

Betas Top DKEs For Frat Grid Title

Campus Finals With Medics Held Today

Beta Theta Pi No. 1 defeated Delta Kappa Epsilon No. 1, 7-0, yesterday to win the fraternity division tag football championship and will play the Med School, dorm division champs today at 4:15 on the intramural field for the campus crown.

A second half touchdown pass from fullback Pott Burton to right halfback Sam Blythe, good for 20 yards, gave the Betas the championship. The play started from the DKE 30 with Burton pitching out to Dale Thomas who passed back down the middle 10 yards to Burton who passed to Blythe in the end zone. Thomas place kicked the extra point.

The DKEs threatened three times, but were stopped on the five, eight, and ten yard lines. Blythe intercepted a DKE pass in his own end zone to halt the last DKE scoring opportunity. Backs Clem Wright, Dave Allen, and Marsden deRosset led the DKE offense.

The Betas whipped Chi Psi, and Zeta Psi to reach the finals, while the DKEs beat Sigma Chi and Pi Kappa Phi to gain the finals.

Med School No. 3 won the right to represent the dorm division by whipping Victory Village, 7-6, in the final round. Previously the medics had defeated the Law School. The Med School team is led by Bo Roddey, former conference tennis champion from Davidson.

Tau Epsilon Phi and Phi Gamma Delta will play today at 4 p.m. in Woollen Gym for the fraternity volleyball championship. The winner will play B Dorm for the campus championship on Wednesday.

Joe Dudeck On SC Team

Joe Dudeck, a senior from Hazelton, Pa. and captain of the Carolina football team, was named as left guard on the United Press All-Southern Conference team.

The low slung 190-pound Dudeck was the leading man in Carolina's defense this season. This was the second year that he has made All-Southern Conference team. He was also leading a pre-season candidate for All-America honors.

Georgia Swimmers Top Carolina, State

by Art Greenbaum

Playing host to a new and powerful group of swimming stars, Carolina's tankmen took the back seat at the fourth annual Thanksgiving Swimming meet on Thursday and Friday.

Although no team score was kept, the University of Georgia team copped top honors in the majority of the events. The Southeastern Conference Champions swept eight of 14 first places while the Tar Heels shared the runner-up spot with North Carolina State.

Nine new meet records, four by the Bulldogs and three by Carolina, were set during the course of the two-day swim event. Two of these records were held by former Tar Heel Jimmy Thomas.

Thursday evening saw Charles Cooper of Georgia open the meet by splashing to a new record in the 50-yard freestyle. In the next event, Cooper's team mate, Bill Patterson splashed to the finish line ahead of Carolina's Warren Heeman and Smith Jewell in the 200-yard backstroke.

State's Paul Arata established a new mark in the 200-yard breaststroke in the time of 2:26.7. The old mark was also held by Arata. Steve Mitakias won both the high and low board diving events as he edged Carolina's Joe Kelso.

State's sensational freshman, who promises to be one of the Tar Heels' main threats this season, broke Thomas' record in the 220-yard freestyle by touching out the local's Donnie Evans. Both swimmers bettered Thomas' mark.

The final event on Thursday saw Carolina's quartet of Evans, Kirby Ambler, Stan Tinkham, and Buddy Heins splash to victory and a new record in the 400-yard freestyle relay.

Charles Cooper of Georgia opened Friday's session by establishing a new mark in the 100-yard freestyle. Bill Patterson captured his second win of the meet as he swept first spot in the 100-yard backstroke.

The closest race of the meet was the 100-yard breaststroke where Georgia's Charlie Guyer edged Arata and the Tar Heel's Barry Wall and Put Davis. All four swimmers were less than one second apart.

Donnie Evans won the 440-yard freestyle as he broke Thomas' old mark set in 1949. Cecil Milton was third behind Virginia's Chick Hallock. State's Bob Mattson came from behind to defeat team mate Arata in the 150-yard individual medley to capture his second first place.

Georgia won the 300-yard medley relay in record time as the Bulldog trio of Patterson, Guyer, and Cooper bested Carolina's "A" team.

The Tar Heels came right back to win the final event, the 200-yard freestyle relay.
