

Officers Candidate Program Offers Commissions To Grads

Graduates who have just earned their bachelor's degree, are between the ages of 19 and 27, and desire to complete their military service in the Navy will be interested in the Naval Officers Candidate Program.

New classes convene every month. Those who complete the Officer Candidate training will be commissioned in the appropriate rank in the USNR.

Regardless of selective service classification, applications may be submitted and accepted up to date the applicant is ordered for his pre-induction physical examination. Those who meet the physical and mental requirements will be required to enlist for four years if without previous military service, or for three years if with previous military experience.

Requests for enlistment should be submitted several weeks in advance of date desired to start training as some time is required to process the application.

For further details and applications, see the Naval Recruiting station, Post Office Building, Durham, Naval ROTC headquarters on campus, or Col. F. C. Shepard.

-Elections-

(Continued from page 1)

SP says it has a program but can't carry it out unless it has control of the legislature. It asked, in a circular distributed before the first election, for "an opportunity to demonstrate that Student Government does not mean do-nothingism."

The UP, in a circular distributed to answer the SP's circular, replied, "Radicalism is hardly the answer to do-nothingism," and sarcastically commented that the SP's program was "Unfortunately a well concealed program."

Nevertheless, for the first time in 13 years the SP may today gain control of the Student Legislature.

Here's why:

In dorm district one, Jack Becker (SP) and Peter Block (Independent) are competing for a six-month Legislature seat.

In dorm district two, Jim Winston (UP) meets Burton Rights (SP). Winston won in the first election, but his party affiliation was marked SP on the ballot instead of UP, and quite a few of his votes came from the ballots marked straight SP. So they have to vote all over again now.

In the women's dorm district, Dot Lowenstein (SP) and Saralyn Bonowitz (UP) will battle for a one-year seat. They tied with 100 votes each in the first election. Also competing for two six-month seats are Peggy Brown (SP), Dot Stauffer (SP) and Peggy Stewart (UP). So at least one person elected here will be an SP candidate.

The voters could conceivably send five SP solons to the Legislature today. They could send only three UP solons there.

The UP has a one-seat margin, but the SP is traditionally strongest in the dormitory districts—where tomorrow's balloting takes place.

That's why.

Men's Council

The Carolina Gentlemen who find time to vote today will elect three people to the Men's Council.

The Men's Council is a court. When a student breaks the Honor Code (by cheating on an exam, for example) or the Campus Code (by not conducting himself as a gentleman) and gets caught, he is tried by the Men's Council. They can kick him out of school; they can put him on probation; they can reprimand him; or they can acquit him. The Men's Council is a powerful group.

Competing for the freshman seat are Ozzie Aysque, William Barnes, and Fred Hutchins; and for the two junior seats Frank Daniels, Bob Simmons and Tom Wooten. Aysque, Barnes, Hutchins and Wooten are endorsed by the Bi-partisan Selection Board.

All men, from frolicking freshmen to cynical seniors, who vote—vote for both junior and freshman seat seekers.

Women's Council

The coeds who vote today will elect four people to the Women's Council.

This Council is the court which decides whether to "ship", reprimand or acquit the girl who violates a coed law and gets sent up from the house councils, and the girl who breaks the Honor Code or the Campus Code. The Women's Council is also a powerful group.

Running for three Women's Council junior seats are Ann "Bonnie" Bondurant, Mary Lilla Brown, Beverly Chalk and Carman Nahn.

Running for the at-large seat on the Council are Jane Adams and Joan Mambery.

All the girls are endorsed by the Bi-partisan Selection Board.

All coeds (juniors, seniors, etc.) vote for both junior and at-large seats.

AKPsi Takes In Twenty-one New Members

Sunday afternoon, Alpha Tau Chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi professional business administration fraternity initiated twenty-one new members into the chapter here at the University.

Following the initiation ceremonies in Graham Memorial, a banquet was held in the Carolina Inn dining room. Herb Wentworth, past president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Chapel Hill, spoke on the organization of the Jaycees and the job they do in the community.

