

Carolina Golfers Rout Ohio, 20-7, For Third Straight Win

Williamson Is Low Man With Par 72

By Biff Roberts
Carolina's final two foursomes, led by Bill Williamson's par 72, overcame an early Ohio University lead yesterday afternoon at Finley Golf Course to give the Tar Heels their third straight win of the year, 20-7.

Ohio's Dow Finsterwald and Dave Rambo had piled up a 6-3 lead after the first foursome walked off the 18th green but Williamson, Frank Brooks, Lou Brown and Frank Eckert scored 17 out of the final 18 points to win the match going away.

The Carolina team will meet Cornell University today at 1:30 at the Finley course in quest of its fourth straight win. The same six that played against Ohio will compete for the Tar Heels.

Finsterwald, an alternate on this year's Walker Cup team, was one over par on both sides for a 37-37 and a 74. This, coupled with Rambo's 36-40-76, was enough to edge Bob Black and Rodney McKnight.

Both McKnight and Black turned in creditable scores, however. Black went out in par 36 and came back with a 41 for a 77 while McKnight reversed the scores for his 77.

McKnight was the gallery pleaser of the day. On the par four hole he hit his second shot through the trees and then sank a 15-foot down-hill putt for a birdie. The three gave the foursome a point for winning the back nine.

Williamson Low
Williamson had the best nine of the day with a two-under-par 34. A two over 38 on the back side also gave him the low score of the day, a 72. Brooks in the meantime was shooting a 38-37 for a 75. The combination was good for a 9-0 win over Herb Branstitter and Earl Davis.

Davis was steady all the way with a 40-41 for an 81 and Branstitter had a 40-42 for an 82.

The last foursome went to Carolina's Brown and Eckert, 8-1. Brown was low man on the front nine with a 38 and then came in with a 40 to get his 78. Eckert had a 40-42 for an 82.

Al Matthews and Don Ferguson both had 82's for Ohio, Matthews getting a 42 and a 40 while Ferguson was even with two 41's.

The summaries:
Finsterwald (O) def. Black, 2-1; Rambo (O) def. McKnight, 2-1. Best ball: Ohio, 2-1.
Brooks (NC) def. Branstitter, 3-0; Williamson (NC) def. Davis, 3-0. Best ball: Carolina, 3-0.
Brown (NC) def. Ferguson, 3-0; Eckert (NC) def. Matthews 2 1/2-1 1/2. Best ball: Carolina, 2 1/2-1 1/2.

Tennis Team Drills Hard For Matches

With the tough competition coming up this weekend, Coach John Kenfield had his tennis team drilling long and hard yesterday afternoon.

Thursday, Michigan State's lauded net team arrives on campus for a two-day engagement and Saturday the locals play host to Kalamazoo, another Northern power. The matches Thursday and Friday with Michigan State begin at 3 o'clock. Saturday's encounter with Kalamazoo is scheduled for the same time.

Next week the Carolina netmen play every day. Monday and Tuesday Harvard arrives for matches and Williams College follows on Wednesday and Thursday. Friday the locals play their first Southern Conference match with William and Mary and Saturday Carolina plays host to Yale. All of these teams absorbed decisive defeats from the Tar Heels last year and will be out for revenge.

Golfer Frank Brooks Edges Baseballers For Sixth DTH Athlete Of Week Honors

By Zane Robbins
Golfer Frank Brooks is the sixth Daily Tar Heel Athlete of the Week. The Siler City ace edged a pair of baseballers, Pitchers Chalmers Port and Henry Schacht for the honor.

The Daily Tar Heel sports staff gave Brooks 18 votes to 11 for Port and 10 for Schacht. Brooks, a pharmacy student, is playing in the No. 1 slot for the Tar Heels and has turned in easy wins in the first two Carolina matches—against Davidson and Eastern Carolina Teachers College.

Against Davidson, the Carolina hotshot carded a nifty one-over-par 73. If the figure alone isn't impressive enough, add the fact that the match was played under adverse weather conditions at the Charlotte Country Club and you have a pretty good basis for selecting Brooks Athlete of the Week.

There was a steady drizzle throughout the Carolina-Davidson get-together and the Queen

City course was wet and often soggy in places. But that didn't stop the young man who has done well thus far in the mighty tough job of filling Harvie Ward's shoes.

Brooks also turned in a creditable round against ECTC in the Tar Heels' first home match last Friday on Finley Golf Course.

Port, the chunky footballer, turned in two sterling relief performances for the Carolina baseball team on its recent Florida trip before injuring his shoulder sliding back to first base.

Schacht, a Davidson product, hurled a three-hit shutout against Boston University last Friday after a so-so performance against powerful Alabama earlier in the season.

R. S. White, gymnast-swimmer, received three points for his performance in the Southern Gymnastics Meet held here last Saturday. White, who spends his spare time diving for Coach Dick Jamerson's swimming team, took first place in the trampoline event to give the last-place Tar Heels their only blue ribbon.

