With eyes hopefully focused on recovering the Victory Bell, the Tar Heels will stage their annual

Campus Group Presents Show For Dukesters

The usual Tar Heel hospitality was amplified on Sunday night, when a delegation of campus performers traveled to Durham to appear on the Duke University Community Sing program.

Community Sing is held each Sunday night at 8 o'clock in the Woman's Auditorium on East Campus. The programs consist of skits, song and dance routines, and singing with audience participation.

At the invitation of Duke Men's Student Government Association President Al Raywid, six Carolina students were guests entertainers for this week's program.

Bob Levi was master of ceremonies for the University entertainers. Appearing on Carolina's portion of the program were Carl Vipperman, a member of the Bell-tone quintet; Burt Edwards, accompanist; Lynwood Sills, accordionist; Skip Mann, comedian; and Bob Daye, impersonator.

Sills appeared on the Horace Height show last year, and Daye has performed over WFMY-TV in Greensboro.

The program was closed with the singing of the Carolina and Duke alma maters. "Hark The Sound" was the first of the two to be sung, of course.

"Beat Dook" parade this afternoon and the Queen of the festivities will be crowned.

But first we'd like to complete the round-up of last weekend's social happenings.

Alpha Gam's and dates were guests of Helen Adams' cousin, Harry A. deButts on Saturday for a cocktail party and luncheon in his private railroad car in Durham. Mr. deButts is vice-president of the Southern Railroad. Last Wednesday the Alpha Gam house-mother, Mrs. Frankie Dowling, entertained for the new pledge class. Thursday night the Sigma Nu's entertained the Alpha Gam's at the Club Sirloin. Tonight the Alpha Gam's will be the guests of the Theta Chi's at the Carolina Club.

Last Wednesday the Tri-Delt pledges were hostesses to pledges of all campus sororities for a party at the chapter house. A South Sea Island theme was used. On Friday night Tri-Delts and dates traveled to Durham for a dinner party. Saturday morning brunch was served at the house for actives, pledges and dates.

Yesterday the Tri-Delts observed Founder's Day and held their annual banquet at the Carolina Inn.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Chi Omega Ruth Edgerton of Goldsboro to Bill Boyer, Beta of Charlotte.

Tonight the Pi Phi's will be guests of the Zeta Psi's for dinner at the chapter house and a party at the Carolina Club.

The ADPi's were guests of the KA's for a party last Tuesday.

Tonight the ATO's will be hosts to the ADPi's for dinner and a party.

The KA's partied in their new bar Friday night, and journeyed to their Southern Plantation for Saturday night festivities.

Alums of Beta Theta Pi were guests for luncheon on Saturday. Brothers and dates chose Durham for after-game socializing.

Guests of the ATO's on November 6 were the Pi Phi's. Dinner was served at the chapter house and a party followed.

The Alpha Kappa Psi's entertained alums with buffet supper and a party at the chapter house.

Last Friday the Deke's gave a surprise birthday party for brother Sonny Hobb, complete with birthday cake and decorations. Hours for the social were 3 until 5 p.m.

On Thursday night, the pledges of Phi Gam held their annual smoker for pledges of all other campus fraternities.

The '51 grads were special guests at the Phi Delta Chi house this weekend. On Saturday night actives also honored pledges, with a party at the chapter house.
