High School Seniors Saw Campus, Football, And Exhibits On Weekend

The second annual Spring Festival got in full swing Saturday when some 5,000 high school seniors from Manteo to Murphy invaded the campus to attend the Eighth Annual High School Day.

Buses and automobiles loaded with excited seniors began arriving in Chapel Hill early Saturday morning. Until late Saturday night, the visitors toured the campus, attended the annual Blue-White football game, and visited the various departments that had prepared exhibits for the week's activities.

During the day seniors viewed the campus with an inquisitive look on their faces. One group of girls was very disappointed when they were informed that they could not visit inside Old East dormitory since it was one of the most historical spots on the campus.

Other festival activities continuing this week will be art exhibits prepared by the Morehead Building and Person Hall Art Gallery. Other specially prepared exhibits will be shown by the Zoology Department, Zoology Department, and other departments throughout the University.

The library has prepared an exhibit honoring Carl Sandburg.

This exhibit includes a collection of letters, personal effects, and statements of tribute from other famous Americans.

Interesting demonstrations of psychology will be presented in room 110 New West by the Psychology Department. Photographers will be on display in the Horace Williams-Thomas Wolfe

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Professor Foerster goes to Stanford as visiting professor of English.

Senior Coeds Are Eligible For Program

Senior as well as junior coeds are eligible to participate in the women's ROC (Reserve Officer Candidate) program.

This was pointed out recently by the Bureau of Naval Personnel in a directive listing qualifications and benefits for those who join the program.

To be eligible a coed must be: A U.S. citizen; if not native born, be naturalized for 10 years; 18 years old when first enrolling as a ROC student and will not have reached 27 years of age at the end of the second summer's training; physically qualified, and an enlisted member of the Naval Reserve.

Coeds who try for the ROC program and do not make it, may be dropped from the Reserve at their request.

Women are given courses in navigation, communication, gunnery, leadership, and naval customs for a six-week period beginning about July 1 for two consecutive summers. Uniforms, quarters, and food are provided.

Base pay for the first summer is $95.55 per month and raises to $117.60 a month the second summer. The women's school is located in Great Lakes, Ill. Transportation to and from school is paid by the Government.

Those who successfully complete the two summer sessions are in line for a Naval officer's commission.

Further information and application blanks may be obtained from Cmdr. R. E. Cutts, 724 Foster street, Naval Armory, Durham.

Also announced were the names of the Fleece's officers for the past year. Ed Washington was Jason; Charlie Bartlett, Grammatous; Jim Gwynn, Christopher and John Sanders, Hyparchos. All the officers were tapped into the organization last spring.

Choice of tapes is made on the basis of self-sacrifice, service to the University and character.

Talley was the first of the students to be tapped, and Leonard was last before the house lights went up and the tapes were formally presented to the audience from the Memorial stage.

AKPsi Business Fair Plans 3-Day Program

The Alpha Kappa Psi Business Fair, the first project of its kind to be presented in the South, is scheduled May 8-10 under the sponsorship of Alpha Tau chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional business administration fraternity at the University.

"Banking and Securities" will be the subject for the three-day program. This program is of the nature that everyone, not just the students of business, will understand and enjoy," said Jim Sanders, chairman of the committee.

Exhibits, including a stock ticker from the New York Curb Exchange, will be on display on the first floor of Bingham Hall during the week.

On May 8, George P. Geoghegan, Jr., senior vice president of Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, will speak on "Your Bank and You." Preceding the talk, a movie entitled "Back of Every Promise" will be shown.

Wednesday night, J. J. Sheehan, public relations director of the New York Curb Exchange, a special guest, will lead a banking seminar, and a film, "The Federal Reserve Bank and You," will be presented.

Tryouts Today For 'Golden Boy'

Tryouts for Golden Boy, a full-length play by Clifford Odets, will be continued today at 5:00 p.m. at Graham Memorial, Roland Parker Lounge No. 3.

The play offers a number of interesting acting possibilities for men, since there are 17 male parts covering a wide range of acting requirements. There are also two women's parts.

Campus Club Reactivated

Reactivation of the Wilmington-Carolina Club was announced yesterday by Nathan Xanthos, temporary chairman of the organization.

At a meeting held last Tuesday night, plans were laid for the reorganization of the club for activities during the spring and summer.

Another reorganization meeting is scheduled tonight at 7:30 in Roland Parker Lounge of Graham Memorial. The purpose of this meeting is to elect officers and to complete plans for the remainder of the season.

Xanthos said the organization is to have a big social event before the end of spring quarter.
