

Golfers Trounce Deacs, Meet Duke Today

Season Finale Against Devils Set At Finley

By Biff Roberts
With their eyes definitely looking forward to today's return engagement with Duke, Carolina's golfers casually went through a warm-up match with Wake Forest yesterday and trounced the Deacons at Finley golf course, 23 1/2-3 1/2.

The golfers will wind up their dual meet this afternoon when they meet Duke in a return engagement on the Finley course at 1:30. The Blue Devils are the only team to bet the Tar Heels this season.

Nobody seemed too concerned with the Deacons and the Carolina scores proved it. Rod McKnight and Frank Brooks were low for the Tar Heels with 74's. They had to bow to Dick Tiddy of Wake Forest for the medal honors, however, as the number-one Deac had a 73.

Tiddy had a sweltering 33, three under par, on the front, enough to put McKnight five down, but he let the bag open with a 40 on the back. McKnight rallied with a back-side 36 after a 38 to keep Tiddy's win margin at 2-1.

Brooks, in the meantime, had little trouble with Frank Edens' 81 and blasted out a 3-0 win. The little Tar Heel captain had rounds of 38-36.

The second twosome was all Carolina as Bob Black and Frank Eckert closed Jim Flick and Clyde Randolph out on the 15th hole. Black was low man in the foursome with a 75 and had a one-under par 35 on the back nine.

Eckert had a 39-37 for a 76 and dropped Randolph, 3-0. He was two under par on the back side coming to the 17th hole but had trouble on the last two holes and went one over for the nine.

The summaries:
Tiddy (WF) def. McKnight, 2-1; Brooks (C) def. Edens, 3-0. Best ball, Carolina, 2-1.
Black (C) def. Flick, 3-0; Eckert (C) def. Randolph, 3-0. Best ball, Carolina 3-0.
Brown (C) def. Jennings, 3-0; Ferree (C) def. Ramsey, 3-0. Best ball, Carolina, 2 1/2-1/2.

Greensboro Grand Slam Beats Tar Babies, 7-4

By Bill Hughes
A smashing homer to left center by Greensboro High's Arnold Leary with the bases loaded in the eighth proved disastrous to the Carolina freshman baseballers yesterday as they lost, 7-4. The Greensboro rally came after the Tar Babies had worked out of a 3-0 hole and were leading, 4-3.

Carolina pitcher Don Lee Marbury got off on the wrong foot in the first when, after retiring the first batter, he walked two and allowed Tiny Burtner to single, loading the bases. A double to left center by Bo York then drove in two runs for the initial scoring. An infield error put the next batter safe on first and allowed another Greensboro run, but York was out off at home plate for the second out. Fred Dale fielded Pete Hall's grounder for the final out.

With the aid of good base stealing, wild pitches, a passed ball, and three base hits, the Tar Babies managed to tie the score in the fifth. Right fielder Jack Mitchell started things off with a clean single, and while Roland Zagnoli and Johnny Groom struck out, he advanced to third on a stolen base and a wild pitch. Second baseman Charlie Yelverton then worked Greensboro Pitcher Jack Thomas for his first walk of the ball game.

A few moments later he too, stole second. Pitcher Marbury, who also reached third via a balk and a passed ball, then singled, scoring Mitchell and Yelverton. Center fielder Sonney Clifton's single brought Marbury in to tie things up. Although he also stole second and advanced to third on a wild pitch, he was left there when Joe Mosiel fanned out.

In the sixth Tar Baby Bruce Holt singled and stole second, while Dale and Mitchell went out via the fly and strike-out route respectively. Zagnoli then singled to bring in Holt and pull the Tar Babies out in front. Groom struck out for the third successive time to wind up the inning.

Carolinians Win 5 Of 6 On Weekend

Greensboro came back strong in the eighth after Burtner flew out to Groom. A single by York, a free trip by Howard Stanley, and another single by Pete Hall loaded the bags for Leary's day-saving homer. Neither team threatened to score again throughout the remainder of the game.

Greensboro — 200 000 049-7 19 0
Carolina — 000 001 006-4 7 2
Thomas and Burtner; Marby and Zagnoli.

Blue Devils Expect Win Saturday

The Duke varsity and frosh track teams run Carolina here Saturday and the Blue Devils think they have a varsity team that will take the first Duke victory over Carolina since 1945.

The Blue Devils have a very good team led by some of the best men in the South and have lost only to Navy this year. Duke's chances were hurt badly last Wednesday when Henry Poss pulled a thigh muscle and is not expected to run.

Poss' absence robs Duke of likely firsts in the 100 and 220-yard dashes and the broad jump. Another Blue Devil on the doubtful list is sophomore 440 star John Tate.

The times of the meet between Carolina and Georgia Tech Saturday indicate that Duke would have some difficulty winning even with Poss. Six men turned in the best performances of their careers as the Tar Heels placed 28 of the 32 men entered in their 88 1/2 to 42 1/2 win over Tech.

Tar Heel Baseballers Boost Big Four Lead

After brushing aside a hot-and-cold South Carolina nine on Saturday, Carolina's baseball Tar Heels will rest up until Thursday when they move back into Big Four action.

Saturday's 13-3 victory over the Gamecocks boosted Carolina into second place in the Southern division of the Southern Conference but there seems to be little chance of Coach Bunn Hearn's outfit overhauling the high-flying Clemson Tigers.

Knuckle ball specialist Bill Lore gave up only two hits while Carolina rapped out 12.

The freshmen baseballers won an easy 12-2 victory over Salisbury High on Saturday. The visitors took an early lead on Ted West's homer in the second, but the Tar Babies came back with five runs in the third.

The lacrosse team racked up its first victory by beating Virginia Tech, 19-2, on Saturday. The Tar Heels led the Gobblers throughout the game, and were never in any serious difficulty.

A very surprising score resulted from the track meet with Georgia Tech on Saturday. Carolina racked up 88 1/2 points to Tech's 42 1/2. Garrett Fitzgibbons came through for Carolina by winning the high hurdles while Ottis Honeycutt won the two mile event. Gene Brigham also showed well for the Tar Heels in winning the quarter-mile dash.

The Carolina tennis team wound up its northern tour by beating Wesleyan, 7-2, Saturday, after losing to Yale Friday by the same score.

The freshman track team beat Durham High, 85-46, here on Friday.

Lacrosse Team Wins Easy Victory From Virginia Tech

Coach Alan Moore's lacrossemen cleaned house Saturday as they walloped the Virginia Tech stickmen to the tune of 19-2. The Baltimore quartet of Wait Ernst, Ted Dawes, Art Greenbaum, and Buddy Kaufman led the local stick squad with 16 goals.

The Tar Heels set a new University record for total score in a contest. The previous high score was 12 established against Western Maryland last year. Ernst also set a new individual scoring mark with five goals, all of which came in the first half.

Using the whole bench, Coach Moore's stickmen scored three in the third period on goals by Dave Cole and two by Greenbaum. The final period saw Dawes, Greenbaum, Cole, and Hal Taylor end the scoring.

Ping Pong Title Decided

The heavily favored and the first seeded Hugh Barrett swept to victory last Thursday in the final event of the second annual Graham Memorial Table Tennis Tournament when he defeated Malcolm Clark in straight sets, 21-13, 21-15, 21-13, 21-12.

Barrett won every set he played in the tournament in living up to his top seeding. A former North Carolina high school champion, he defeated Jippy Carter in the semifinals before tackling Clark. Clark brushed aside V.A. (Skip) Hoyle in the semifinals before bowing to Barrett.
