

Cross Country Season Opens Oct. 6

Nine Meet Card Scheduled; Five Lettermen Returning

By Ed Starnes

Carolina's cross country team should be stronger than last year's edition, according to Coach Dale Ranson. Although he made no definite prediction, Ranson said yesterday he thinks the Tar Heels will make a good showing with their nine meet schedule.

Last year's team posted a 3-4 record in dual meets. The Tar Heels started slowly and ran their best race in the Conference meet at Raleigh where they finished fourth behind Maryland, West Virginia and N. C. State in a field of ten teams.

Outstanding member of the squad is Gordon Hamrick, senior and letterman from Shelby. Four other lettermen plus an outstanding group of sophomores and juniors round out the team. Seniors Bill Burgess and Ed Dixon and juniors Jack Bennett and Bobby Webb earned monograms on last year's team. Junior Bob Byrd has looked very good this fall.

A strong group of freshmen led by John Barden, Ed Vogel and Jack Reimer will bolster the Tar Heels. Carolina will field a junior varsity team in place of the traditional freshman squad due to the conference ruling that allows freshmen to participate in varsity sports.

Coach Ranson is interested in having boys work out this fall to lay a foundation in the middle distances and distances for both indoor and outdoor teams.

The schedule follows:

Oct. 6—Richmond, there; 10—N. C. State, here; 12—Davidson, here; 20—Maryland, College Park, Maryland; 30

Jayvee Grid Team Starts Drill Monday

Football Coach Carl Snively said yesterday that jayvee football practice will begin Monday afternoon on Navy Field and urged all freshmen interested in playing to report to room 109 Woollen Gym at 2 p.m. Monday.

In order to play varsity or jayvee football each applicant must have an "A" medical rating card from the infirmary. The jayvee squad has a tentative five-game schedule.

Managers are needed for the freshmen football team also, according to head managers Charlie Behreus. These positions must be filled immediately, preferably by freshmen students. When winter practice begins the frosh managers will be moved up to varsity managers.

—Duke, Durham.
Nov. 3—Tennessee, here; 5—Big 5, Raleigh; 10—Virginia, Charlottesville, Va.; 12—Southern Conference meet, Durham.

Mural Football Entries Open Sept. 20

Bill Kuyck of the Intramural Department said yesterday that entries for fraternity tag football teams will open Thursday, Sept. 20 and close Sept. 25 with play beginning Sept. 27 in the various leagues.

Entries for dormitory teams open on the same date, Sept. 20, but do not close until Oct. 2 with play beginning Oct. 4.

In announcing the dates for entries, Kuyck also asked that all men interested in officiating the tag football games should contact the Mural office immediately.

Qualifying for the annual Autumn Golf Tournament begins Monday at Finley Golf Course and extends through Oct. 6. All men interested in entering the tournament must turn in an attested score card to Pro Ed Kenney at the Finley club house sometime during the dates set for qualifying.

The tournament will again be single elimination match play with the field divided into flights based on the qualifying scores.

The tournament is open to students and members of the faculty but the faculty members will have separate flights set up for them.

Wildcats

Chapel Hill High School will meet a strong Methodist Orphanage team at 8 p. m. today in a Class A football game at Carrboro Athletic Park.
