K. Carmichael Indoctrinates Coed Leaders Training Program Slated This Week; Ends With Banquet

Dean Katherine Carmichael will open the coed Leadership on "The Responsibilities of Leadership."

Following Carmichael's address at 7:30 the different newly elected coed officers will enter into individual discussions for each office. Following is a schedule for the discussions:

Presidents and vice presidents, Roland Parker Lounge no. 1, Edna Matthes, leader; Prof. E. J. Woodhouse, advisor.

Secretaries, Women's Council Room, Karyn Mereness, leader; Mary Godbee, advisor.

Treasurers, Roland Parker Lounge no. 2, Madge Crawford and Dot Manss, leaders; Betty Denny, advisor.

Social Chairmen, Roland Parker Lounge no. 3, Sue McLaughlin, leader; Ray Jefferies, advisor.

Publicity Chairmen, Men's Council Room, Marie Withers, leader; Elizabeth Napier, advisor.

Dr. David Monroe of the Political Science Department will be the speaker at tomorrow's meetings. His topic will be "Parliamentary Procedure."

An informal talk by Consolidated University President Gordon Gray at a banquet Thursday night in the Green Room of Lenior Hall for all men and women participating in student government will climax the coed Training Program.

All women who have been elected recently to any office on the campus are urged to attend the three-night training program.

Two Named To Receive Scholarships

Two important scholarships have just been awarded two members of the 1951-52 freshman class at the University.

The Herbert Worth Jackson Scholarship, valued at $2,000 for the four scholastic years, was awarded to E. Osborne Ayscue, Jr., of Monroe, and the Andrew Bershak Intrafraternity Scholarship, also valued at $2,000 for the four-year tenure, was won by Robert Perry Hyatt of Bryson City.

Announcement was made today by Dr. W. H. Plemmons, chairman of the University scholarship committee.

Ayscue, whose father is an attorney in Monroe, is a senior at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and he plans to study law at the University here. He has maintained high grades during two years of high school in Monroe and the last two at Andover.

Hyatt, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Perry Hyatt, will graduate from Swain County High School in June. During his four years in high school, young Hyatt has maintained a remarkably high scholastic average, making A's on the large majority of his courses. The Andrew Bershak scholarship was established by the Intrafraternity Council in memory

Register Tomorrow

All students who plan to pre-register for either the summer sessions or for fall quarter with the School of Business Administration must do so by Friday, it was announced yesterday.

Tomorrow, Thursday and Friday have been set aside for registration and complete details and instructions have been posted on the bulletin board on the first floor of Bingham Hall.

MISS MODERN VENUS is the title here being officially bestowed upon beautiful Betty Bowles, Chi Omega of Statesville, at last Thursday's Sigma Chi Derby in Kenan Stadium. The bestower: President Kyle Barnes of the Derby-sponsoring Sigma Chi fraternity. Betty, who won over 18 other campus lovelies in the Miss Venus competition, is here being handed a bronze trophy and a bouquet of roses. Thursday's affair marked the seventh annual running of the Derby.

Law Prof Charges Police With Laxity

In a letter to Editor Louis Graves of the Chapel Hill Weekly last Friday, M. S. Breckenridge, Law School instructor and resident of 108 Pickard Lane, charged that "Enforcement of traffic regulations on Pickard Lane leaves everything to be desired."

In his 400-word letter, Breckenridge charged that "some cars have violated the regulations several times a day for the last six months—a hundred or more violations for a single car." He added that "improper parking has always been bad here; driving through in the wrong direction is getting worse."

"I do not mean to suggest that most citizens are at fault," he continued. "The violations are principally by certain members of fraternities in this vicinity, and they are repeated, persistent, and intentional."

"... If those charged with enforcement of the law are incapable of enforcing it better than this, or are unwilling to do it, they should frankly confess that fact to the aldermen and ask that the ordinances be repealed. This unifying force... ought not to continue."

Breckenridge claimed that at a comparatively deserted time, of five cars parked on the street, two were parked in the wrong direction and one had been stored on the street for nearly four months, "taking up parking space which is often at a premium."

Theater Group Stages Play Here This Week

The annual French play to be given by the University Theatre Francais, under the direction of Prof. Walter Creech, will this year be the "Knock," a rollicking comedy about a charlatan doctor.

The performances are scheduled for the Carolina Playmakers Theatre on Thursday and Friday, May 3 and 4, at 8:30 p.m. There will be no admission charge for the play, sponsored by the French Club for the benefit of American Aid to France, but programs will be sold, according to French custom, and a collection will be taken for French war orphans.

