Foreign Policy Will Be Topic Of Taft Speech

Senator Robert A. Taft, Republican Presidential candidate, will speak on "American Foreign Policy," in Memorial Hall on November 27, 28, and 29, it was announced by Dr. Gordon W. Blackwell, chairman of the committee on Established Lectures. These addresses will be this year's Weil Lectures on Citizenship.

The specific topics for each night will be, "Objectives of American Foreign Policy," "Powers of the President and Congress in Foreign Policy," and "A Proper Foreign Policy for the United States."

The University will be host to Senator Taft at a dinner on the evening of November 28.

This will be the Senator's third official visit to Chapel Hill. He spoke in Memorial Hall in February, 1940, under the sponsorship of the Carolina Political Union. He also addressed a luncheon session at the Carolina Inn in 1948 while on a campaign tour in behalf of the then Republican Presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey.

The Weil Lectures were endowed 37 years ago by the families of Sol and Henry Weil of Goldsboro, and the first lecturer was the late President William Howard Taft, father of Senator Taft.

Last winter's lecturer was Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, noted economist, author, and lecturer. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt delivered the Weil lectures in 1950.

2 Candidates Don't Attend Mass Meeting

Two candidates out of a field of 126 failed to attend the compulsory meeting of all candidates required by law last night.

They were Bill Rue (UP), and Curtis Meltzer (SP). Both are candidates for one year terms in the Legislature from Town Men's District II.

They may be reinstated if they give an acceptable excuse for failing to attend the meeting or pay a $1 fine by 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Erline Griffin, chairman of the Elections Board, reminded all candidates that the expense accounts for their campaigns must be turned over to her by 6 p.m. Monday before the elections.

Failing to submit an itemized statement of expenses will result in disqualification of the candidate of the payment of a $10 fine.

Unopposed in the election, although their names will appear on the ballot, are Grevida Snider, graduate seat on the Women's Council, and Ot Oettinger, treasurer of the WAA.

The election laws and the procedure of the coming elections was explained to the 126 candidates present for the meeting last night.

Real Surprises Promised For Grail Dance Saturday

"We're convinced that this will be the best dance of the year", said Joe Privott, chairman of the Grail committee in charge of dance arrangements for the gala dance to be held in Woollen Gymnasium Saturday night after the Notre Dame game.

On hand to furnish the music for the final Grail Dance of the fall season will be the Duke Ambassadors, the only college band in this area to be listed in "Who's Who in American Music." In addition, Joe Privott said, "We have some real surprises lined up." He would not elaborate on what the surprises are, but said that he would announce the complete plans tomorrow.

As usual, the dance will be strictly informal. Beginning at 9:00 o'clock, it will run until midnight. The usual prices will be in effect: stags, 75 cents and couples, one dollar.

Head Cheerleader Minett To Resign—Throat Ailment

Cy Minett, head cheerleader, will resign his post today because of throat trouble, The Daily Tar Heel learned yesterday.

Minett will give President Henry Bowers an official statement and will recommend Durwood "Nose" Jones, law student, to succeed him.

Minett has been advised by infirmary doctors to quit his yelling activities or suffer severe consequences. Even when he joined the squad in the spring of 1950 he was warned to take it easy. Recently, he had two bad cases of strep throat and was forced to give up cheering midway in the Tennessee game. At Charlottesville, he turned over his duties to Jones.

ville, he turned over his duties to Jones.

On Monday mornings while in his public speaking class, his professor has cited him for his poor speaking voice. Minett, elected to the top cheering job last spring on a doubly endorsed ticket, will continue to work with the squad and the University Club for the remaining two football games.

"I want to thank the student body for their cooperation and I hope the Carolina spirit will continue to run high with Durwood," Minett commented.

Other cheerleaders wanted Minett to stay as head cheerleader with Jones taking over the major chores, but Minett thought it better for the school if he officially resigned. Jones, a law student, has been cheering in the last few games. One observer has called his cheering "the best I've seen since Kay Kyser."

