F. S. Chapin Gets Honor

F. Stuart Chapin, Jr., associate professor in the Department of City and Regional Planning of the University of North Carolina was elected to the Board of Governors of the American Institute of Planners at their annual meeting held recently in Chicago.

Contract NROTC enrollees are given only 90 cents a day for their last two years and are placed in the Naval Reserve, but generally are not subject for active duty but due to the present emergency some of these may be called soon.

Captain Coper told of several officer candidate training programs now available.

in hand. He looked like he hadn't slept for some time.

But, explained the independent presidential candidate to a host of questioners, he had slept well, quite well in fact. The truth was he had pink eye. So James spent the rest of his day looking through a pair of dark glasses he had brought along.

James was not the only one who was a medical casualty. Elections Board Chairman Julian Mason almost missed the election completely.

He found himself with all the symptoms of the mumps the night before so he hustled up to the Infirmary where Doctor Alexander reassured him he was a little under the weather, but not with the mumps.

Mason said that by 5:30 yesterday afternoon he had emptied nine ballot boxes because they were so full. The only poll not requiring this job was the one at Graham Memorial which reported only a light vote, he added.