Del Sylvia, Mark Herring, and Bill Reeves all received one vote. Sylvia, No. 1 man on the Carolina tennis team, grabbed three love sets in the first two meets before losing four games in his fourth set against Rutgers. He came back to take that one, too, however, giving him a perfect early-season record.

Herring has turned in fine fielding performances at second base for Bunn Hearn's baseballers and is hitting at a respectable .290 clip. He started a short-lived ninth inning rally against Virginia last week but the Tar Heels lost anyway. Reeves, the Carolina center-fielder, is leading the Tar Heel regulars with a .429 batting mark and has played errorless ball field in the first seven diamond tilts.

Tar Heel Baseballers Scrimmage Frosh In Preparation For Tough Weekend Foes

Carolina's baseball team scrimmaged the Tar Baby freshmen yesterday afternoon in preparation for two tough weekend battles against intersectional foes.

The first of these rugged contests is scheduled for Friday afternoon when the Tar Heels take on Michigan State in a 4 o'clock game at Emerson Field.

This will be followed by a game with Yale's perennial Eastern NCAA contenders on Saturday at 3 o'clock.

Co-Captain Bill McGinn or Sophomore Bill Lore will get the pitching nod in the Spartan game with the other probably the choice for the Saturday game. However, Carolina's coaching staff is reserving its nomination until after this afternoon's practice session.

Michigan State, on an extended Southern "exhibition" tour, recently knocked Duke from the ranks of the unbeaten and will be set to average a pair of 1950 losses to the Tar Heels.

The Spartans' hitting punch is concentrated in a trio of sluggers, Bob Ciolek, Dick Blanchard and Captain Vince Magi. The hard-hitting Magi will be remembered by Tar Heel fans for his hitting prowess here last year. Magi gained four hits in eight trips to the plate against Tar Heel hurlers, including a homerun and a double.

The Carolina record for the year now stands at 4-3, but the Tar Heels will have to be at their peak during the weekend battles to stay above the .500 mark.

The Carolina lineup will probably include Ben Smith at first base, Mark Herring at second, Joe Brookshire at shortstop, Sleepy Senter at third, Wayne White, Bill Reeves, and Tommy Stevens in the outfield, and Dick Weiss behind the plate.

The Tar Heels will swing into Big Four competition next week when they go against N. C. State here on Saturday.

McGinn, a lefthander, was one of the team's star performers last year and turned in a no-hit performance against Duke at the season's height to become the first Tar Heel to officially turn the trick since 1939.

The Michigan State nine is one of the most formidable outfits in the Big Ten and is currently rated as top contender for snatching the Big Ten baseball crown.

One of the best teams in the east, Yale always fields a good team. Last year they wound up the top of the Ivy League heap and in 1949 went to the semifinals of the NCAA playoffs.

Coed Swim Meet Slated Tomorrow

The annual women's intramural swimming meet sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association and the Splash Club will be held tomorrow night at 7:30 in Bowman Gray Pool.

Team entries from participating sorority and dormitory organizations must be turned in at the office in Women's Gym by 5 p.m. today. No changes in entries can be made after noon tomorrow.

The meet was a big success last year and coed mural events are expected another top-notch event Thursday with a large number of entries set for action.

The meet provides for demonstrations of skill in both racing and form swimming events. The racing events are: 25-yard freestyle, 25-yard backstroke, 75-yard medley relay, 50-yard freestyle, 25-yard breaststroke, and 200-yard freestyle relay. The form swimming events include front crawl, breaststroke, and back crawl.

A water ballet will be presented by members of the Splash Club during the intermission.

Peggy Wood, swimming manager of WAA, will referee the meet.

The WAA is the top coed athletic organization on campus and all coed sports are handled through it. The Splash Club is open to all coeds interested in swimming and water ballet and presents a number of shows and other functions annually.

Keen competition is expected in all events for top honors among the various coed dormitories and sororities.

Frosh Baseball Team Set For Big Year 'If Pitching Staff Can Come Through'

By Bill Peacock
Coach Henry House says his freshman baseball team will have a good year if they can get some help from the pitching staff. And the pitching staff, while not deep, is capable.

That sounds as if the freshmen will do very well, but Coach House and Rip Ryan aren't willing to make any rash predictions. "If we have any kind of pitching we'll have a fair team," according to House.

All of his boys are fair hitters and the team fields well enough, so there shouldn't be any problem in those departments.

The brightest prospect on the team is shortstop Fred Dale who was a great high school player at Hickory. Dale is a slim, well-proportioned boy who handled several chances skillfully yesterday in a practice game with the varsity. His ability to hit has placed him tentatively in the number three spot in the line-up.

Joe Mosier, a member of the freshman basketball squad, is the leading first baseman and second base is being contested by Roland Lashley and Charlie Yelverton. Third base is the weakest spot in the infield, but the coaching staff has high hopes of developing Cary Holiday.

