

Parker 'Arrives' Against Birds; Chosen Tar Heel Athlete Of Week

By Bill Peacock

Larry Parker, Carolina's freshman tailback who threw for one touchdown and set-up another against South Carolina, yesterday was voted The Daily Tar Heel Athlete of the Week.

Parker received two first place votes and shared another first ballot with Billy Williams. In all he got 12½ points to top trackman Bob Barden, who had 6, and soccer player Jerry Russell, who had 5. Williams and Tom Higgins also received votes.

Saturday marked the high-point in the fast-moving career of Parker who came to Carolina from Charlotte with the tag of the nation's top freshman prospect. The Carolina coaching staff was impressed with the boy's talent, but preferred to use him on defense whole he picked up experience.

Against Georgia he made a bad play on a pass which went for a touchdown, but he also starred on punt returns after regular safetymen Bud Carson had to leave the game. So he was then taken off defense and concentrated on offense in practice sessions.

He started his first game on offense against the Gamecocks and was an immediate success. He tossed an 11-yard pass to End Bill Baker for the first Carolina score and set up the other with a beautiful 61-yard kickoff return. As a relief safetymen he has proved very effective, averaging 27.3 yards on 8 kickoff returns and 18.7 yards on 7 punt returns.

Bob Barden, another freshman, has previously been the second man in the Athlete of Week poll, and deservedly so. The slender tow-head from Newark, N. J. has led the Carolina cross country team in all three meets this year. Barden received fine instruction before coming to Carolina, being coached in high school by Jack Milne, former Tar Heel NCAA cross country champ.

Jerry Russell becomes the third freshman to win a place in the poll as the yearlings dominate the vote. Russell, from Ardmore, Pa., scored two goals Tuesday as the Carolina soccer team successfully opened its season by whipping State, 4-2.

It is unusual for two athletes playing the same position to receive high praise for their play, but the work of Tailback Billy Williams, replacing Parker, could not go unnoticed. Williams, who started the year as the Tar Heels' top tailback, might have found himself in the South Carolina game. He did well on his cutbacks and in all led the Carolina backs in rushing with 92 yards in 11 carries for an average of 8.4 yards.

All Chess Fans are reminded of the organizational meeting of the Chess Club Thursdays at 7:30 tonight in Room 301-B of Woolen Gym.

A simultaneous chess exhibition involving the North Carolina State Champion against "all comers" will be the feature of the meeting, although individual games will also be provided.

Thursday is also the deadline for Volleyball entries. All managers are reminded that this is a point system activity.

The first round of Tag Football will soon be drawing to a close with 16 teams still undefeated within the two divisions.

The dormitory division leaders are as follows: League one has Med School No. 3 leading with two wins. In League two Victory Village and "B" Dorm are ahead with three wins each. League three has three teams with two wins each, they are NROTC No. 1, Lewis No. 1, and Med. School No. 1. League four has Law School on top with a two-nothing record, and "A" Dorm close with a one-nothing tally. Ruffin's two wins lead in League five.

The fraternity divisions have had more games with fewer forfeits. DKE No. 1 leads League one with three wins, whereas League two has two three game winners in Zeta Psi No. 2 and Chi Phi. ATO is leading all teams with their four wins, therefore keeping ahead in League three. League four has the only leader which has lost a game, Sig Chi No. 1 has three wins and one loss, that loss was a forfeit. The number two team of Sig Chi leads League five with two wins. League six has twin leaders, although Pi Kap Phi has three wins and Phi Gam No. 2 has only two.

Carolina Jayvees Meet Deacs

Carolina's junior varsity football team will be heavily favored in its annual game with Wake Forest Saturday night, in Burlington.

The game is played for the Moose charity, all proceeds going to the childrens homes in Burlington. Tickets are on sale at the ticket office in Woolen Gym for seventy-five cents. Pass books are not acceptable.

The Tar Heel jayvee won its opening game trouncing the Maryland JV, 32-6 last Friday. Wake Forest beat N.C. State 2-0 and dropped a game to Duke's Baby Blue Devil's 32-6 last week.

Last year Carolina beat the Baby Deacs by a 14-7 score to tie for the Big Four Freshman title.

WAA Tournament In Third Round

The third round of the Women's Athletic Association tennis tournament is now underway and will be completed by Oct. 22.

Eighty-eight girls entered the tournament, which began Oct. 14. The finals will be completed by Nov. 5.

Several Carolina football players on this year's squad led the team in various statistical departments last season. Bob Gantt and Benny Walser were the leading pass catchers. Chalmers Port and Bud Carson intercepted three passes each, while Bud Wallace was the team's high scorer with 50 points. Carson led in punt returns and Wallace in kickoff re-
