

Swimmers Run Win Streak To Eleven By Sinking Miami

Seven New Meet Marks Recorded

By Art Greenbaum
Carolina's swimmers extended their winning streak to eleven yesterday afternoon by defeating a mediocre University of Miami team, 47-28, in Bowman Gray pool before a packed house.

Seven dual records were established in the course of the afternoon including two by captain and All-America Jim Thomas. The Baltimore senior blasted his way to a triumph over teammate Donnie Evans to set one and captured the 200-yard backstroke.

The Carolinians started off the afternoon in usual style by winning the 300-yard medley relay. Buddy Baercke, Put Davis, and Buddy Heins, all sophomores, swam the distance in 2:58.5 which lowered the dual meet record by seven seconds.

In the 220-yard freestyle, Coach Dick Jamerson pitted Thomas and Evans against each other. Evans set the Southern Conference record in the event last week in Raleigh. Thomas wasted little time in letting the Charlotte sophomore know who was "boss."

Miami's three first places came in the 50-yard freestyle, the diving, and the 20-yard breaststroke. Hogie Stohl won the 50 in record fashion while the Hurricanes' Bob Baubier, and Bud Sears placed one-two in the one-meter event.

Stan Tinkham, considered by many the best sprinter in the area, sprinted home to win the 100-yard freestyle. His time was 53.6. Cecil Milton garnered the other first for the Tar Heels by winning the 440-yard freestyle in record time.

The closest race of the afternoon was the 200-yard breaststroke in which Charlie Small edged Barry Wall. The Miami butterflyer had a comfortable lead until the final lap when Wall closed the gap. Small was able to touch the wall before the Carolina man reached the finish.

Carolina will meet La Salle on Friday evening in Bowman Gray pool.

Conference Cage Tourney Opens Today With State-South Carolina As Top Game

RALEIGH, Feb. 28—(AP)—N.C. State's top-seeded basketball team opens its drive for a fifth straight Southern Conference title here tomorrow and a bid to the NCAA Tournament. The winner here will represent the Conference in the March 20 first round of the Eastern Division NCAA meet, also in Raleigh.

State, ranked eighth in this week's Associated Press poll, brings a 13-1 Conference record and 25-4 overall mark into its first tournament game against South Carolina at 7:30 tomorrow night. The day's four-game program opens with an afternoon doubleheader. Clemson and Maryland start off at 2:15, with Duke and Virginia Tech following at 4 o'clock. The 9 o'clock windup has West Virginia meeting William and Mary.

Friday's semi-finals have the South Carolina State winner facing the Clemson-Maryland victor at 7:30, with the other survivors meeting at 9 o'clock. The title game will be played at 8 Saturday night.

Clemson and Maryland split two regular season games, but none of the other first round rivals met.

State, top scoring team in the country with an average of over 78 points a game, lost only to William and Mary in conference play. West Virginia, playing its first season in the Conference, was second-seeded with a 9-3 record.

Duke, another late season whirlwind, took its last five games to climb from 10th to fourth with a 13-6 tally. Actually, the Blue Devils tied William and Mary for fourth, but won the seeding in a draw.

Duke has perhaps the outstanding individual star of the Conference in a season that saw almost every club produce at least one top notch performer. Dick Groat, the six-foot guard of the Duke club, goes into the tournament owning two national records which he can further boost. His 746 points for 30 games is a new mark and his 236 foul goals is another new figure.

Zeta Psi, Chi Psi, And 'C' Pass Mural Quarter Finals

By Ken Barton
Zeta Psi 4, Chi Psi 4, and C Dormitory moved into the semi-finals in the fraternity and dormitory divisions respectively as the quarter finals of the intramural basketball program were completed last night in Woolen Gym.

Zeta Psi 4 defeated Theta Chi, 48-44 in a close game in which the Zetes had to overcome an early 11-point Theta Chi lead to gain the victory. A late drive sparked by Bruce Crater and Mac Godwin enabled Chi Psi in defeating TEP 2, 46-29. Carter scored 14 points while Godwin scored 13 and Frank Eckert 11 for the winners. Dave Isaacs paced TEP with 16.

