ARE YOU MARRIED OR ARE YOU YOUR OWN BOSS?

Either way it will be a great day for you the first time that you come out to the Pines and sink your teeth into one of our tender, delicious steaks. So if you are one of the ball and chain type, let the little woman talk you into coming out and having a real good meal. If you are single, bring your girl friend and go up 15 points in her estimation for the good meals you both will get.

Ronnie Kesling in the 440, Gordon Hamrick and Jack Bennett in the 880, Bobby Byrd in the mile, Garrett Fitzgibbons, Romas White, Bobby Bell, and Sonny Beall in the hurdles, and Otis Honeycutt, Phil Burkhalter, and Sonny Glatz in the 2-mile.

The conference champion mile relay team of Mack Ray, Clarence McLain, Jim Hamrick, and Gene Brigham will also represent Carolina. In the field events Carolina will have Turk Ogden in the discus, George Verchick, Roscoe Hansen, and Tom McAllister in the pole vault, and Bob Payne, Bill Cornell, and House in the javelin.

Two other Tar Heels, no longer on the track, will compete. Bob Seligman will compete in the shot and discus and Jack Moody will go in the high jump. Jim O'leary of Duke, another former conference champ who has used up his varsity eligibility, will compete in the shot and discus.

One of the top attractions of the meet will be John Montgomery, former Southern Cal ace who will compete in the pole vault. Montgomery, now living in Charlotte, has bettered 14 feet.

The meet will be the final tune-up before the Southern Conference - Southeastern Conference Saturday night at State.
