

Backs Play Ends But To No Avail

Snavelly Attempts In Vain To Rejuvenate Tar Heels

by Bill Peacock

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 10—Coach Carl Snavelly of the Carolina team tried a couple of backs at end today in an attempt to rejuvenate his Tar Heels, but the effort went for nothing as the hard-running Virginia Cavaliers blasted Carolina, 34-14, for its fourth straight loss here today before 25,000 fans in Scott Stadium.

Snavelly attempted to solve the offensive end problem by playing Bud Wallace at left and Tom Adler, a sophomore from Leonia, N. J. at right end. Adler, who didn't figure in the Tar Heel plans

STATISTICS

	Va.	UNC
First Downs	25	20
Rushing Yardage	309	18
Passing Yardage	138	100
Passes Attempted	22	16
Passes Completed	12	10
Passes Intercepted By	2	1
Punts	4	6
Punting Average	37.2	39.5
Fumbles Lost	1	1
Yards Penalized	45	27

this year and isn't listed in the program, was a reserve fullback on the freshman squad last year.

The experiment was somewhat successful with Wallace catching three of four passes thrown at him for 37 yards. The fourth he tipped into the hands of Bob Tata who carried to the Carolina 46 and the start of another touchdown. Adler caught all three passes thrown at him for 22 yards.

The Cavaliers ripped the Carolina defensive line for 309 yards rushing, but their first three touchdowns came on 3 passes, two of them by quarterback Rufus Barkley. The Cavaliers got "only" 138 yards passing, but the completions came at times when the gains were needed.

The Tar Heels just didn't have the team to match the Cavaliers and the game was never in doubt. The two Carolina touchdowns were made after Virginia had rung up its six scores and had the reserve in. Frank Wissman, who ran better than usual today, scored the first from the two yard and Dick Wiess burst over right guard for a 12 yard touchdown at the end of the game for the other score.

Five different players scored for the Cavaliers in a rout that was just as convincing as last year's 44-13 debacle. All of the speedy Virginia backs ripped the Carolina line with Little getting 99 yards on 16 carries to lead all backs. Wissman was tops for Carolina with 60 yards in 10 carries. Wiess was the only other Carolina back to have any success running and got 50 yards in 10 cracks at the line. Jerry Furst showed the most power for the Cavalier backs and made 69 yards in 11 carries.

A beautiful coffin corner kick by Harold Hoak which went out of bounds on the Carolina one got the Cavaliers started on their first score. Wallace punted back to the Virginia 44 and Jim Lesane carried the punt back to the Carolina 46. Barkley ended the drive with a two yard pass to end Bill Chisholm in the end zone.

Barkley ran and passed The Cavaliers in three plays for a first

UNC Booters Conquered By Penn State

(Special to The Daily Tar Heel)

College Station, Pa., Nov. 9—A powerful Penn State soccer team exhibited a superb passing attack and excellent ball control here this afternoon to stun the once-beaten Tar Heels from U.N.C. by a score of 6-0. Approximately 750 spectators saw Penn State score once in the first period, twice in the second and third quarters, and once more in the final period.

All-American Ron Coleman and left wingman Jack Penn starred for Penn State, while Barry Kalb played well for the Tar Heels. Fred Dalie, substituting for the injured Ben Tison, also performed creditably for Carolina.

Coleman tallied three times for the winners, with teammates Penzich and Shirk also scoring.

The Tar Heels will remain in Yankeeland until Monday, when they meet the strong University of Pennsylvania team.

Coaches Submit Articles To Mags

Marvin Allen, University soccer coach and Physical Education professor now on leave of absence, is the author of an article on soccer in the current issue of "Boys' Life" magazine.

Allen has been recalled to active duty and is now serving as a Lieutenant Commander in the Navy.

Assistant football coach Bob Cox also has an article published this month. His feature on defensive end play is in the November issue of "Southern Coach and Athlete" magazine.

Johnny Clements, a former Tar Heel football star and a fellowship coach here last year, has an article in "Southern Coach and Athlete" this month. His story concerns pass defense as an offensive weapon. He is currently coaching at Whiteville high school.

Deacons Overpower Weak Duke Blue Devils, 19-13

by Alva Stewart

Duke Stadium, Nov. 10—The Wake Forest Demon Deacons struck quickly for three second quarter touchdowns to hand the Duke Blue Devils their third setback of the current season by a score of 19-13 here this afternoon. Some 40,000 gridiron fans saw Coach Bill Murray's eleven make a valiant comeback in the third period, when they shoved across two scores.

After a scoreless first chapter in which the Blue Devils penetrated deep into Deacon territory but failed to tally, the Baptists got busy. Starting on the Duke 43, the boys from Baptist Hollow moved swiftly to the Duke 21. Then quarterback Ed Kissel heaved a spiralling pass to Steve Ondilla, who was in the end zone. Sonny George converted.

Minutes later, Baptist halfback Dickie Davis intercepted a Duke aerial, and once more the Deacs scored, this time on a handoff from Davis to fullback Bill Miller. That made it 13-0, but Tom Rogers' charges were not satisfied. Bill George leaped on a fumble by Blue Devil Jerry Barger on the Duke 33. Once again Miller rammed over for the score. George's kick was blocked, and the half ended with the Baptists leading, 19-0.

For Prompt Radio & TV Service

CALL 2-3497

FREE Pick-up and Delivery BEST'S Radio-TV REPAIR

412 W. FRANKLIN ST.

The SHAPE that SHOOK the WORLD!

Men followed her...
women envied her...
the police chased her!

...WHEN SHE ROCKED THE GREAT CHICAGO WORLD'S FAIR!
WITH THAT HOOCHY-KOOCHY DANCE!

LITTLE
EGYPT

COLOR BY TECHNICOLOR

Starring

MARK STEVENS * RHONDA FLEMING

with NANCY GUILD • CHARLES DRAKE • Story by OSCAR BRODNEY • DORIS GILBERT
Directed by FREDERICK de CORDOVA • Produced by JACK GROSS • A UNIVERSAL-INTERNATIONAL PICTURE

Varsity

STARTS TODAY
For 3
Thrilled-Pecked Days

Specials FOR MONDAY

OXFORD CLOTH-WIDE SPREAD
WHITE SHIRTS

can be used as dress
or sport shirts

$3.95

Regular $5.00 Value

Bills mailed home

THE Sport SHOP
N. COLUMBIA ST

WANT MORE THAN YOUR MONEY'S WORTH?

come to

MICHAEL'S
GRILL

Home Cooking—Good Food

Opposite Post Office