Leading the Zetes to victory were Tom Gregory with 18 points and Charlie Watkins with 16. The Landis brothers, Bill and Jim, led Theta Chi with 10 to 14 points respectively. Al Samuel also pushed through 10 to help the cause. Theta Chi lead a good deal of the way and it was only with a late drive that the Zetes were able to overcome the advantage and gain the win that put them in the semi-finals against Alpha Kappa Psi tonight. Chi Psi is scheduled in the other semi-final game against Sigma Chi 4.

C-Dorm 3 gained a 43-27 victory over A-Dorm 4 to reach the semi-finals game with A-Dorm 3. A-Dorm placed three teams in the play offs in one of the greatest displays of domination by any

'Graybeards' Should Play Bigger Part In Deciding 1951 Major League Races

NEW YORK, Feb. 28—(UP)—Baseball's aging graybeards in the "over 35 club" take on new importance this spring with the military draft in full swing.
It may be the last time around for a few of them but any major league manager will think twice before handing out a pink slip to an old-timer who may have a little steam left.
In the American League, perennial Wally Moses of the Philadelphia Athletics tops them all at the age of 39, starting his 17th season.
The World Champion New York Yankees have a pair of key graybeards in 38-year-old Johnny Mize and 36-year-old Joe Dimaggio. A pennant may ride on how they deliver.
Joltin' Joe is the club's "lifer." He has that extra something to make the Yankees roll at top speed, although the club has been solid enough the last two years to stay afloat while he slumps. And there's no denying the value of Mize and his home run bat.

Three Small Schools Get NIT Invites

NEW YORK, Feb. 28—(AP)—Three small school powers—Beloit, Dayton and Lawrence Tech—joined the National Invitational today and the final five teams may be named by Saturday.

If all the little pieces fit into the Madison Square Garden jigsaw puzzle, Oklahoma A & M, St. Louis, La Salle, Cincinnati and either NYU or Fordham will round out the 12-team field.

Beloit (16-4), Dayton (23-4), and Lawrence Tech of Detroit (20-2) followed N. C. State, Brigham Young, Arizona and St. John's of Brooklyn into the 14th annual NIT which begins March 10.

La Salle (21-6) and Cincinnati (15-3) are rated prime possibilities.

Oklahoma A & M (25-2), the second ranked team in the country, and St. Louis (21-6), the 10th rated quintet, are understood to be willing to compete unless they tie for the Missouri Valley Championship. That could happen if S. Louis beats the Aggies Saturday. Thus a playoff series would keep them from coming to New York.

Duke Wrestlers Stymie UNC Final Hopes For Win, 27-5

DURHAM, Feb. 28—(AP)—Duke University's varsity wrestlers mauled North Carolina, 27-5, here tonight in the season finale for the winners. The win shot the Blue Devils over the 500 mark for the season with a record of four wins and three losses.

The meet was the Tar Heel grapplers' last hope of winning at least one meet over the season.

In a meet run concurrently with the varsity clash, the North Carolina freshmen decided the Duke yearlings by a close 14-13 mark. Butts' win in the heavy-weight finale gave the Tar Heel yearlings their winning margin.

Duke's John Mcmasters ended the season undefeated by decisioning North Carolina's Bond in the 167-pound varsity event by a 6-0 score.

Duke's Art Rowe and Jerry Gallagher racked up pins in helping their Duke team to victory. Barry Farber pinned Duke's Joe Orzano in the 147-pound event.

The varsity summaries:
123-pound—Rowe (D) pinned Schwartz.

130-pound—Burrell (D) won on default over Stuckey.

137-pound—Gallagher (D) pinned Aaron.

147-pound—Farber (UNC) pinned J. Orzano.

157-pound—Britt (D) decisioned Bell (UNC) 5-3.

167-pound—Harrison (D) decisioned Hill 6-1.

The freshman summaries:
123-pound—Raimondo (D) decisioned Pawlik 4-2.
