

Campus Collections

by Mary Nell Boddie

The words "For Whom The Bell Tolls" take on a new meaning this week, as some 6,000 Tar Heels mournfully remember that next Saturday wrings in that dreaded week of wreck-ning.

But festivities didn't come to a screeching halt this weekend, the troops chose to party to the bitter end, in order to properly usher out the fall quarter.

ADPI's and dates traveled en masse to the Saddle Club for dinner and socializing on Friday night. Last Monday the ADPI's were guests of the Kappa Sigs for dinner at the chapter house and a party at the Carolina Club. Following the chapter party Friday night, one of the ADPI's came into the engaged ranks. Nancy Dixon of Charleston, W. Va., is engaged to Irving Gower of Greenville. Irving was graduated from State College and is a member of SPE fraternity.

From the halls of Kappa Sigma comes the announcement of the Alpha Mu Chapter's pinning of the year. Brother Willard Goley of Graham is pinned to Nancy Glass of Danville, Va. Also pinned are Clifford Eller of Statesville and Jean MacRae of Atlanta, Ga.

Yesterday the Lambda Chi's held their annual Christmas party for 45 orphans from the Raleigh Methodist Orphanage. In the morning they attended a movie, which was followed by a turkey dinner with all the trimmings at the chapter house. Yesterday afternoon they journeyed to the airport to meet Santa Claus, who made a special trip down bringing gifts for each of the happy guests.

The Phi Deltas will have their Christmas party tonight for brothers and dates at the home of Charlie Brame. Last weekend they partied with their victorious Duke brothers at Miller's in Durham.

Wednesday night the Chi Psi's were hosts to the Chi Omega's for dinner at the chapter house and a party afterward. Yesterday they entertained the Kappa Alpha Theta's from Duke for dinner at the house and a party at the Club Sirloin. Some 15 brothers from the University of Virginia journeyed down to participate in the festivities. Announcement is made of the engagement of Margaret Cox of New Bern to Chi Psi Gus Wilson. The wedding is planned for December 29.

The Pi Phi's were guests of the Dekes on Thursday night for dinner and a party at the Carolina Club. On Wednesday night they visited the Phi Kappa Sig's for dinner. On Friday night Pi Phi's entertained their dates with dinner at the chapter house and a party at the Club Sirloin.

On Tuesday the Kappa Sig's and the Pi Phi's will entertain orphans at their annual Christmas party.

ATO Ed Joyner of Wilson and Pi Phi Rusty Simpkin of West Hartford, Conn. are engaged. Ed was graduated from the University in '49 and is now the bureau manager of the United Press in Richmond, Va. While at Carolina he served as the Editor of The Daily Tar Heel.

The Chi Omega's will be the guests of the Phi Gam's on Tuesday night, when the fraternity holds its annual Christmas party.

for orphans from the Elon Orphanage. Following the party for the orphans, Phi Gam's and Chi O's will adjourn to the Club Sirloin for an eggnog party.

PIKa pin-up of the week is Fran McColl, KD pledge from Bennettsville, S. C. She wears the pin of Royland Duke of Murfreesboro.

We'd like to say welcome to the Farber. Barry, who is the only professional vagabond we know, just returned from a short jaunt to Yugoslavia, after a six weeks absence from Tar Heelia. Read his column, Not Guilty, for comments on the $2,000 worth of communist hospitality that was shown him.

Norfolk, Va. was the scene of the marriage of Stan Goodman, Pi Lam, and Dottie Jean Chemim last Sunday.

New pledge of Pi Kappa Phi is Jerry Rhodes of Robbins.

Last Saturday Sigma Chi's of Duke and Carolina held a joint dinner at the Club Sirloin, following the football game. Friday night before the game a combo highlighted festivities at the chapter house.

SPE Robert Bailey of Washington and Helen Seifert of Detroit, Mich. are engaged. Helen is a student at Mary Washington College.