The new members initiated were: I. N. Reynolds, Chapel Hill; Tommy Minnis, Winston-Salem; Jess Noland, Jr., Asheville; Robert Sapp, Reynolds; C. R. Spruill, Elizabeth City, Shahan Haroutunian, Teheran, Iran; John Lester, Stoneville; Franklin Moore, Lenoir; Dick Brazelle, Asheville; Charles Alderman, Elizabeth City; Ray Stein, Lakewood, Ohio; P. J. Davis, Graham; W. H. Shields, Winston-Salem;

L. B. McLawhorn, Kinston; Harry N. Young, Greensboro; Taylor O. League, Mooresville; Elmer C. Bland, Thomasville; Joe S. Callahan, Jr., Fayetteville; Adam Clark Davis, Greenville; Bill Grimes, Thomasville; R. Hector Lupton, Jr., Edenton.

NEED MONEY FOR CHRISTMAS?

- Bring us a list of the texts you'll be through with at the end of this term.
- We'll give you a credit for their full turn-in value right now.
- Start buying your Christmas Gifts—But in the meantime keep your books for study—Don't turn them in till after exams. We don't want our good customers to flunk out!
- MERRY CHRISTMAS!

THE INTIMATE BOOKSHOP

205 E. Franklin St.

Chapel Hill

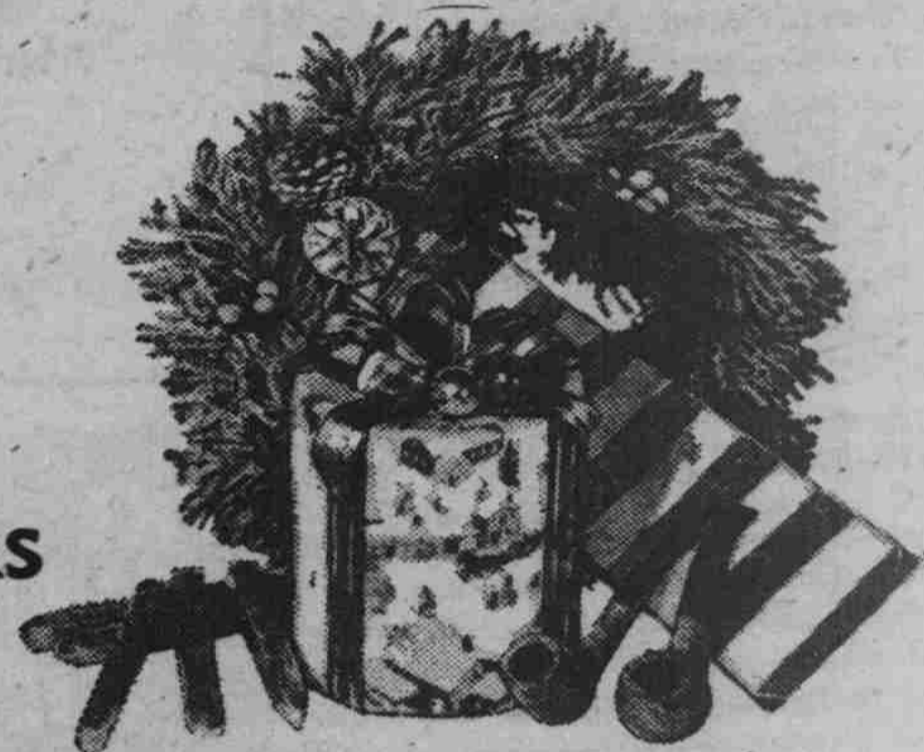

Smoking Gifts

For HIM

PIPES

BOXED CIGARS

TOBACCO

Sutton's
DRUG STORE
CHAPEL HILL, N.C.

It's Tender!

It's Savory!

IT'S HOME-COOKED CHICKEN!

Before going home for the Christmas holidays, treat yourself to a genuine home cooked meal at

BRADY'S

Try our tempting steaks, chops, or seafood. And don't miss our specialty:

CHICKEN

Fried or Barbecued

BRADY'S

Durham Road

Phone 3727

Rent—Buy—Browse

at the

BULL'S HEAD BOOKSHOP

Take Home Some Gaily
Wrapped Christmas Books!