

Campus Collections

by Mary Nell Boddie

It isn't too "Mary" a "land" in Tar Heelia today, but we trust that the troops up D. C. way did their Carolina best in aiding the Terrapinites to celebrate their victory.

Quite a tad of socializing was done this week in celebration of another kind of victory. Congratulations to all the sororities and fraternities on their pledge classes for fall of '51.

Pledges of Pi Kappa Phi were honored at a banquet held at Watts grill last Wednesday night. A banquet at the chapter house honored Chi Phi pledges . . . The PiKA's entertained their new pledges with dinner at the house, followed by a party . . . Sigma Chi brothers, pledges and dates journeyed to the Carolina Club for after-pledging festivities . . . General consensus of opinion . . . everyone else chose chapter house headquarters for the Wednesday night celebrations, but all the pledges were brought into the ranks in true Carolina fashion.

Following the Lambda Chi pledging ceremony, brothers and pledges serenaded around campus. First stop (for rehearsal?) was made at the ADPi house, then they serenaded their new pin-up, Jo Grogan, who wears the pin of Check Goodin.

The Chi Omega's were guests of the SAE's for dinner and a party last Thursday night.

Now wearing the white cross of Sigma Chi Lew Brown of Chattanooga is Sydney Walsh of Houston Texas. Sydney is a student at Hollins College.

The Sigma Nu's will be hosts to the Kappa Delta's on Tuesday night for a dinner party.

Jane Smith of Selma, Ala. and Salem College is the new pin-up of Phi Gam Larry Earley of Ahsokie.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Pi Kappa Phi Harold Paderick and Carolyn Barnes of Kinston. Carolyn is a student at Woman's College.

Phi Kappa Sig's have another celebration coming up this week. On Wednesday night they will hold their annual Founders' Day Banquet. Dr. James E. King of the University education department will be guest speaker.

ADPi Binny Chew of Waynesboro, Va. is engaged to John Carr of Durham.

Wedding bells department . . . Harvey Diamond, TEP of Charlotte, and Pat Rosenberg of Miami, Fla. were married in Miami on October 13. Phi Kap Dick O'Neal of Charlotte and Phyllis Wearne of the University of Florida were wed last weekend.

Headquarters for the Pi Lam's this weekend was the Statler Hotel, where brothers met alums for a reunion party. The Pi Lam's will entertain their new pledges at a party on Friday night preceding the Wake Forest game.

One of the newest organizations on campus is the Press Club, although it hasn't burst into the headlines just yet. We believe it destined for really great things. The purpose is to give the views on the newsprint world, to listen to the views of more experienced press men, and to take plenty of time out for just plain socializing. Membership is open to any and all students, and President Buddy Northart says you're most welcome any Thursday night at 7:30 in Roland Parker No. 3.

Editor of The Daily Tar Heel, Glenn Abbott Harden, and Business Manager Oliver Watkins are off to Pittsburgh this weekend, for the Associated Collegiate Press conference. This afternoon Editor Harden will be in Greensboro for the North Carolina Press Women's conference.

Chi Psi Frank Allston represented Carolina in the most elite of circles this weekend. He was spotter for the Tar Heels for the TV broadcast of the game, the first, by the way, to be televised in color.

It is the Editor in Chief's job to hand out "Orchids," but just this once we feel the need of at least flinging a few corroded roses Managing Editor Bruce Melton's way. Bruce, with little or no assistance from Al Perry and yours truly, put out this whole paper. That is real work, and if you don't believe it, try it some time. Hope all you staffers had a lovely!

Our Best To You department Heartiest sympathies to the Statler, Mayflower, Willard and Charleston and may peace be with the Club 823.

Latin Atmosphere Invades GM Today

A Brazilian atmosphere will predominate this afternoon's meeting of the Cosmopolitan Club, when a program featuring folklore of the South American country is presented.

The Club will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Rendezvous Room. Final plans for the dance to be held in cooperation with the International Club next Saturday night in Greensboro, will be discussed.

Membership in the Cosmopolitan Club is open to all students, but an especial invitation is extended by the club for foreign student members.

Choral Group Sets Program For January

Handel's "Judas Maccabaeus" is scheduled to be presented by the Chapel Hill Choral Club in conjunction with the University Symphony Orchestra in early January.

The Choral Club, which is sponsored by the music department, has as its director Joel Carter. Mr. Carter also directs the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs. Meetings are held each Monday night at 7:30 in room 108 of Hill Hall, and membership is open to all students, faculty and townspeople.

The Club has as its purpose to perform at least two of the great choral masterpieces each year. Some of the past presentations have been Bach's "Mass in B minor" and Magnificat, Haydn's "The Creation," and Mozart's "Requiem."

Officers for 1951-52 are Chairman Mrs. Wayne Bowers, Social Chairman Mrs. Joseph Straley, Chairman of the Booster Committee Mrs. Fred Varley, and Executive Secretary John Park.

The club extends an invitation to all interested students to sing with the group this year. Tenors and basses are especially needed for the presentation of "Judas Maccabaeus."

Music Faculty To Give Recital

Edgar Alden and William S. Newman, of the music department faculty, will appear in a violin and piano recital on Tuesday evening, October 30, at 8:30 o'clock in Hill Hall.

The program will include Beethoven's "Kreutzer Sonata" and Cesar Franck's "Sonata in A Major." Mr. Alden will play Bach's "Chaconne," for unaccompanied violin solo.

He formerly served as concert master of the North Carolina Symphony orchestra and of the Mozart Festival orchestra in Asheville.

Dr. Newman is the author of several books, including "The Pianist's Problems," "Thirteen Keyboard Sonatas of the 18 and 19 Centuries," and "Keyboard Sonatas by the Sons of Bach." Dr. Newman makes annual lecture-recital tours in various parts of the country.

Die Pfeifenraucher

Chancellor R. B. House has been elected into honorary membership of "Die Pfeifenraucher," the Carolina pipe-smoker's club.

Also elected as an honorary member was Theodore Danziger, manager of the Rathskellar. Officers of "Die Pfeifenraucher" for 1951 are President T. Mac Long;

Vice-President Herb Teichman; Secretary Peter Gumpert, and Treasurer James Brackett.

The club will meet tomorrow evening at 6:15 o'clock in the Tavern Cavern of the Rathskellar. Following the dinner meeting, there will be a business meeting at 7 o'clock.
