

WOLFPACK ALL-AMERICA—Elmer Costa, 215-pound tackle from Paterson, N. J., will be the mainstay in a strong N C State line in Saturday's opener for the Carolina football team. Costa won All-America acclaim for his play last year and should be better this season.

18 Of 53 Carolina Gridders Will Be Frosh, Sophomores

The new accent on youth for the 1951 Carolina football team will have 28 of the 53 men on the dressing list for the opener with N. C. State here Saturday players with no varsity experience.

Eighteen of the group will be sophomores and 10 are freshmen. This group is expected to play an important part in the game and for that reason the more experienced Wolfpack is given an excellent chance to break their five-year losing streak.

Sophomores who will be suited up at the 2:30 Kenan Stadium kickoff are: Tom Medlin, Dick Kocornik, Jeff Newton, Bill Baker, ends; Thad Eure, Francis Fredere, tackles; Ken Yarborough, Paul Hursch, Jack Maulsby, guards; Doug Bruton, Dave Mullens, Junior Seawell, centers, and Van Weatherpoon, Billy Williams, Dick Lackey, Charles Motta, Bob White, John Gaylord, backs.

Freshmen who will be in varsity uniforms for the first time include Dick Starner, Dan Mainier, Lou Darnell, Chuck Ellwood, ends; Will Alexander, Jimmy Neville, guards; Bill Kirkman, center; George Foti, Larry Parker, George Wallin, backs.

Listed as tentative Tar Heel starters among the newcomers, either on offense or defense, are ends Jeff Newton and Lou Darnell; guards Ken Yarborough and Paul Hursch; linebacker Doug Bruton or Bill Kirkman; and backs Billy Williams, Bob White, Larry Parker and Lou Britt, the
