

The Daily Tar Heel

VOLUME LX

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1951

CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

NUMBER 16

FAST LONGHORNS TRAMP TAR HEELS BY SCORE OF 45-20

Five Negroes Send Telegram To Gov. Scott

All five Negro law students here have wired Gov. Kerr Scott to get a legal opinion on the University's policy of segregation in the cheering section during football games at Kenan Stadium.

The students asked Scott to request a ruling on the administration's policy from Attorney General Harry McMullan. Such an opinion could influence the University's policy but would have no legal basis.

Governor Scott could not be reached for comment, while Chancellor R. B. House had no comment and Student Body President Bowers was unavailable.

Federal court action on the controversy may be sought by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Peoples if the University does not change its policy towards the Negro students, officials of the NAACP said last week.

J. Kenneth Lee, law student from Greensboro, explaining why the 140-word telegram was sent to Scott, said, "It is not our desire to stir up any trouble, but no one has consulted us in this matter. There is no disagreement that couldn't be worked out in a friendly manner if the administration would merely talk with us."

It Was Just Too Hot, Snavelly Says Of Game

MEMORIAL STADIUM, AUSTIN, TEXAS, Oct. 6—Following Texas' win Snavelly greeted Ed Price of Texas in midfield at the end of the game. "You've got a fine team," Snavelly told Price, "we just weren't tough enough today. I wish you the best of luck."

Snavelly was again disappointed in the humid Texas weather (87 degrees). "It was just like this last time," he said after the game. "I'd like to play the game over in cooler weather. It's not nearly this hot in North Carolina. Our highest temperature there has been in the low 80's"

Gov. Scott returned Friday from a governors conference in Tennessee and wasn't in Raleigh at this writing. Harvey Beech, James Lassiter, William Marsh, and the student who was given free Section K tickets for games, James Walker, said they have received no word from Scott.

"We are not particularly interested in attending these athletic contests," Lee asserted. What the students are concerned about is the principle involved in the University's refusal to consider them on an equal basis with other students, he pointed out.

When Walker first refused the Section K tickets, he explained that this was the first major incident where he had to make a stand. "Our relations with students have been cordial," he said. In contrast, relations with the administration have grown worse, he indicated.

The telegram read: "In light of the announced policy of the administration of the (See NEGRO, page 3)

Commenting on the terrific licking his team took, Snavelly said, "we're not a bit discouraged over the defeat. Not to belittle Texas—I think its a great team and I hope they go a long way—but we could go out on a cold day and beat 'em. We can score a lot of points against Texas."

Asked to name the best player on the field for Texas, Snavelly was quick to reply, "It was that boy 'Gib' Dawson. He's a real humdinger—he's a peach."

Addressing his team in the dressing room after the game, the Grey Fox was anything but discouraged. "If you've got the kind of guts I think you have, we'll do all right from now on, he said.

Texas Coach Ed Price paid tribute to his offensive team after the game. "It was the offensive team's turn out there today," he said, "and the boys did a good job."

"When the attack is working like it was today, the defense can afford to falter—and a couple of (See SNAVELY, Page 4)

Longhorn Dawson Leads Attack With Two Teedees

By Zane Robbins

MEMORIAL STADIUM, AUSTIN, TEXAS, Oct. 6—An explosive University of Texas football team, led by galloping Gib Dawson, took advantage of Tar Heel mistakes and its own offensive power to smash a determined but outplayed University of North Carolina team here today by a score of 45-20.

The Longhorns, operating from the power-packed split-T, drew first blood after six minutes had elapsed in the first period.

TEAM STATISTICS
	North Carolina	Texas
First Downs	16	16
Rushing Yardage	103	411
Passing	179	31
Passes Attempted	25	5
Passes Completed	13	3
Passes Intercepted	1	4
Punts	4	6
Punting Average	41	34.2
Fumbles Lost	2	2
Yards Penalized	54	97

Grid Scores

Texas 45	Carolina 20
Alabama 20	Vanderbilt 22
Maryland 33	Washington 6
Georgia 0	Miss. State 6
Georgia Tech 13	Kentucky 7
Miss. U. 34	Boston College 7
S. Carolina 21	Furman 6
Virginia 33	VPI 0
VMI 20	William & Mary 7
Wash. & Lee 30	W. Va. 0
Princeton 23	Navy 13
Brown 14	Yale 13
Cornell 41	Colgate 18
Columbia 35	Harvard 0
Villanova 20	Penn State 14

Carolina received the opening kick-off and picked up two first downs in driving to its own 33-yard-line. Then, on second down, Billy Williams fired a quick pass up the middle that was intercepted on the Carolina 36 by J. T. Seaholm who returned the ball to the 34 before being grounded.

T. Jones and Don Barton worked out a first down in two plays to give the Longhorns the ball on the Carolina 17. The Tar Heel defense stiffened for three downs and held the Texans to seven yards. On fourth down T. Jones lobbed a pass to Dawson in the corner of the end zone for the score.

Dawson's kick from placement was blocked by Lou Darnell. The Tar Heels couldn't do anything after taking the kick-off and Bud Wallace was forced to kick from his own one-yard-line on fourth down.

With Texas in possession on the Carolina 27, Dawson fumbled and Wallace recovered on the Tar Heel 13.

On first down, Bob (Goo Goo) (See WISSMAN, Page 4)