

Frosh Baseballers Battle To 4-4 Tie With Gastonia

Teams Play 12 Innings Before Dark

The Carolina freshman baseball team and Gastonia High's state champions played 12 innings of good ball to a 4-4 tie here yesterday, before the game was called on account of darkness.

Don Lee Marbry, who has worked 35 of the last 39 innings for the Tar Babies, and Larry Hoffman of the Green Wave pitched well, Marbry giving up 10 hits and Hoffman allowing eight hits.

The Tar Babies overcame a 2-0 lead which Gastonia picked up in the first inning and seemed to have the game in good hands in the seventh when they went ahead, 4-2. But Gastonia tied up the game on a double by Jack Falls and a home run to left center by Ernie Beheler.

Gastonia lost no time in scoring, getting two runs in the first. Jack Turney singled to left and Falls worked Marbry for one of his two walks. Beheler then singled to deep center for one run, and Falls scored when Sonny Clifton booted the ball.

Carolina got one run in the fourth when third baseman Bruce Holt homered. Previously Clifton hit a tremendous triple to center, but was thrown out at home trying to score on the play.

Joe Mosier opened the Carolina sixth with a triple and Holt drove in his second run of the day with a single. Holt advanced to second a moment later on an infield out, and tallied when Mitchell singled down the right field line.

Pitcher Marbry scored the fourth Carolina run in the eighth when he walked, moved to second as Mosier walked, and scored from second on a single to center by Holt.

Both pitchers got better as the game progressed, Hoffman giving up no hits in the last four innings and Marbry allowing only two very scratchy infield singles.

Life Saving

All students interested in the Senior Life Saving Course should report to 304 Woollen Gym Wednesday, April 18th, at 5 p.m.

This course will only be given once this spring. Those interested in the Water Safety Instructor course must have completed Senior Life Saving. The Instructor course will begin on May 2. Any Water Safety Instructor desiring to teach in the Senior course and receive credit should be present at the meeting on Wednesday, April 18th.

Frosh Track

The freshman track team will run against the Duke frosh today on the track in the Duke football stadium. The meet will begin at 3:30.

The frosh will dress here and leave by bus from Woollen Gym at 2:15 p.m.

Second Baseman Mark Herring Elected DTH Athlete Of Week

Mark Herring, Carolina's fine second baseman who is second in batting with a .347 mark, walked away with the ninth Daily Tar Heel Athlete of the Week in yesterday's balloting by the DTH sports staff.

Herring's batting spree over the weekend boosted his average and he maintained his perfect fielding record of nineteen chances without an error.

Herring tallied a total of 23 votes and drew four first place nominations. Bill Reeves, Carolina centerfielder, was second with 11 points and four first place nominations. Frank Scott, Tar Heel track star was third with eight points, and tennis ace Paul Keenan received honorable mention on the basis of three ballots.

Herring overtook Reeves in the batting race Saturday against State by banging out four hits in five times at bat. Among those hits was a triple and a ground-rule double that hopped over the left field fence, 325 feet away.

Mark got one hit in three times at bat against Davidson and did not play against Wake Forest Tuesday. The five foot, eight inch star from Seven Springs has been the team's lead-off batter and has shown great ability to get on base by hit or walk.

Bill Reeves has been one of the Tar Heels' real stars all season and led the team in hitting until the past two games. At present the little outfielder is batting .322 and is one of the hardest batters with two home runs and leads in runs-batted-in with 14. His best day during the past week was against State when he got three hits, including a homer.

Frank Scott was Carolina's high scorer in the Camp Lejeune track meet, taking two firsts and a third. He won the broad jump with a jump of 22 feet, took the low hurdles in 27.5 and was third in the 100-yard dash.

Game Today

The Tar Heel baseballs will get their third crack at N. C. State this afternoon on Emerson Field at 4 o'clock. They have been defeated by the Wolfpack twice.

Swim Picture Improved Since 1948 Olympics

Swimming Coach Dick Jamerson has just returned from the three biggest meets of the year and reports that swimming is improving on both the national and Southern levels.

"Swimming has improved a great deal just since the 1948 Olympics," Jamerson said. "The NCAA record for the 440 freestyle set by Bill Smith (of Ohio State) here in 1949 was considered absolute rock-bottom, but at the NCAA this year, the fifth place time was two seconds faster than that. And this is not just an isolated case."

Jamerson went to the Eastern Intercollegiate at Harvard on March 15, 16, and 17, then went to the NCAA meet at the University of Texas on March 29, 30, and 31, and finished the tour at the National AAU meet on April 5, 6, and 7 at Ohio State.

After comparing times with other coaches at the various meets, Jamerson finds that Carolina is the class of the Southwestern, Southeastern, and Southern Conferences and that only Yale and Harvard are better in the East.

Swimming is steadily improving in the South, but other schools haven't caught up with Carolina yet. A few swimmers from the South did well in national competition, with N. C. State's Paul Arata placing in the 220-yard breaststroke at the AAU meet. State is now putting the pressure on its swimming program and reportedly has lined-up some fine freshmen prospects for next year.

Skippy Browning of Texas won the high and low board championship at the NCAA meet and for the first time in six years the crown was won by an Ohio State diver. Florida State placed a man in the diving and Georgia was represented by a man in the breaststroke.

The NCAA is trying to strengthen college swimming in the South by holding its big meet there, rather than in the East or mid-West where the best swimming is done. Two years ago it was held here for the first time in the Southern Conference and this year was the first time for the Southwest.

