(4) where all testimony to be heard by the court has been completed and the court retires to deliberate among itself for the purpose of reaching a verdict.

Unanimous agreement of the entire membership of the court shall be mandatory to make valid any of the above listed exceptions.

Submitting the bill last night were Bob Clampitt Di Senate president and Sheldon Plager, who introduced it to the legislature.

Also submitted last night was a bill by Robert Pace (SP) to provide for reconstitution of the legislative districts to separate town men and fraternity men.

Cook Asks Amendment

A constitutional amendment presented to the Legislature last night by Gene Cook (SP) will be considered in a special session on Monday night at 7:15. It is designed to curtail the "excessive" powers of the Publications Board.

The amendment asks that the words "apportionment among the Student Publications" be thrown out and amended to read, "and distribution in accordance with the budget established by the Student Legislature." As it stands now, the Constitution reads, (Article I, Section 4) the legislature shall have power "to appropriate funds for student publications (provided that the total funds for publications shall be allotted to the Publications Board for apportionment," etc.

Would Limit Board

The bill also would take away the power of the board to control the expenditure of all publications funds."

The bill says:

"The recent interpretation by the Student Council regarding power of the Publications Board over publications has given the Board powers which it was not originally intended to have and the constitutionally delegated power of the Legislature as the supreme legislative authority with supreme authority over the appropriation of student funds has, in practicality, been limited insofar as power over appropriations to campus publications . . ."

If passed the bill would be submitted to the student body on November 20 for ratification.

Budget Bill Passed

In other business, the Legislature passed a budget revision bill, similar to the one passed several weeks ago, and allotting The Daily Tar Heel $4000.
