

Bill Murray Named Duke Grid Coach

New Mentor Leaves Post At Delaware

DURHAM, Jan. 31—(UP)—William T. Murray, former Duke University football star and director of athletics and head football coach at the University of Delaware since 1940, was named head football coach at Duke University today.

Murray succeeds Wallace Wade, who resigned in December to become the first commissioner of the Southern Conference.

The athletic council elected Murray unanimously on the recommendation of the special committee appointed to suggest a man for the post.

Murray produced three undefeated teams at Delaware and left a record of 49 victories, 16 losses and two ties. His teams were unbeaten in 1941, 1942, and 1946.

Long Victory String
Murray-coached squads went 32 games without defeat.

Dr. Charles E. Jordan, Duke vice-president and chairman of the Duke Athletic Council, said, "Murray's name has been in first or second place on the committee's list throughout their search for a new football coach. His selection . . . gives me great personal satisfaction."

A native of Rocky Mount, Murray was a star high school athlete before entering Duke in 1927. At Duke, he starred on the freshman football team, and during his senior year, was assistant basketball coach.

Was All-Southern
In football, he was one of Duke's first All-Southern players. He was chosen All-Southern halfback in 1930.

After graduation from Duke, he became principal of the Children's Home in Winston-Salem and coach of all athletics there.

For two years he was president of the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Conference and was chairman of the football committee of that conference.

N. C. State Wrestlers Hand Tar Heels Fourth Straight Defeat, By 21-11 Count

RALEIGH, Jan. 31—(AP)—N. C. State College's wrestling team scored its fourth win against two Tar Heels tonight when it took a 21-11 decision over North Carolina's Tar Heels.

Coach Al Crawford's statement won five of the eight bouts. N. C.

The summary:
123-lb.—Buie (NCS) decided Stuckey, 6-4.

130-lb.—Strange (NCS) pinned Scarrtz, 1:21 second period.

137-lb.—Nobbs (NCS) pinned Aaron, 2:20 first period.

147-lb.—Qualls (UNC) decided Chamberlain, 3-2.

157-lb.—Martin (NCS) decided Bell, 6-1.

167-lb.—Coxe (UNC) decided Kaiser, 12-1.

177-lb.—Rucker (NCS) pinned Hill, 1:27 first period.

Heavywt.—McLaughlin (UNC) pinned Thompson, 1:21 first period.

State scored pins in three weights. It was the fourth match for the Tar Heels, who are yet to taste victory. The Chapel Hillians have previously lost to VPI, VMI, and Navy.

The Wolfpack grapplers swept to three straight victories before

Managers Needed

Coach Carl Snavely expected a lot of personnel problems when he called his Carolina football team out for winter practice but he got one he didn't count on. There is an acute shortage of student managers. A desperate call has been issued to campus quarterbacks, but meanwhile the Tar Heels are carrying their own equipment, tightening their cleats, and doing the 100 odd little chores so capably handled by the managers.

Anyone interested in a manager's job should report to Keman Field House after 2:30 p.m. today.

Tar Heel Chigger Qualls decided Chamberlain in the 147-pound match, 3-2. Tommy Coxe and Ted McLaughlin were the only other Carolina wrestlers to win over the State crew. Coxe decided Kaiser, 12-1, in the 167-pound class, while Heavyweight McLaughlin pinned Thompson in the first period.

Indoor Track Team Meets N. C. State Here Saturday

Carolina's defending Southern Conference indoor track champions will get their first chance to compete as a team Saturday afternoon when the Tar Heels entertain N. C. State in the Tin Can here at 2 o'clock.

A full 12-event varsity and six-event freshman program will be run off. Carolina is defending conference champion in both the freshman and varsity divisions.

Carolina will be strong in virtually every department. In the sprints, Dave Willis, Frank Scott and Duck Holder will pace the field. Garrett Fitzgibbons, Bob Bell, Romas White, Bill Cornell, and Jim Woolcott will compete in the high hurdles and Fitzgibbons, Bell, Merle Norcross, and Cecil Pless will run the lows.

The trio of Jimmy Hamrick, Gene Brigham and Clarence McClain will run the 440. The half-mile and the two-mile will be run by Otis Honeycutt, Gordon Harick, Jack Bennett, Bob Webb, Tom Norman and Bob Byrd.

Carolina's strong freshman team of last year is adding strength to the middle and distance events in which the varsity Tar Heels were somewhat weak last year. Bennett, Webb, Byrd, and Norman were all members of that freshman team.

In the field events, Carolina will bank on Roscoe Hansen, more famous for his gridiron exploits, to handle the shot put duties. White, Bob House, holder of the University record, and Sam Jordan will pole vault.

Gym Squad Slates Meet

Carolina's newly inaugurated gymnastic team will move into big time competition Saturday night when it plays host to Penn State in a 6:15 meet at Woollen Gym.

The team, under the tutelage of Bill Meade, is in its first year of intercollegiate competition. In Penn State it will be against the nation's No. 1 gym team. The Nittany Lions have not been defeated for six straight years and their coach, Gene Wettstone, has carried the team to one national, five Eastern, and three AAU championships in the seven years he has been there.

Cagers Prep For Battle Against Duke

The Carolina basketball team, highly pleased by its victory over Wake Forest, held a light practice yesterday in preparation for the Duke game here tomorrow.

Hugo Kappler, back in the Carolina lineup after playing practically no basketball since Dec. 5, was the lone Tar Heel to work hard. Forward Jack Wallace, who hurt his knee, and Guard Howard Deasy, who bruised his hip, both against Wake Forest, took limited workouts.

Coach Tom Scott was especially pleased by the team's performance and Kappler's return to the lineup. "Hugo picked up the team when he returned. His play makes the rest of the boys speed up," he explained.

Duke's Blue Devils, who have suffered successive losses to Wake Forest and South Carolina, will be on the rebound against Carolina, according to Scott.

Duke whipped the Tar Heels, 71-63, in the Dixie Classic tournament during the Christmas holidays. At that time, Carolina was having a great deal of trouble with injuries.
