

The Daily Tar Heel

VOLUME LX SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1951 CHAPEL HILL, N. C. NUMBER 23

Terps Undefeated; Take UNC, 14-7

'Confederate' Tar Heels Take Over Washington

By Walt Dear

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20—Tar Heels took over the nation's capital yesterday and today with a mile-long motorcade, several pep rallies and plenty of parties.

The motor parade, which included the band, cheerleaders, and about 150 cars, in its ranks, started at 14th and K streets and after snarling traffic, and letting everyone in Washington know just who was in town, circled back to the Ambassador Hotel area. The motorcade then got a special police escort to Byrd Stadium.

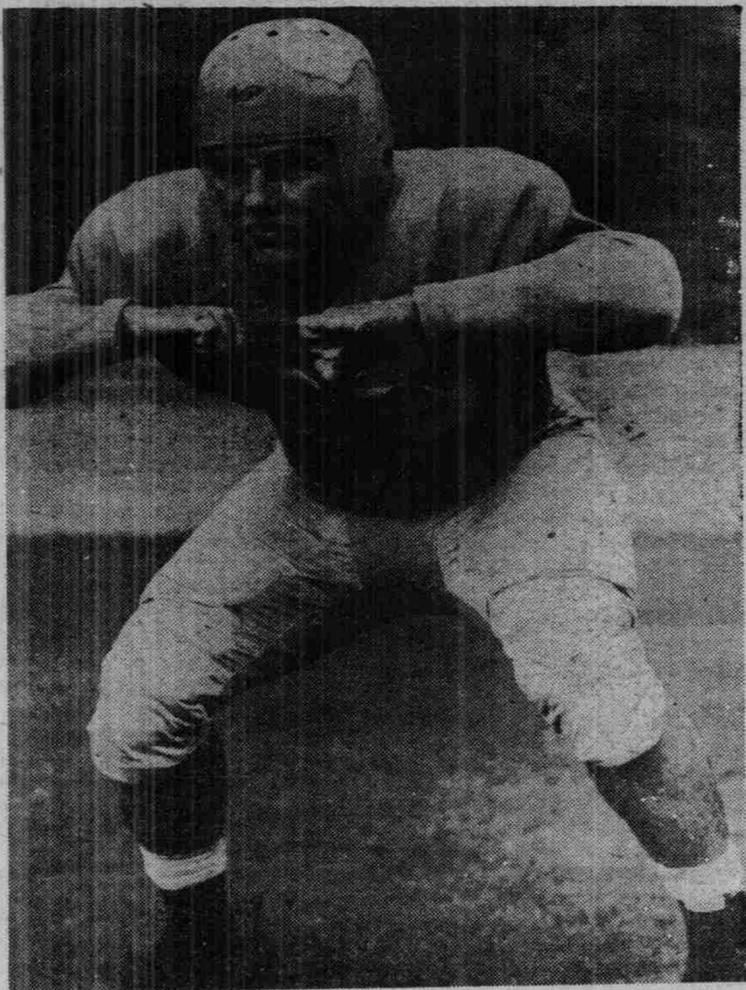

Police officials called it a mild Rebel uprising. They consented to the Carolina parade with three stipulations—that there would be no public complaint, no disturbing of the peace, and no blocking of traffic. The peace was disturbed and the traffic blocked but nobody complained about the interesting spectacle of Confederate Flags, Carolina music, and cars painted with "Merry-land Express" signs.

At the game in College Park a military atmosphere prevailed. The Carolina musicians saluted the Armed Services with Army, Navy, and Air Force tunes, while the United States Air Force Band and its world champ twirler from Bowling Field paraded during halftime. The baton expert, Maurice Wilcox, attracted the eye of Carolinians with his fancy twirling. Wilcox has won the world championship twirling competitions four times.

Also on hand were 2500 Air ROTC students from Maryland bedecked in their blue uniforms. In contrast, 10 sailors, just spectators and not representing any unit, sat together on the Carolina side.

A glittering yellow M, produced by cards moving back and forth, turned out to be the best stunt offered by the Maryland cardboard section.

During halftime, the Maryland President, Dr. H. S. Byrd, thought the 14-7 score was "too close," and speculating on a Maryland loss, said, "If we had to lose to anyone, it would have to be North Carolina." As usual, Confederate Flags were everywhere at the game and in Washington. One student draped the red and blue banner around him. A 9 x 12 flag, the largest one at the game, was said to have been brought here from the deep south "especially CO-CAPTAIN BOB (GOO GOO) GANTT scored the only touchdown yesterday against a strong Maryland team. He scored on a reverse from the four-yard line. With a few minutes remaining in the fourth quarter an attempted pass from Williams to Gantt was bad and all hopes for victory was gone. Gantt's rushing average for the day was 5 yards per try.

W&M Indians Defeat State Eleven 35-28

By Alva Stewart

RALEIGH, Oct. 20—A determined crew of William and Mary Indians that apparently did not know the meaning of the word "defeat" pushed across five touchdowns in the second half to clip a hapless N. C. State eleven 35 to 28 in Riddick Stadium this afternoon. Approximately 16,000 gridiron enthusiasts witnessed the contest, which marked the final home appearance of the current season for the Wolfpack.

The boys from West Raleigh drew first blood with six minutes remaining in the first period. Wolfpack flankman Steve Kosilla grabbed a pass from wingback Jim Moyer and raced 15 yards before being downed on the Indian 12.

