.

This week horseshoes, golf, tennis, and softball seasons come to an end climaxing an eventful spring quarter for intramurals. After the results of the championship games have been tabulated, the winners for the whole year will be determined. At this point the Med School mural specialists are leading in the dormitory division with B Dorm close behind in the fraternity division the Zetas and Sigma Chi's are waging a battle for first place and only this weeks results will show the winner.

Olin Perritt, Med School, and George Short, B Dorm, are leading in the point scores for most outstanding mural athlete in the dormitory division, while Bud Ruffin is leading in the Fraternity division.

New additions in this year's Mural program were the golf teams, the open house, and the revival of Rifle Marksmanship as a Mural Sport.

McGinn And Brookshire Named Co-Captains For '51

Pitcher Bill (Lefty) McGinn of Charlotte, N. C., and shortstop Joe Brookshire of Randleman, N. C., today were elected co-captains of the 1951 University of North Carolina baseball team. Both are rising seniors and replace Willard Hobbs who captained this year's squad.

McGinn has posted a four wins and three defeats while his best effort was a no-hit, no-run game against Duke University on May 20 and almost duplicated the effort with a three-hit masterpiece.

McGinn's no-hit, no-run job on the 15th was the first ever pitched in the Big Four league. Brookshire has been a key man in the Tar Heels' infield, fielding brilliantly during most of the season, but has been a light hitter.

Both should be key members in coach Bunn Hearn's plans for the 1951 season. Brookshire and McGinn have been teammates for two seasons and have demonstrated to the Tar Heel coaches that much can be expected from them.

Hal Taylor High Scorer

Hal Taylor nosed out Jess Greenbaum and George Levine for scoring honors on the lacrosse team this season by a margin of two goals. Taylor was high man with nine tallies, while Greenbaum and Levine each totaled 7 tallies. Jess Murchison was fourth man with a total of 6 goals.

Art Greenbaum led in assists making 12 for the stickmen.

Frank Stranahan Wins Easily In British Open

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 23 — (P) — Muscle man Frank Stranahan went through his second round match in the British Amateur Golf Tournament today like a house afire.

The betting here is that he will keep right on burning until he runs into Willie Turnesa in the semifinals on Friday.

Willie ought to put out the fire. He sells fire extinguishers.

Stranahan's victim was A. C. Gibson, a self-styled weekend golfer, who was helpless before the faultless play of the Toledo ace. He bowed gracefully at the 10th hole 9 and 8, after a determined effort that netted him only one halved hole.

The American needed only 36 strokes, four less than par, for the match. He was straight and long off the tees, accurate with his approaches, and deadly with his putting.

Turnesa and Dick Chapman, most highly regarded of the other U. S. entrants, did not play today. Chapman, like Stranahan, had a first round bye. He won his second round match yesterday. Turnesa won in the first round and got a free pass into the third when his opponent scratched.

With Bing Crosby gone and the weather still dismal and very cold, the crowd slumped off to almost nothing.

Most of the spectators who were on hand followed Dynamite Bill Goodloe, the little round man from Valdosta, Ga. He had all kinds of trouble, mostly with his putter, before he finally disposed of Joe Gent of England, 1 up on the 18th hole.

Although his golf was ragged Bill held the crowd with his brilliant outfit of Kelly green pants maroon sweater and green, black and yellow tam o'shanter.

Bill Campbell, the young state representative from Huntington, W. Va., gained supporters with a convincing 5 and 3 verdict over John Graham of Scotland.

Turnesa followed the Campbell match for several holes, making a careful study of the big blond's game. They will meet in the fourth round tomorrow afternoon if both win their morning matches.

10 Tar Heels Lead SCTeam In Big Meet

A ten-man contingent from Carolina will lead the Southern Conference all-star track team Saturday night in Atlanta against the Southeastern Conference in the Second Annual Inter-Conference Track Meet.

The teams are composed of the top three men from each conference as determined by the conference track meets, which were held last Saturday.

Representing Carolina will be Dave Willis (100 yard dash), Laddie Terrell (440 yard run), Hal Holden (880), Sam Magill (two mile), Bob Morrow (low and high hurdles), Bill Albans (high and low hurdles, broad jump, and high jump), Bob Kirk (javelin), Jack Moody (high jump), Bob House (pole vault), and Skeets Baldwin (javelin).

The Southern Conference will be out to revenge last year's 92-39 loss in the classic. The Southern Conference turned in better times in eight of the 15 events last week, but the Southeastern meet was run on a rain-drenched track. Alabama nosed out LSU for the crown with Tulane third.

Leading the Southeasterners will be sensation Paul Bienz of Tulane in the 100 and 200-yard dashes, Whitey Overton the Olympic distance man from LSU, Carl Shield, shot and discus man from Alabama, and Martin Korik, Tennessee pole vaulter.

Bill Albans is expected to win both the hurdles and the broad jump in the meet. Neither of the Southeastern times in the hurdles were comparable to Albans' record-breaking times, while Jimmy Fos, Tulane's champion broad jumper has not turned in performances that stack up with the sophomore star.

Four Cindermen Star In 1st Big Four Meeting

(Special to The Daily Tar Heel)
RALEIGH, May 23—Two new University track records were set here tonight in the first annual Big Four All Star Track Meet held at State College.

Dave Willis ran 9.7 in the 100 yard dash to break the old record of 9.8, while Bob House pole vaulted 13 feet, one half inch to break the old record of 13 feet. In all, Carolina swept six places, including a clean sweep in the javelin.

Bill Albans, running in only two events, won the broad jump and 120 high hurdles, setting track records in both. Bob Kirk won the javelin with a 192 feet, 4 and three-fourths inches mark. Sam Magill set a new track record in winning the two mile run in 9:36.2.

Jack Moody set a new track record with a high jump of six feet, 2 and one-half inches.

Willis' 9.7 inches in the 100 equals the track record, while Albans' 14.5 in the hurdles and his 24 feet 1 and one-half inches broad jump both shattered records for the state track.

Charlie Chambers, state dash man, won the Thomas I. Hines trophy for the outstanding senior in Big Four track.

For Carolina it was a repeat performance of last Saturday's big win of the Southern Conference Championship. Albans, Kirk, Moody, and Magill all figured in Saturday's route over other Southern Conference opposition.

Two Picked

Carolina will be well represented on the South All-Star squad when it meets the Yankee team in the annual North-South lacrosse game scheduled for College Park, Md., on June 9.

Coach Bill Darden, coach of the Tar Heels, and Grant Lynch, co-captain of the Carolina team will perform for the South squad.

Darden will be assistant coach while Lynch will hold down one of the defensive spots.

This marks the first time that any UNC lacrosse player has been in the event.