The leading role of Dr. Parplaid is being portrayed by Dr. Urban T. Holmes, Kenan professor in the department of Romance Languages, who was awarded the Legion of Honor by the French

T. DeVane Is UMOC, Voters Say Prizes Awarded By Theta Chis At UC Carnival

Tom DeVane, of Fayetteville and a Beta Theta Pi, was named the Ugliest Man on Campus by Theta Chi Fraternity at the University Club Carnival Friday night.

DeVane tallied 1,208 penny votes for a solid first place over TEP Dick Schwartz who came in second with 940 votes.

The total vote was 2,221 pennies, or a total of $28.21 contributed by the student body for the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund. That total and the $19.63 taken in at the Theta Chi minstrel show at the Carnival Friday night will be contributed in full to the Runyon Fund. $47.84 was the total contribution.

The presentation of the Ugly Man and his date for a night, 1951 May Queen Arden Boisseau, climaxed three days of voting by the student body. A choice of 10 entrants was offered to the campus for the title of UMOC. Each penny cast was tabulated as one vote.

DeVane was the second campus male to be adjudged by the students to be The Ugliest Man on Campus. In the first annual contest last year, the winner was David "Moe" Huntley, SPE, who won an all-expense-paid date with Joyce Richard, Miss Modern Venus of 1950.

This year, UMOC DeVane won a total of 16 prizes, ranging from a gold, engraved loving cup from Theta Chi to a free evening of beer for the Ugly Man and his date, amounting to nearly $50 in merchandise.

Dental Frat Established At University

The Upsilon Upsilon Chapter of the Delta Sigma Delta International dental fraternity was established here during the weekend with the initiation of 10 University dental students.

Initiation ceremonies were conducted in the Graham Memorial student union by the North Carolina graduate chapter. University students initiated were Frank Fowler, King; John T. Gobbel, Jr., Chapel Hill; Robert Furr, Wilmington; Kenneth Young, Lexington; Clyde McCall, Forest City; Dwight Hord, Fallston; Lawrence Cameron, Chapel Hill; James Lewis, Gastonia; Ludwig Scott, Burlington; and James Legette, Jr., Williamston.

The chapter was installed by Dr. W. C. Stillson, Supreme Grand Master from Cleveland, O. The charter was presented by Supreme Scribe Dr. S. G. Applegate, Detroit, Mich. Officers were installed by Dr. M. R. Evans, deputy supreme grand master for the Upsilon Upsilon Chapter.

Hudson To Teach Harvard Session

Prof. Arthur P. Hudson of the University's English Department is one of 50 visiting scholars from universities in America and Europe who will join 60 members of the Harvard University faculty to teach in the 1951 session of the Harvard summer school.

Prof. Hudson will give two courses, one called "Chief Romantic Poets," and the other, "The Popular Ballad in Britain and America."

Some 2,700 students are expected to enroll for the sessions which open on July 3.

Fleece Honors 13 Students; Woodhouse, Brandis Tapped

Old East, Tri Delts, Fijis Win Valykries

Delta Delta Delta and Old East Dormitory made it two years in a row last night at the annual Valkyrie Sing and Phi Gamma Delta ousted three-time winner Sigma Chi in the fraternity division of the sing.

And Speaker of the Coed Senate Kash Davis of Weldon was named outstanding coed senior of the year. She was awarded an engraved, gold cup by Dean of Women Katherine Carmichael.

In a Memorial Hall more tightly packed and hotter than when the Fleece conducted its tapping ceremonies, Tri Delt took first place honors in the sorority division with its presentation of "Our West to You," a western adaptation of songs pertinent to the University. It was the sorority's second win in as many years.

Old East Dorm won through default after A Dorm was scratched. It too, was a second time winner.

The Fijis won a close one in the fraternity division over the Sigma Chis with a novelty presentation entitled "Southern Switch." The first part of the staging was done in white-face, and then by a complicated "switch," the singers presented their other cheeks to the audience, make up in black-face.

Thirteen organizations were entered in the annual sing, with all entries but the Monogram Club competing for prizes.

Honorable mention was awarded to Alpha Gamma Delta for its presentation of "Carolina in 1953," and Pi Beta Phi for its musical "History of the University," in the sorority division. In the fraternity division, Sigma Chi took an honorable mention, with "Laments from the Levee."

Grad Outing Set Tomorrow

The Graduate Club will hold its annual picnic in Battle Park this Wednesday.

All interested members or non-members should register with Sue Stokes at the YWCA office. To members the picnic is free and for non-members there is a 25 cent charge.

The picnic starts at 4 p.m. There will be a guide in the YWCA at that time to carry picnickers to the Park.

