Don't know that we'll be "waltzing" after tomorrow's game, but regardless the troops seem to be prepared to face any and all of the Tennesseans—on partying grounds that is.

Festivities will begin with the Johnny Long concert this afternoon and dance tonight, but tomorrow on the day of wrecking—reckoning, the parties will commence.

Hallowe'en and all its trimmings will prevail in the Phi Kappa Sig bar tomorrow night, when brothers and dates have a costume party. Decorations for the annual fall houseparty will include a straw covered floor, corn shocks, and pumpkins. Buffet dinner will be served preceding the party. Phi Kap brothers serenaded Jerry Galanides new pin-up Ann Mackie on Monday night, and then gathered at Glen Lennox for a similar tribute to the former Jo Sides. Jo recently married Roger Jennings of Greensboro. Next Thursday the Phi Kaps will have the Kappa Delta's as their guests. Following dinner, there will be a bridge tournament, community singing, and skits.

The Club Sirloin will be headquarters for the Kappa Sig tomorrow night. Tonight they've planned a jam session immediately following the dance.

The Lambda Chi's will travel to Burlington after the game for a party at Neil Thompson's cabin. On Tuesday night the brothers are having a dessert-coffee for the ADPI's.

Brothers of Phi Delta Chi and dates are to convene in Durham tomorrow night for a Hallowe'en party at Duke.

The Phi Gam's celebrated Hallowe'en by entertaining the Pi Phi's on Tuesday night.

Hogan's was the scene of a beer-baseball party Tuesday given by the Sigma Chi's for the Tri-Delta. The Sigma Chi's will party at the Carolina Club tomorrow night.

The Pi Phi's were guests of the KA's last week. Sunday afternoon the chapter will have coffee hour for the law and med schools. On Tuesday night they will visit the ATO's for dinner and a party.

The ATO's are the occupants of Lloyd's barn for a party tomorrow night. Barbara Beverly is the new pin-up of ATO. Stan is that of brother Bill Schrogo, '49 grad now at Lackland Air Field, and Florette Reyer of Columbia, S.C. Bill is from Goldsboro.

The PiKa's were hosts to the Chi Omegas last night for a dinner which was followed by a party at the Carolina Club. Tonight they are having a breakfast at the chapter house following the dance. Tomorrow night they journey to Clearwater Lake for an after-game celebration.

The KA's send word they will be partying at the KA summer plantation this weekend. Hope there will be a lot of "Roses" around.

Breakfast for Deke brothers and dates will follow the dance tonight. Tomorrow after the game they will party at the Carolina Club. On Sunday afternoon there will be a cocktail party.

Cash's cabin will be the scene of Delta Sig partying tomorrow night. A banquet at the Carolina Inn is planned for next Tuesday, when the fraternity will celebrate Founder's Day.

Pinned are Martha Byrd of Morganton and Alpha Chi Sigma Skip Hoyle of Chapel. Martha is president of the Independent Coed Board and a senior at the University.

A barbecue dinner at Turnage's in Durham is on schedule for members of Phi Alpha Delta fraternity tomorrow following the game.

The ADPI's were guests of the Chi Psi's for dinner and partying last night. The Chi Psi's are holding their annual fall houseparty this weekend. Tonight they are setting up headquarters at Lloyd's barn. Tomorrow night there will be an informal dance at the lodge.

Music will be furnished by Doodles Minton and his band. Announcement is made of the engagement of Chi Psi President Lew Chapman and Joyce Krahenbuhl. Both are from Union N.J.

Socializing at the Beta house will be done a la champagne tonight, and a combo is scheduled for listening purposes tomorrow night.

SPE Robert Bailey of Washington, D.C. is pinned to Helen Seifert. Helen is a student at Mary Washington College.

Pledges of Sigma Chi were honored at a banquet held in the Carolina Inn last week immediately following the dance.

Weekend festivities will begin tonight with dinner at the chapter house to be followed by a party at Perry's Cabin. Tomorrow morning there will be a combined party and brunch at the house preceding the game.

Tomorrow night there will be a formal banquet and dance held at the Washington Duke Hotel in Durham. After the dance brothers, pledges, and dates will return to the chapter house for a breakfast and party. At this time skits will be presented by the pledges. Dates for the weekend will receive gold necklaces with the Greek-letter ensignia of the fraternity on them. At the dance, dates were presented dance cards printed in lavender and white, the fraternity's colors.

Following Sunday lunch, a cocktail party will be held at the chapter house.

More than 130 persons are expected for the festivities.

In charge of houseparty arrangements is Norman Goldin.
