Press Club

The UNC Press Club will meet tonight at 7:30 because of the Thanksgiving holidays. The program has been arranged by Leo (Buddy) Northart, Rollo Taylor, and Mac White. The Club will return to its regular Thursday meeting next week.

Library Hours

The Library has announced the hours for the Thanksgiving week-end. Wednesday the reserve and general departments will open at 7:45 and the circulation department will open an hour later. All departments will close at 5:00 p.m.

Thursday, Friday, and Saturday the Library will be open from 9-4, and Sunday it will be closed all day.

Advertising Man To Speak

A. T. Preyer, chairman of Morse International Advertising Agency of New York, will speak Tuesday night in Gerrard hall at 7:30. The subject of his talk will be "After College—What?"

Preyer was one of the first employees of the Vick Chemical company, and served for twenty five years as an officer and director of the firm. He was formerly chairman of the Association of National Advertisers and also served as chairman of the Advertising Federation of America. In addition, he was president of the Advertising Club of New York at Kappa at Duke. Recently, he has been a professor of advertising at N.Y.U.

His address is being sponsored by Alpha Lambda chapter of Delta Sigma Pi, national business administration fraternity, for two years.

During his school days, Preyer was a member of Delta Sigma Pi at New York University and an honorary member of Omicon Del-

Bob (Goo Goo) Gantt, Carolina wingback, was not only one of the Tar Heel's most consistent runners last fall but he was one of the squad's best pass receivers. He nailed 16 passes for 157 yards.

C.C. Poindexter, Jr., another backfield aspirant, is the son of a former Tar Heel Ace. He's from Canton.