Herb Wenig Can't Commute, 3,582 Miles Is A Long Trip

By James E. Ginther

One of the champion long distance students at the University is Heribert Augustin Wenig, who had to travel 3,582 miles to reach Chapel Hill.

A transfer student from the German University of Munich, Wenig (pronounced Vay-nik) is spending this scholastic year studying in the Department of Dramatic Art.

Last October Wenig felt his pronunciation of English so unreliable that he asked a friend to read his original play aloud to the play-writing class.

Now, however, he has made

DTH Daily Tabloid Gets Nod By Board

The Daily Tar Heel will become a daily in fact as well as in name within two weeks, according to a release from the Publications Board yesterday.

Editor Glenn Harden, who campaigned in the recent editorial race on a promise to do her best in securing a daily paper for the student body, got the nod from the Board on a nine-day trial run of a six-day-a-week tabloid.

The new paper will first appear May 15 in the form of a tabloid, one half the size of the present paper. One day of each week a double size paper is planned, giving the students one page less of actual reading space than they are now receiving.

The Publications Board, with no faculty members present, voted unanimously to make the scheduled tabloid trial run this spring in order to determine the practicality of such a paper next year.

In view of advertising problems which the tabloid Daily Tar Heel will present, Miss Harden's proposal to make a trial this spring was wholeheartedly endorsed by the Board.

It was pointed out in the Board meeting that the decision on the advisability of continuing a six-day-a-week tabloid next year will be considerably facilitated by noting the student reaction and the technical bugs which will show up in the trial run.

Neill replaces Paul R. Fought of State College.

Other officers elected: Lindsey Spry of State College, Other officers elected: Lindsey Spry of State College, vice president; Jean Patton of Elon College, secretary; and Wayland Jenkins, III, of Wake Forest, treasurer.

The 1952 convention will probably be held in Chapel Hill as it is a practice to hold the convention at the college attended by the president.

Phi Debates D. Acheson

The removal of Secretary of State Dean Acheson will be the Phi Assembly's general subject of debate tonight in Phi Hall at 8:30.

The proponents of this subject expect to prove Acheson an incompetent, a Communist supporter, and one who has ignored the best interests of the American people, according to a Phi release.

The subject originally scheduled for tonight—instituting a six-day class week at the University—has been postponed until next week.

1,500 Witness Annual Rites In Memorial

By Don Maynard

Thirteen male students and two faculty members were tapped into the Order of The Golden Fleece last night, as the highest men's honorary society on campus conducted its 48th annual induction in Memorial Hall.

Approximately 1,500 spectators packed into a humid Hall to sit through the impressive, 55-minute long ceremony. It was a shuffling and sweating audience which listened to the introductory history of the Golden Fleece given by Earl Wynn of the Communications department. But an air of tenseness and expectancy settled over the crowd as the first of the black-garbed members with fleeces on their shoulders stalked the Hall.

Tapped were faculty members Edward J. Woodhouse, of the Political Science department; and Henry Parker Brandis, Jr., Dean of the Law School. Both are of Chapel Hill.

There were no retappes this year.

Di Discusses DTH Policy At 8 Tonight

A bill dealing with the editorial policy of The Daily Tar Heel toward political parties on campus will be discussed by the Dialectic Senate in its weekly meeting tonight at 8 o'clock at Di Hall in New West.

The bill proposes that Daily Tar Heel editorial opinion "remain entirely divorced from campus political affiliations," and also that the Student Council have the right to recall any editor of the campus daily "if the editorial opinions reflect sentiments for any particular political factions."

A resolution putting the Di on record as opposing the proposal by Congress to bring Spain into the Atlantic Pact will also be brought before the body.

There will be an important meeting of the Executive Com-

Vance Wins Cash Award In New York

(Special to The Daily Tar Heel) NEW YORK—Dr. Rupert B. Vance, Kenan Professor of Sociology and member of the Institute for Research in Social Science at the University, was recently named one of the four winners of the annual $1,000 American Design Awards sponsored by Lord & Taylor.

Dr. Vance, leading economist, statistician, population expert, historian, and geographer, was honored for his leadership in helping the South develop a more productive economy.

One of his books, "Wanted: The South's Future for the Nation," was cited as one of the most effective analyses of the South's problems and eventual solutions.

Preregistration

All General College students who expect to attend summer school, and/or fall quarter should pre-register for their courses by appointment with their advisers during the period beginning tomorrow and ending May 16.

Appointments may be made by signing the appropriate sheets located in the General College office, 308 South Building. Appointments are to be made for either one or both summer school terms as well as fall quarter.

Students who have been notified of their transfer to the upper college should register in the school to which they have transferred.
