UNC Movie Premier Is Thursday

The student premiere of "In the Name of Freedom", a movie about the University, will be held at 8 p.m. on Thursday in the Rendezvous Room of Graham Memorial.

The picture, filmed in kodachrome, stars many students and faculty members. It depicts various phases of life at the University, such as student activities and class room scenes.

Last spring the film was previewed by a special advisory committee headed by Assistant to the President William C. Friday, and they suggested that it be revised. During the summer the movie was made more compact and shortened from 40 to 25 minutes.

Two years in the making, "In the Name of Freedom" was produced by the Communications Center. It was directed by Edward E. Freed, former head of the Motion Picture Division of the Communications Center.

Annual Meet Due Saturday

I. G. Greer, Executive Vice-President of the Business Foundation, announced yesterday that the annual meeting of the Board of Directors will be held Saturday at 11:00 a.m. in Gerrard Hall.

The purpose of the meeting is to elect officers for the coming year. Guest speakers for the session are Lamot du Pont Copeland, Director and Secretary of du Pont, Wilmington, Delaware, who will speak on the subject "Relations Between Small and Big Businesses" and Professor Willard Graham of the University of Chicago Executive Training Program who will talk on "Executive Development."

A buffet luncheon at the Morehead Planetarium will follow the meeting and the board members and their wives are invited to attend.

Meets Tomorrow Night

TMA Back After Year

This quarter marks the reactivation of the once powerful Town Men's Association after a year's absence from the campus scene.

With a nucleus of a small number of the 1949 group, the Association has grown to a membership of about 50 in the space of one week. By tomorrow night's meeting, a membership of 75 is expected.

The TMA is a chartered organization sanctioned by Student Government and the Student Activities Fund. Membership is open to any male student living outside dormitories, fraternity houses, or any other University building. This includes any fraternity man not living in any of the above mentioned.

Three basic functions of the TMA are: representation in campus interstudent organizations, e.g., the Dance Committee, the

Hallowe'en Parties Set By Jaycees, Alderman

Witches will ride their broom sticks, skeletons will stalk the streets, and pumpkin heads will bob tonight when the Junior Chamber of Commerce holds its Hallowe'en party in front of Fowler's Food Store and the residents of Alderman dorm hold theirs in the Alderman parlors.

At the Jaycee event there will be games, refreshments, and awards for the best costumes. The high school will furnish the music for the party and will lead a parade down town after the contest.

The party will begin at 7 p.m. and last until 8:30.

The Jaycees said that they hope the party can be held every year because it gives the children a chance to see each other in costumes and gets them home early enough to do their homework for school.

The co-chairman for the affair are Buster Ogburn and Red Altmueller. Committee chairmen for individual committees are Bob Hogan, prizes; Hanlon Murphy, games and contests; John Black, refreshments; Watts Poe, policing; Dr. Thomas Darden, judging; Joseph Philips, public address

Yack Proofs

Today, tomorrow and Friday are the final days for students to view their Yackety Yack proofs. Students must choose the picture to be placed in the class section of the yearbook. Editor Lindsey said yesterday.

All the proofs are back and ready for the students to choose. Even if you have not received a postcard, come by Roland Parker lounge 2 between the hours of one and seven o'clock.

All persons failing to choose their picture will have the picture decided by the Yack Editor placed in the yearbook.

system; and Bill Basnight, lighting.

Alderman dormitory celebrates the age old tradition of Hallowe'en from 8 'til 11 o'clock tonight in Alderman parlors. There will be ghosts, goblins, witches and all the usual Hallowe'en scare crows.

Black cats and big yellow moons will adorn the rooms. Pumpkins will shine forth from every window, making the dormitory a fitting scene for the witch craft going on inside.

On the front porch will be apple bobbing; inside a gypsy fortune teller will be predicting the future and outcome of her subjects. There will be games, dances and refreshments to add to the occasion.

A prize will be given for the most original costume. Old East and Old West dormitories have been invited to share in the fun as Alderman's special guests.

Playmakers Will Premier Three-Act Farce Tonight

Tonight at 7:30, the Playmakers will present the premiere performance of Jack Porter's three-act farce comedy, "Hospitality." The play will be presented again tomorrow night.

Fred Young, who received praise for his ingenious staging of "Down in the Valley" last season, is directing the cast of twelve players, most of whom have never appeared before in a Playmaker production.

The important role of Cal Beasley is handled by Hansford Rowe, a graduate student from Richmond, Virginia. Before discovering his talent for acting while attending the University of Richmond, he had an unusual career of driving taxis and trucks. There he hit his stride, performing in some 24 plays and being awarded the coveted Players Key. He is a veteran of the

Fall Nominations Must Be Filed By Monday

Fall election activities will officially get underway on next Monday, November 5, when all nominations for office will be due to the Elections Board, Chairman Erline Griffin yesterday announced.

Such nominations shall be made in writing and must be presented to the board by midnight.

Following this there will be a compulsory meeting of all candidates and party chairmen on Wednesday, November 7.

A copy of all literature and expense accounts of parties and individual candidates will be due to the Elections Board by 6 p.m. of the following Wednesday, November 15.

Then on Thursday, November 15, the elections will be held, with the runoffs to follow Tuesday, November 20. Expense accounts for the runoff will be due by 6 p.m. of November 19.

Any student may become a candidate for office provided that he submits a petition signed by 25 qualified voters and by himself along with a certification of his grades showing that he is eligible to run for office, she said.

Student candidates who wish to be indorsed by the non-partisan selection board for the vacant seats on Men and Women's Councils should appear before that group, she added.

Nominations for the Coed Senate are made entirely by signed petition for the four at-large seats now open.

Offices to be filled in the election are as follows: Legislature Seats, Dorm men one, seven one-year terms and two six-month terms; Dorm men two, five one-year and 4 six month terms; Town men one, four year terms; Town men two, four one-year terms and two six-month terms; Dorm women one, three one-year and two six-month terms; Town women, two one-year terms.

Also to be elected are freshman class officers; junior class officers; three men's seats to the student council; two juniors, a sophomore and a freshman to the Men's Council; three juniors to the Women's Council; four juniors to the Coed Senate; and a senior class social chairman.

Men's dorm district one is composed of Stacy, Graham, Aycock, Lewis, Everett, Alexander, and A and B dormitories. Voting for this district shall be in Aycock or Alexander.

Budget Statute Declared Void

The budget bill passed by the Student Legislature last Thursday night was declared unconstitutional early yesterday morning by the Student Council.

The reason given by the Council for the action was that "this law providing funds to a student publication under conditions the setting of which are beyond the powers granted to the Student Legislature in Article 1, section 4, sub-section b, of the Student Constitution."

Also in the statement from the Council was a clarification of the duties of the Attorney General. The Attorney General had given his opinion as a ruling on the bill which under the duties of his office carried no official sanction but was to act only as his interpretation to the parties concerned.

Farber Gone; Show Goes On

"The show must go on," exclaimed Editor Sue Lindsey yesterday when queried about the Yack Beauty Contest. "It seems the chairman, Barry Farber, has given up the beauty for the beast," she added.

He is in Yugoslavia at a conference sponsored by Marshall Tito.

All organizations sponsoring a contestant for the Beauty Contest are urged to send in the names and entry fees for each contestant. The deadline for the name and fee is November 1.

This information can either be mailed in care of Editor Sue Lindsey, Box 987, or can be brought to the Yackety Yack Office, 204 Graham Memorial.
