

Tar Heel Booters Down Duke, 3-2

Late Score By Russell Saves Game

By Ken Barton

A goal scored in the midway mark of the fourth period by Freshman Center Forward Gerry Russell enabled an inspired Carolina soccer team to win, 3-2, here yesterday over one of the best Duke teams seen in several years.

Eddie Foy, playing his usual steady and brilliant game, scored in the opening two minutes of play on a ball that rebounded off Otis Zavertnik, Duke Goalie.

Duke tied the ball game up at the 7:20-minute mark of the opening period as Fernando Almeida headed a cornerkick past Ben Tison, Carolina goal tender.

Almeida scored late in the second quarter from the right side to put the Blue Devils ahead at the half. But Carolina came back in the second half and out-played Duke, beating them to the ball and finally tying the game up when Fred Lurie, substitute right wing placed a beautiful kick through the goal on a pass from "Red" Montgomery.

The tension began to mount in one of the most exciting soccer games witnessed here in a couple of years and finally, with but 10 minutes left in the game, "Old Reliable" Eddie Foy took the ball down the right side and passed to Russell. Russell tapped the ball past John Ost, substitute goalie for Duke, who slid into the Carolina center forward in an attempt to break up the play.

With Duke pressing hard and a slight rain beginning to fall Carolina played a great game and displayed a great deal of team spirit to preserve the victory. Led by Buddy Sawyer, who played one of the best games of his career, the Tar Heels were able to beat off a late Duke rally. Also playing steady games for Carolina were: Fullbacks Barry Kalb and Bernie Burnstan, Halfbacks (See BOOTERS, Page 4)

Barden, Hamrick Lead UNC Over Duke Harriers, 22-36

(Special to The Daily Tar Heel) DURHAM—Oct. 30—Bob Barden and Gordon Hamrick took first place for the Tar Heels here today as the Carolina cross country team handed Duke its third straight loss, 22-36.

The victory was the third of the year for Carolina which had previously beaten Richmond and Davidson and had lost to State and Maryland. The Blue Devils had been beaten by State and Tennessee.

Barden and Hamrick did the three and nine-tenths mile course in 20:50, finishing 30 yards ahead of the first Duke man, Bob Marshall, who was clocked in 20:58. Bob Webb, timed in 21:04, was fourth and Tom Sanders and John Tate, both of Duke, tied for fifth and sixth with 21:15.

Barden and Hamrick took the lead from the first and were threatened by Marshall only once. Barden led most of the way, but slowed at the end and came across the finish with Hamrick who exhibited a good kick. Marshall finished about 10 yards ahead of the fourth place Webb

The meet was clinched for the Tar Heels when Tony Houghton took seventh and Morris Osborne and Mike Healy tied for eighth to give Carolina an 18-point margin of victory.

Coach Dale Ranson of Carolina

after the meet said, "It was a real team victory. The boys got out and hustled and split the Duke men up for the win."

The meet was originally scheduled to be a simultaneous one, involving varsity and junior varsity teams of the two schools, but the Duke Jayvees withdrew. Carolina then ran several men for unofficial times and Al Marx did the course in 21:26, which would have been good for seventh place, had he been an official entry. Ed Vogel, another unofficial entry, was just beaten by Raimondo, of Duke who was 12th. Vogel was timed in 21:53.

The Carolina harriers have their toughest meet of the year Saturday morning when they race Tennessee here. The Vols are led by John Trent, one of the South's best milers, and Alf Holmberg, a top candidate for the Swedish Olympic team.

1. Barden (C) and Hamrick (C) tie 20:50; 3. Marshall (D) 20:58; 4. Webb (C) 21:04; 5. Sanders (D) and Tate (D) tie 21:15; 7. Houghton (C) 21:29; 8. Osborne and Healy (C) tie 21:41; 10. Raimondo (D) 21:52; 12. Russell (D) 22:27.

Battered Tar Heels Meet Nation's Top Ranked Team

Carolina's Tar Heels are bearing down in practice in preparation for their game with first-ranked Tennessee in Kenan Stadium this Saturday, after absorbing a 39-7 walloping from Wake Forest last week.

The Vols will field an offensive team that has lost but three members from last year, all the graduates being linemen. Hank Lauricella, triple-threat tailback in Coach Bob Neyland's balanced line-single wing, will be back to lead Tennessee, victors over Carolina for the past two seasons.

Tennessee is undefeated this season, and has won fifteen straight games since it was upset 7-0 by Mississippi State last season. The Vols were rated as best in the nation last year, and reached the top this year after beating Alabama two weeks ago. They rolled over Tennessee Tech, 68-0, last week, and will probably be free from injuries for the Tar Heels.

Carolina went through a long workout yesterday afternoon, and may scrimmage today.
