

KA's Back With Union

By Charlie Gibson

Beardless and "beat"—by parties, and not by the Union—Kappa Alphas are still raving about the Old South Ball this past weekend—a strategic victory, so-called, from the Battle of Sparrows Pool to the fall of the Hotel Sir Walter.

In ceremonies broadcast from the South Building by Radio Station WNCN, Chancellor Robert B. House accepted the proclamation of secession at 2 p.m. Friday.

That evening a Sparrows Pool barbecue honored the winners of a month-long beard growing contest. Appropriate prizes were awarded to John Robinson for the best all-round beard; Tate Ervin for the best designed beard; and Charlie Aldrich for "the best effort."

On Saturday Raleigh became the battlescene in co-operation with KA chapters from State and Duke. A buffet banquet at the Carolina Country Club preceded an afternoon parade down the main street of the besieged State capital.

Following the invasion of Bill Procter's open house, the ball itself was staged at the Hotel Sir Walter—the climax for another year till KAs save that Confederate money enough to rise again.

Tar Heel Tempo

by Nancy Burgess

The clamor of the Derby Parade opened a long weekend packed with gaiety as the Derby, Blue and White Game, Carnival, and Junior Class picnic followed close upon each other's heels, culminating with the Valkyrie Sing.

Saturday night at Hogan's was reminiscent of Grand Central Station as the Junior class swarmed out for its Class Day, joined by parties from Alexander Dorm and the Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity.

From Alexander alone there were 60 people, including dates, who mingled their weiners with those of the Juniors, although the blankets may have been more secluded.

The PAD's celebrated the initiation of pledges with a cocktail party and banquet Friday night at the TV, followed by a party afterwards. On Saturday after the game, they took their barbecue and guitars to Hogan's for an all evening picnic.

Biggest event after the Derby, at which the Chi Omega's walked off with awards, was the Carnival at which everything from dice to ducking buckets of water ensued. Chi Phi's and Tri Delt's working together won the award for the best concession.

Over $100 was taken in by the TEP fraternity who turned over the entire amount, $101.50 to be exact, to the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund. Their concession, incidentally, was dice-throwing.

Sunday, TEP's held their annual Parent's Day, attended by 40 parents from throughout and outside North Carolina. After a buffet dinner at the house that noon the parents were taken on a tour of the campus and in the evening to see the Planetarium Show.

Two groups sacrificed the weekend's events for their own fun at the beach. ATO's enjoyed a houseparty at Thomas Manor at Myrtle while Nag's Head was occupied by the Sigma Nu's, some of whom also entertained alumni and wives here with a party at the house.

Culminating the Sigma Chi's big weekend was the Sweetheart Ball held at the Carolina Inn Saturday night. Events began Friday with a party at Hogan's followed Saturday with celebrations at Smitty's, the old Buchaneer. After the dance a snack was served at the house, and Sunday the group relaxed under the sun of Clearwater Lake.

The big four of PiKA fraternity, including chapters from Duke, Wake Forest, and State, gathered at Gresham's Lake near Raleigh Saturday to play ball and become better acquainted with each other. Being entertained by a Duke chapter were the Phi Delta Chi's who played softball over at Duke Friday afternoon.

Attending a Section Convention at Washington and Lee last weekend was Phi Gam's Larry Early, Bill Quarles, Garland Holmes, Sid Ward, John Barber, Reginald Griffen, Joe Nelson, and Louis Bryan. Monday night Phi Gams celebrated the winning of the Valkyrie Sing with a party. Disaster occurred, however, when it was discovered that no hot water was on tap to scrub off the make-up, but with the aid of coldcream donated by coeds the results were not too gloomy.

Other parties occurring were the Lambda Chi cabin party at Webb's, the Phi Kap blanket party at Hogan's, and the Deke party at Clearwater Saturday night following the Annual DKE Athletic Contest that afternoon at which Clyde Williams won the award for overall ability.

Kappa Sig's last week entertained the Pi Phi's with a picnic at Echo Springs. They have also chosen George Freeman to attend the summer conclave in Chicago in August.

"B" and Kenan Dorms will be the two dorms with the largest representation of grad students at the Graduate Club picnic this afternoon. The group will go off to Battle Park for a weiner roast at 6 p.m. The Graduate Club, organized many years ago, meets for the purpose of giving grad students an opportunity to become better acquainted with each other and the work they are doing.

Most of the men's dormitories are planning parties for the next few weeks before the end of the quarter, but no definite plans have been announced as yet.

Next weekend the Zeta Psi's will hold an alumni banquet in Raleigh at the Carolina Country Club and the Phi Kaps will journey to Myrtle for a beach party.

PAD Initiates Fall Pledges In Ceremony

Phi Alpha Delta, law fraternity, initiated 21 new members last Friday afternoon in ceremonies held at Phi Hall in New East.

Two more will be initiated later. Justice of the fraternity Jim Blount presided over the ceremonies.

At their annual banquet held later that night at the Terrace View Club State Supreme Court Justice Sam Erwin was the guest speaker.

Justice Erwin, introduced by John Giles, past Justice of the fraternity, gave his address on the set-up of the two main standards for lawyers. In bringing out the standards, Erwin stressed the need for integrity and industry in the law profession.

Dean Brandis, head of the University Law School, gave a short talk to the graduating class.

Those initiated into the law fraternity: William Agapion, Greensboro; Willis D. Brown, Magnolia; Horace M. Dubose, III, Winston-Salem; Michael A. DeMaio, Chapel Hill; Lewis W. Carolina Pin-Ups

Not only has the ratio of campus males to coeds fallen, but now in the midst of the well-anticipated Spring Quarter the local lassies find themselves somewhat neglected in the pinned-engaged circles as the ratio reaches 10 to 3 in favor of the non-coed cuties.

Tom Bulla, Kappa Alpha from High Point recently pinned Marilyn Rabinette, a WC student and also from High Point.

A second hometown pairing is that of Phi Delt Earle Rives, Jr., and his WC pin-up Jeanne Skees, both are from Greensboro.

Starting as the one local pin-up of the week is Chi Omega Peggy Wood from Chattanooga, Tenn., who now wears the White Star of Sigma Nu Ben James of Jacksonville, Fla.

ADPi alumna Jackie Sharpe of Roanoke, Va., and Bob Kirby, Kappa Alpha from Charlotte are making plans for June wedding bells.

The Chapel Hill Methodist Church was the scene of the marriage of Ann Frost of Mocksville to KA Gene Wilson of Pompano Beach, Fla., on April 20.

Pi Kappa Phi reports two pin-ups. Bill (Dub) Hord from Morganton is pinned to Marty Campbell of Winston-Salem. Claudius Irby of Roanoke Rapids has pinned Alice Joiner, a student at WC.

ATO Jack Atwater traversed Duke-ward to pin Kappa Alpha Theta Marcia Carmichael from Richmond, Va. Announcement has been made of the engagement of ATO Gordon Pfefferkorn of Winston-Salem to Tommy Dize, an alumna of Stephens College from Winston-Salem.

On Fraternity Row three pin-ups and one engagement were registered at the PiKA house. Bob Upton from Ventnor, N. J., has pinned Betty Barringer, WC student from Hickory, Ralph

Rawls Chosen To Head PiKA