Alpha Gamma Delta pledges entertained the other sorority pledges on Wednesday evening. A theme of 'Heaven and Hell' was used, and angel and devil's food cakes were served. Visitor at the chapter house was Mrs. J. A. Keenan of Madison, Wis., who is national treasurer of Alpha Gam.

Kappa Alpha's and Tri-Delta's will entertain at the KA house on Tuesday evening for 46 Negro orphans. On Wednesday night the Tri-Deltas will have their annual Christmas party.

Pledges of ADPI will entertain the actives with a Christmas party Wednesday night.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Irene McDonald of Fayetteville to Delta Psi Clay Johnson of Roanoke, Va. Irene attended Berea College in Kentucky before coming to the University as YMCA secretary.

The KD pledges will entertain all other sorority pledges with a Christmas party on Tuesday night.

Coed Board Holds Dance In Pine Room

The Pine Room was the scene of an informal dance sponsored by the Independent Coed Board on Friday evening from 8:30 until 12 o'clock.

All independents and the campus-at-large were invited to attend.

Featured event of the evening was a jitterbug contest, which was judged by Tri-Delt pledge Joan Addington and Alpha Kappa Psi Jack Moss. Winners of the contest were Bert Fisher of Duke University and Barbara Little of Woman's College in Greensboro. Approximately 15 couples participated in the contest.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served throughout the dance.

In charge of dance arrangements were Social Chairman Peggy Fox and Entertainment Chairman Rachel Williams.

Rosa Lee Brake, newly elected president of the Independent Coed Board, said that the Board is planning to have similar socials in the near future. Miss Brake succeeds Martha Byrd, who leaves after this quarter for practice teaching, as president of the Board.

Cosmopolitan Club To Hear Dr. Sevin

The Cosmopolitan Club will hold its final meeting of the quarter today at 4 o'clock in the Rendezvous room.

Presiding over the meeting will be President Shahan Haroutunian of Teheran, Iran, who graduates at the end of the quarter.

Featured on the program for the afternoon will be a discussion led by Dr. Nurredin Sevin on the art, culture and life of the Turkish people.

Actives and pledges have their Christmas party on Thursday night.

Hats Off Dept. "Our Best" to Jimmy Capps for taking a non-partisan stand when students of Carolina and that University located on the outskirts of Durham chose to bicker over the Victory Bell, using his popular record request program as a medium. The Tar Heels lullabied their neighbors with "Serenade of the Bells" and the Devils requested "Don't Cry, Joe" in return.

Phi Alpha Delta Initiates 8; Banquet Follows Ceremony

Ruffin chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, national law fraternity, held a banquet Friday evening following an afternoon ceremony in which eight were initiated into membership.

Preceding the banquet, which was held at Harvey's Restaurant in Durham, a cocktail party was held. In attendance were chapter members, wives, and dates.

Guest speaker at the banquet was Dean Weathers of the Wake Forest Law School, who spoke on the qualities lawyers should seek to develop in the profession. Dean Weathers was introduced by Phi Alpha Delta Justice Jim Blount.

"I think that the foremost characteristic of a lawyer, even above hard work and thoroughness, should be integrity," Dean

Weathers emphasized. He also mentioned that although a lawyer may have to make less money at first, in order to uphold high standards, it will later pay off in sound reputation and high standing in the community.

Music Group Pledges Ten

The Iota Tau chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, national music fraternity for women, announces the pledging of ten coeds.

The new pledges are Nancy Anne Ader, Walkertown; Carol Kelly, Charleston, West Virginia; Mary Kellam, Athens, Ga.; Celia Lively, New Bern; Oleta Muller, Marion Station, Pa.; Nancy Ripple, Winston - Salem; Martha Snow, Harlottesville, Va.; Molly Swain, Chapel Hill; Marjorie Tilson, Durham and Sue Wilkins, Sanford.

Golden Bear To Meet

The Order of the Golden Bear will hold its final meeting of the quarter Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when completed plans for the annual fall convocation on Saturday night will be announced.

Bartender J.T. Mac Long requests that all members attend this meeting.