If Holiday fails to make the grade, Jim Wilkes is ready to move in. Another infielder that is likely to break in the line-up is Skip Winstead, a former member of the basketball team.

Lefthander Bob Ingram, a string-bean with a good curve, and right handers Don Marby and John Deal look like the top three pitchers. It is this trio that will be expected to carry the load during the tough 17 game schedule.

The starting outfield in yesterday's practice game had Sony

Clifton in center field, Bruce Holt in right and John Groom in left. Jack Mitchell and Bob Glenn will be the top replacements.

The catching will fall pretty much on Roland Zagoni until spring football practice is over and Jack Maultsby can rejoin the team. Zagoni is a husky boy who threw out two men stealing yesterday.

The frosh will open a tough 17-game schedule at home on April 7 with N. C. State's Wolfpacks. On the 10th the journey to Baptist Hollow to meet the Wake Forest freshman outfit and will go to Greensboro on the 12 for an encounter with a Greensboro High nine.

Coach Wants Outstanding PE Athletes

All freshmen who participated in the required physical education fundamentals testing program last week are requested to report to Track Coach Dale Ranson or Joe Hilton at Fetzler Field any afternoon this week if they meet the standards set in the following paragraph.

Anyone who ran the 300-yard run in less than 40 seconds, anyone who did better than 8 ft. 5 in. in the standing broad jump or anyone who threw the softball over 200 ft. is urged to report.

Several of Carolina's better trackmen had never had any previous track experience and became track candidates purely on the basis of their performance in the fundamentals testing program, according to Ranson.

Zetes, St. Anthony, Sig Chi Reach Semifinals In Soccer

Monday's mural Soccer quarter-final playoffs in the fraternity division left three teams, Zeta Psi 3, St. Anthony, and Sigma Chi 4 with definite positions in the semifinals. ATO 2 and Sigma Nu 3 played yesterday for the fourth position.

The Zetes played St. Anthony yesterday and the winner will move to the final round. Sigma Chi 4 is slated to play the winner of ATO and Sigma Nu this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The fraternity division finals are scheduled for 4:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Zeta Psi 3 defeated Sigma Chi 3, 5-0, Monday and St. Anthony edged DKE 1 by a score of 1-0. Sigma Chi 4 topped Zeta Psi 2, 2-0, to earn their seat in the semifinals.

In the three-way tie in league

5, the ATO's warmed up to defeat first Phi Delt 1 and then Chi Psi 2, each by a score of 2-0. They have yet to defeat a hot Sigma Nu team to earn a place in the semifinals.

In the dormitory division Med School 1 and Ruffin 1 came out on top in the only two leagues. They played yesterday in the division finals.

The Zeta 2 team captured Fraternity division honors last year.

The mural department also announced that softball play will begin on Monday afternoon instead of today as originally scheduled. Teams interested in practicing softball prior to the opening of the season should check with the mural department before using the field for practice.

'Full House' Expected Here For Annual Carolina Relays

Entries for the annual Carolina Relays to be run here April 7 indicate that a "full house" will be on hand for every event. Coach Dale Ranson said yesterday that each event should provide some outstanding action.

Entered in the meet are Duke, N. C. State, Virginia Tech, Maryland and Carolina representing the Southern Conference. Sewanee and Virginia provide the independent competition while the Ivy League will be well represented by the participation of Princeton, Yale, Penn and Dartmouth.

Carolina and Maryland dominated the meet last year, but the Terps are not expected to be top contenders for team honors this time around. Princeton and Duke will both have top notch teams and are expected to give Carolina a battle for its money.

Events to be run are the 440, 880, mile, two-mile, 480-yard shuttle hurdle, sprint medley and distance medley relays and individual competition in the 100-yard dash, the 120-yard high hurdles, the two-mile run, shot put, discus throw, broad jump, high jump, pole vault and javelin throw.

Carolina is currently rated the favorite to retain its Southern Conference crown in the relays but will get tough competition from all of the teams entered in individual events.

Coach Dale Ranson will work his men hard through most of next week before tapering off for the big meet next Saturday.

Reeves Tops UNC Hitting With .429

Unofficial statistics released yesterday afternoon by the athletic publicity office show that Centerfielder Bill Reeves is pacing the Tar Heel baseball team in hitting after seven games. Reeves has collected 12 hits in 28 official trips to the plate for a terrific .429 mark.

Bobby Henning, reserve first baseman, is the nominal hitting leader with a hefty .500 mark. Henning, who has been used sparingly in early games, has hit safely six times in 12 trips.

Following Reeves in hitting is the Carolina keystone combination—Joe Brookshire and Mark Herring. Co-Captain Brookshire has eight hits in 27 tries for a solid .299 average and Herring is hitting at a .290 clip after collecting nine safeties in 31 at-bats.
