

KD Initiation, Installation Ceremonies Take Place

Thirteen coeds became charter members of Beta Chi chapter Kappa Delta sorority in installation ceremonies held this weekend.

Formal initiation ceremonies were held Saturday afternoon in Graham Memorial with Duke chapter attending. The chapter was formally installed and received its charter at a banquet Saturday night in Lenoir Hall. A reception Sunday afternoon for faculty, students, and friends was held from 3 to 5 o'clock at the Carolina Inn.

Nancy Knighten and Rosa May Savage, Kappa Delta's from Southwestern University and William and Mary, assisted the Carolina group in preparing for the installation. Both are now enrolled in the University.

Next fall members of the chapter will move into their house at 219 Franklin St. with Mrs. Eloise Hurysz as housemother.

Kappa Delta, founded at Longwood College, Farmville, Va., has almost 700 state alumnae with organized associations in Raleigh, Charlotte, Greensboro, Durham, and Fayetteville.

Gwen Gore, chapter secretary, will represent the group at the biennial national convention June 25-29 in Pasadena, California.

Chapel Hill alumnae include Mrs. M. B. Garrett, Mrs. K. C. Frazer, Mrs. W. D. Cammichael, Jr., Miss Margaret Little, Mrs. Taul White, Mrs. William Wells, Mrs. G. B. Cleveland, Mrs. W. H. Eastman, Mrs. Sheldon Voorhis, and Dr. Charlotte McLeod.
