

Tar Heel Booters Face State In Opener Under New Coach

9 Lettermen To See Action In Tilt Today

By Ken Barton

Nine returning lettermen, bolstered by three additions to the starting eleven and the coaching of Alan Moore, last year's freshmen soccer coach, are scheduled to open the 1951 soccer season for Carolina soccer team here on Fetter Field this afternoon at 3:30 against N.C. State.

Coach Moore is coaching the varsity for the first time this season as he replaces Coach Marvin Allen now in the Navy. Moore also coached Lacrosse last Spring. Moore hails from Springfield College, Springfield Mass., where he coached freshman soccer following his playing days there. He was All-America in both soccer and lacrosse.

Lettermen in the starting lineup include: Wings "Red" Montgomery and Fred Lurie. Insides Eddie Foy and Tom Hopkins, Halbacks George Stephens, "Red" MacCallman, and Buddy Sawyer, and left Fullback Barry Kalb. Russell, a freshman playing his first year for Carolina, will start at center forward and should be a top addition to the forward wall. Burnie Burstan, captain of last year's freshmen team, will start at right fullback and Ben Tison will get the nod at goalie.

Others who will see action according to Coach Moore are Jim Bunting, halfback, Mike Galiafanakis, halfback, Bill Brawner, inside, Harry Pawlik, center forward, and Rennie Randolph, halfback. Buddy Kaufman, is slated for right wing and may start instead of Lurie. Allan Millidge, right wing, and returning letterman will also see action.

State is loaded this year with 15 returning lettermen from the squad that lost twice to Carolina last year. According to State's Coach Eric De Groat they have their best team in several years. It is State's first game also.

Sorely missed tomorrow will be last year's captain Buck Blankenship who played goalie and Jim Gwynn and Gus Varkaris. Gwynn, left wing, and Blankenship graduated while Varkaris, center forward transferred to State.

Coach Moore said that the team had been practicing three weeks now and had done a lot of work on short and long passes. "With a little fight and aggressiveness in controlling the ball the boys should win," he added.

END BENNY Walser, the Tar Heels top pass receiver last year, will be out for two or three weeks with a pulled muscle in his right thigh. The senior from Lexington watched the South Carolina game on crutches.

'Terps' Best I've Ever Seen Says Radman

The Carolina football team began preparations yesterday for the game with a Maryland University team which Coach George Radman has described as the "best college team I've ever seen." The Terps, ranked 10th in the nation last week and sure to be rated higher this week after their rout of Georgia, are expected to be at least two touchdown favorites over the Tar Heels. Their only common foe this year has been Georgia, a team that licked Carolina, 28-16.

Coach Jim Tatum's T-formation offense has rung up 130 points to 27 by Washington and Lee, George Washington, and Georgia. Maryland lacks a single standout, triple threat back, but they have three fine back fields. In one game the defensive backs moved the ball as well as the offensive backs.

Carolina will have to be at its best to stop the Maryland depth. Benny Walser, Bob White, and George Foti will miss the game for the Tar Heels. Bud Carson, injured last Saturday, will be ready for play again.

Maryland Tickets

There are only a limited number of tickets for the Maryland game in Washington next week left. Mr. Vernon Crook at the ticket office expects that these tickets will be sold tomorrow morning.

MURALS

Members of the student body and faculty are invited to attend an organizational meeting of the UNC Chess Club on Thursday, Oct. 18, at 7:30 p.m., in room 301-B of Woollen gym.

A simultaneous chess exhibition involving the North Carolina State champion against "all comers" will be a feature of this meeting. Opportunities for individual games will also be provided for all enthusiasts.

Entries for the Intramural Volleyball Tournament will close on Thursday at 4:00 p.m. This is a point system activity. Managers desiring to enter their organization should call the Intramural Office, phone 2.424, to make entry. Eligibility lists will be due no later than date of first match.

All matches will be arranged so as not to conflict with the Tag Football schedule.

The mural track meet originally scheduled for yesterday was postponed and will probably be held during the spring quarter.
