By Mary Nell Boddie

Before we all start "Rushing" around, let's slow down a tad and eye the social whirling of the summer and early fall months.

Brookneal, Va. was the scene of the marriage of ATO Jack Woodell of Fayetteville, to Peggy Rose Anderson, Tri-Delt, on September 15. Jack was a Monogram wearer from the football ranks, and was graduated from Carolina last June. He is now serving with the Air Force.

ATO Art Greenbaum of Baltimore, Md. is pinned to Rose Mae Holland of Smithfield. Rose is a junior at Greensboro College, but was a '51 summer Carolina coed.

General conclusion is that everybody entertained for the Bulldog visitors last weekend. Due to the lack of space we could not elaborate in the last column, but we'd like to mention a few now. The Chi Psi's entertained with a party at Webb's cabin on Saturday night . . . Brothers of KA served a buffet dinner at the house on Saturday, and then adjourned for a party at Hogan's . . . Ditto for Hogan's and the SAE's . . . Carolina Club, formerly the Mercury Club, was headquarters for the Sigma Chi's on Saturday . . . Others honoring the victorious Jawjuns were the SAE's, Phi Delt's, Lambda Chi's, Kappa Psi's, and Kappa Sig's . . . Alums were guests of the Delta Psi's for luncheon on Saturday . . .

Wearers of the white star of Sigma Nu serenaded Joan Palmer, Chi Omega from McKeesport, Pa., who is pinned to Allan Donald of Ridgewood, N. J.

Hats Off Department . . . A word of congratulations to the Pi Lam's for abolishing hazing. The brothers agreed to substitute a program of community work to replace the traditional Hell Week . . . Pi Lam President William Kingoff announced at chapter meeting Wednesday that the national fraternity has established a $100,000 scholarship fund in memory of brother Isaac Mark . . . Kingoff represented the Omega Beta chapter at national convention in New Jersey this summer.

Pinned are Lambda Chi Check Goodwin of Waynesville and Jo Grogan of Chapel Hill. Check is a '51 varsity cheerleader, and Jo is chairman of Cardboard.

Tar Heels Not On Hand . . . Word from Fort Jackson has it that they are ready to organize a full fledged alum chapter . . . Victims of the military hospitality include old staffers of The Daily Tar Heel, Chuck Hauser, and Joe Cherry; Sigma Nu and Soccer letter man Jim Gwynn; Phi Delt Wick Andrews; PiKa Frank Keel; SPE and footballer Bill Slate; varsity basketballer Dick Patterson; and last year's Phi Assembly president Walter Tice.

Edna Mathes, '51 grad from Wilmington, and Phi Delt Bob Koonts of High Point are pinned. Brothers of TEP were the first this fall to entertain Carolina's newest sorority chapter on campus. Members of KD were honored at dinner at the TEP house last night.

Visitor of the week on campus is PFC James Mills of the Air Force. Jim of "Big Bertha" fame, will be in Tar Heels until tomorrow, when he returns to Panama City, Fla. Most Worthy Editor of the '51 Yackety Yack, Mills is also known as the lucky boy who claims Sue Lindsey's attentions. Sue wears his pin of Theta Chi.

Sara Fonville of Burlington is the pin-up of Chi Psi Baxter Miller of Durham. Sara is a junior at Greensboro College, and another '51 summer coed.

The Delta shelter girls and dates journeyed to Turnage's in Durham for a party last Friday. Last night the brothers of Zeta Psi entertained for the Delta's from 6-8 o'clock.

Pi Phi Liz Dockey and Walter Tice of Di senate fame are pinned.

Miss Priscilla Newell, Tri-Delt traveling secretary, visited at the chapter house last weekend and was honored at a dinner on Tuesday.

Chi Psi Ed Waller is pinned to Patricia Scott. Both are from Honolulu.

The seven new transfers of Pi Phi were informally entertained by the chapter last Wednesday. Brothers of Kappa Sig entertained for the Chi Omega's with a barbecue dinner at Hogan's last night.

Jay Given of Raleigh now wears the SPE heart of Don Birch. Jay is a student nurse at Grace Hospital.

Greensboro — TV — and the Texas game, sums up the activities of the Pi Lam's tomorrow afternoon. The Pi Lam's and dates will travel to the Plantation Club for celebrating (because of a victory, we hope!).

Also journeying to the Gate City tomorrow will be the ZBT's. Lowell Dryzer will entertain at his home for brothers and dates.

Zeta Psi Alec Barns of Murfreesboro is pinned to Betty Lou Selig, new coed from Elizabeth City.

According to social chairman Vernon "The Duke" Ferrell, the Sigma Chi's will convene at Lloyd's Barn tomorrow night.

ence scoring title last fall. We'll never know until gametime whether he's to be in or out.

With Townsend there are Gib Dawson and Don Bartson, a pair of hot-shot speedsters who have made names out West where football is speed and speed is lightning.

So, Joe's job Saturday isn't going to be easy. But the contact-loving fellow has shown before that he is capable of handling any chore, and as captain would certainly love to bring his Tar Heels home in the driver's seat.

He made almost every Carolina opponents' all-opponent team last year, and was also selected on several of the all-Southern lists. As a sophomore, he was honored by the Associated Press with a berth on the Southern Conference All-Soph. team, with the other slet going to Maryland's Bob Ward who won his All-American spurs last season.

Let's keep an eye on Dudeck.