"The crowd at Austin was the most courteous I have ever seen at an athletic event. There was absolutely no noise just before each event," Jamerson reports. Although Iowa, Yale, and Georgia have asked to play host at the NCAA meet next year, it will probably go to Princeton and the AAU meet will probably be held at Yale. The NCAA has not been held in the East for four years.

Since Jimmy Thomas was ineligible for the NCAA, and the distance prohibited sending many men, only Jamerson went to the meet at Austin. But two weeks before at the Eastern Intercollegiate, Jimmy took three firsts and set two records. He won the 100-yard backstroke, the 200-yard backstroke (breaking his own record) and set a new record in the 150-yard individual medley.

The Carolina contingent did very well at the AAU meet considering the fine competition and the fact that they hadn't swum in competition for a month. The 440-yard, freestyle relay team of Stan Tinkham, Donnie Evans, Buddy Heins, and Kent Williamson turned in the seventh best time and just missed qualifying for the finals. Pretty good for three sophomores and a junior.

The 300-yard medley relay team of Jimmy Thomas, Barry Wall, and Donnie Evans turned in the eighth best time and was only three seconds off the best time.

Jamerson himself was honored on the swimming front, being elected president of the College Swimming Coaches Association to succeed Karl Michael of Dartmouth. As the representative of District 3 at the NCAA Rules Committee meeting he was in on the two new rules passed for next year.

The first rule adds the 150-yard individual medley to the dual meet and the second states divers must complete all warm-ups before the event begins. "This means no more bouncing on the board and the fooling around that slows down the action of the meet," Jamerson explained.

Zeta Psi Leads Frat Mural Race; A Dorm On Top In Dorm Division

Zeta Psi retained the fraternity division lead in intramural competition by collecting 339.57 points in three sports during the winter quarter. A Dorm came up from third place with 335 points to take over the number one spot in the Dormitory division.

The Zetas gained 136 points and a third place tie with Chi Psi in basketball, a three way tie for second place with 89 points in table tennis, and a second place tie with ATO with 114.57 points in soccer.

A Dorm won first place in basketball and table tennis with 160 and 100 points respectively. In soccer, however, A Dorm was able to collect only 75 points and fourth place.

Sig Chi remained in second place in the Fraternity division followed by Chi Psi which came up from fifth place on the strength of 299.29 points for the winter quarter.

Phi Gamma Delta, which was in third place at the end of the fall quarter, collected only 199.29 points and finished in sixth place. ATO, in sixth place last quarter, finished in fourth place by collecting 308.57 points, the third highest for the quarter.

Dudeck, Gantt Are Captains Of Gridders

Joe Dudeck of Hazleton, Pa., and Bob (Goo Goo) Gantt of Albemarle will lead the Tar Heels on the football field in 1951. Dudeck was elected captain of the 1951 outfit and Gantt was elected alternate captain following a vote by the entire squad on Saturday.

Dudeck, a 205-pound guard, has been one of Coach Carl Snavelly's defensive mainstays for the past two years and has shown up exceptionally well in spring drills. He has been mentioned frequently as a 1951 All-America and received All-America honorable mention in several national polls last year.

Gantt is the 160-pound wing-back who does double duty as an offensive ball-carrier and defensive line-backer. Like Dudeck, he received All-America honorable mention last year and is expected to have his best season this year. He has turned into an adept broken field runner during spring practice sessions and coaches say he should be far better this year than in 1950.

Both boys are seniors and will lead Carolina for the first time in the April 28 Blue-White game.

Netters Underdog To Duke In Crucial Match Today

Coach John Kenfield's Tar Heel netters will take the role of underdog this afternoon when they play host to Duke's powerful tennis team here on the varsity courts at 3 o'clock today.

The Blue Devil requests have dropped only one match so far this season, a 7-2 loss to Rollins. But last Saturday the Dukesters showed their strength in their own backyard by bouncing a good Davidson team, 6-3.

The Carolina team has won 13 out of 15 matches this season, with wins over William and Mary, Kalamazoo, and Michigan State—all considered top teams this year.

Last year the Tar Heel netters eluded a 5-4 decision from Duke but the pre-match odds gave the Blue Devils the edge this year with only two lettermen returning to Coach Kenfield's squad.

With the return of Buddy Agar to the Carolina camp after an eligibility misunderstanding, the Tar Heel hopes have strengthened. Coach Kenfield will use the former Harvard ace in the number two singles spot. Del Sylvia, Bob Luxenberg, Heath Alexander, Bill Izlar, and Charlie Lambeth are scheduled for singles play but Coach Kenfield is still experimenting with doubles combinations.

MURALS HORSESHOES

These plays will not begin until next Monday because of delay in preparing the pits. Managers will receive schedules.

Len Szafaryn At Ft. Meade

Special to The Daily Tar Heel
FORT MEADE, Md., April 16—Len Szafaryn, former University of North Carolina football star, is currently undergoing medical processing here at the 2053rd reception center. He was called to service approximately one week ago.

After completing his processing here, Szafaryn will be assigned to the 722nd Transportation Corps Truck Company for basic training. The 722nd is stationed here.

Szafaryn, a native of St. Ambridge, Pa., played varsity ball at Carolina from 1945 through 1948. During his college career he made the All-State team three years, the All-Southern Conference and All-South teams two years, and was named to the Look All-America by Grantland Rice in 1948.

He played in the 1949 College All-Stars game against the Philadelphia Eagles and then went into professional football with the Washington Redskins where he was a first string tackle until traded to the Green Bay Packers prior to the 1950 season. He played last year with the Packers before entering service.

to fifth place, gaining only 185.50 points, 84.5 of these coming from third place in table tennis.