In the spring elections of 1950 Jones lost out to Joe Chambliss by a 37 vote margin. He had been "retired" from the cheerleading scene until Minett asked him to help-out this fall.

Dismissal Cleared

Dr. James W. Murdoch, superintendent of Butner Mental Hospital, in a letter to Duncan Brackin explained that "the State reserves to itself the right to dispense with the services of any employee . . . without reason."

Brackin said he was dismissed because "he tried to restrain the supervisor . . . who threw a patient on the floor and began beating him."

University Party

The University Party will meet tonight at 7 o'clock in Roland Parker 2. All candidates are urged to attend.

Amendments To End Senate, Curb PB, Pass

Meeting last night in a special session the Student Legislature passed bills which would amend the student constitution to (1) abolish the Coed Senate and (2) curb the powers of the Publications Board.

The amendments will be submitted to the student body for approval or disapproval in the upcoming November 20 election.

The publications bill, introduced by Student Party Legislator Gene Cook, would return the supreme authority over appropriations to the Legislature, and would in effect nullify the recent decision of the Student Council which, according to the text of the proposed resolution, gave the board "powers which it was not originally intended to have and . . . limited (the student legislature) insofar as power over appropriations to campus publications is concerned."

Funeral Rites Held Today For Prince

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock for William Meade Prince, famed illustrator and author who killed himself at his home here Saturday morning.

The 58-year-old artist died after firing a bullet into his temple in the studio of his Greenwood Drive home, Allen H. Walker of Hillsboro, Orange County coroner, ruled following the death. Walker said ill health apparently caused Prince to kill himself.

Prince, a native Virginian, moved to Chapel Hill at the age of five. He is the author of "The Southern Part of Heaven" a book about Chapel Hill and did illustrating work for several leading magazines.

Eisenhower, Taft Battle Splits States

(Special to The Daily Tar Heel) The prospect of a battle between Sen. Taft and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the GOP presidential nomination appeared today to have split several state Republican organizations wide open.

Although Eisenhower has made no public announcement that he is available, he already has developed strong support among Republican National Committee members, state chairman and governors in every section of the country.

Taft, an announced candidate, led the general 42 to 25 among party officials willing to express their preference for a nominee in a weekend Associated Press poll. Significantly, perhaps, 80 officials said they either hadn't made up their minds or wouldn't disclose their decision.

In the same group of GOP workers, totaling 147, 54 believe Eisenhower will become a candidate and 24 do not. Sixty nine didn't want to guess one way or the other.

The Taft and Eisenhower strength overlapped in some cases and threatened stiff state battles if the general becomes an avowed candidate.

(The Council ruled a $4,000 appropriation of the legislature unconstitutional because it was made with the stipulation that the sum be used for an eight column standard size newspaper, and also gave the board supreme authority in publications matters which are both financial and administrative.)

Under Cook's amendment the board would lose its power to "control the expenditure of all publications funds." Such funds would be "distributed in accordance with the allocations to the individual publications as established by the student legislature."

Prior to the bill's passage last night the words "budget" in the bill were amended to read "allocations" in order to give the various publications more flexibility within their individual budgets. The various publications, however, could not continue to borrow from each other to make up for deficits. This would require legislative action, whereas in the past the Board has had the power to "ball" the various publications out of debt.

The Coed Senate bill, written and introduced by Peggy "PJ" Warren, (SP) would dissolve the Senate and establish a Women's Residence Council "for the purpose of . . . (See LEGISLATURE, Page 3)

Di Senate To Debate Presidency

A Bill drafting General Eisenhower for President will be debated when the Di Senate holds its regular meeting tonight at 8:30 in its chambers on the third floor of New East. Preceding this regular session, an executive session will be held at 8:00. This will consist of members and conditional members. The regular session at 8:30 is open to the public.

The bill to be introduced reads: "Whereas, there is a great lack of capable leadership in the Government today, and

Whereas, General Eisenhower has the experience equalled by no other leader in this country,

Therefore, be it resolved by the Dialectic Senate of the University of North Carolina;

Article I: General Eisenhower be drafted by both the Republican and Democratic Parties for the nomination of President of the United States."