Two plays later, Moyer uncorked a paydirt toss to Kosilla, and Ray Barkouskie added the extra point to give the Wolfpack a 7-0 lead.

Midway in the second quarter, State tallied again when wingback Chris Frauenhofer returned an Indian punt to the W & M 30-yard line. On the next play, the visitors from Virginia were penalized 15-yards for unnecessary tailback Ted Potts, who was clearly the offensive star for the Wolfpack, rammed into the end zone. Barkouskie converted, and State led, 14-0. The half ended with this score.

During intermission, the spectators were entertained by bands from both schools.

'Injun' mentor Marvin Bass must have given his boys a real pep talk between halves, for the Williamsburg footballers got busy in a hurry. Undaunted by two 15 yard penalties in the early minutes of the third period, the Indians roared back to tally twice in the quarter.

After Potts' punt went out-of-bounds on the W.&M. 24, the Virginians settled down to business. Quarterback Dickie Lewis lateraled to teammate Frank Lipski, who picked up several blockers and dashed 75 yards to score. Quimby Hines' placement kick was good, and the scoreboard read State 14, W.&M. 7.

Less than four minutes later, Indian Quarterback Charlie Sumner intercepted one of Potts' tosses and carried the pigskin to the midfield stripe. Soon afterward Halfback Tom Koller scampered

(See WOLFPACK Page 5)

First Victory For Maryland Over Tar Heels In 25 Years

by BILL PEACOCK

COLLEGE PARK, MD., Oct. 20—The Carolina football team blew five good chances to score in the second half enabling two first half touchdowns by Maryland to give the Terps a 14-7 victory before 31,237 fans here today.

The Terps gave a fine exhibition of offensive football in the first half and Carolina completely dominated the second half, but couldn't make a right move when they got close to the Terp goal.

* The victory was the first one by Maryland over the Tar Heels since 1926 and apparently the Terps have cleared the last obstacle between themselves and an undefeated season. They now lead the Southern Conference with a 3-0 record.

Grid Scores

35 Duke	VPI	6
27 Wake Forest	George Wash.	13
13 Alabama	Tennessee	27
7 Auburn	Ga. Tech.	27
33 Florida	Vandy	13
21 Army	Harvard	22
7 Navy	Northwestern	16
13 Boston Col.	Detroit	19
27 Boston U.	College of Pacific	12
14 Brown	Colgate	32
33 Notre Dame	Pitt	0
14 Texas A & M	TCU	20
7 Purdue	Wisconsin	31
39 Minn.	Nebraska	20
6 Tulane	Miss. U.	25
32 Indiana	Ohio State	10
0 Iowa U.	Michigan	21
16 Arkansas	Texas	14

TEAM STATISTICS

	Mary.	N.C.
First Downs	14	19
Net Yards Rushing	231	135
Net Yards Passing	78	126
Passes Attempted	16	25
Passes Completed	6	13
Passes Intercepted By	2	1
Punt Average	40	44
Yards Lost By Penalties	62	63

The Tar Heels kept their large following on its feet in the last quarter as they tried for the tying score. Carolina had a first down on the Maryland 13-yard line with 1:50 left in the game, but failed.

John Gaylord, who was easily the finest running back for the Tar Heels, gave Carolina the first down by hurdling over right guard and carrying from the 20 to the 13.

But Carolina drew a penalty for offsides on first down, moving the ball back to the 18. They tried again on first down, but were penalized back to the 30 for using hands on offense. With first down and 30 yards to go, Billy Williams passed down the right side to end Billy O'Brien on the 20, who lateraled to quarterback Van Weatherspoon who carried to the 18.

Bob Gantt made three yards in the middle of the line off the A-formation. Williams was way long on a pass in the end zone to End Bill Baker and on fourth down he tried a pass to Gantt.

Williams appeared trapped, but he jumped into the air and hit Gantt in the chest, just as he was hit from behind. The ball bounded off his chest and the Carolina hopes were dead. 35 seconds remained in the game.

The Terps started the game as though they were going to run Carolina right off the field, running the split-T formation with perfect precision. The Tar Heels went into a 3-2-1 defense and stayed in it for the rest of the game.

Maryland took only four plays to score their first touchdown. End John Alderton took Dick Wiess's short kickoff on the 19 and returned to the 21. Ed Modzelewski burst over the middle of the line to the 29 and then ran over Joe Dudeck's hole (left guard) to the 21.

The Terps were penalized for backs in motion, but got the first down anyway when Quarterback

Draft Forms Are Available To Students

Applications for the December 13, 1951, and the April 24, 1952, administrations of the College Qualification Test are now available at Selective Service System local boards throughout the country.

Eligible students who intend to be offered this test on either date should apply at once to the nearest Selective Service local board for an application and a bulletin of information.

Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application and mail it immediately in the envelope provided. Applications for the December 13, test must be postmarked no later than midnight, November 5, 1951.

According to Educational Testing Service which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test, it will be greatly to the student's advantage to file his application at once regardless of the testing date he selects.

Today's Chuckle

A story heard at police headquarters: A man was pacing the sidewalk at 3 o'clock in the morning. An officer in a prowler car stopped and asked.

Officer—What are you doing here?

Man—I forgot my key, officer. And I'm waiting for my wife to come and let me in.