

First Piano Quartet Makes Second Duke Appearance

DURHAM — The First Piano Quartet, final off-the-series attraction of this season's Duke University concert program, will make its second Duke appearance Thursday night, manager J. Foster Barnes announced.

The four-man musical team appeared on the regular series two seasons ago.

The program will include 15 selections ranging from Bach to Debussy, Barnes said.

Tickets are still available and may be secured by writing Barnes, Box 4822 Duke Station, or by phoning the university, Ext. 6225.

Originated by producer Edwin Fadiman some 12 years ago, the famous radio Quartet is now composed of concert pianists Adam Garner, Glauco D'Attili, Frank Mittler, and Edward Edson.

The Duke concert will begin with "Variations on the Caprice in A Minor" by Paganini, radio theme signature of the Quartet. In the first group of selections are Bach's "Prelude and Fugue in C Minor," a Mozart "Rondo," "Trout Variations" by Schubert, and "La Campanella" by Liszt.

The second group of selections will feature Liszt's "Second Hungarian Rhapsody," the Magic Fire Music from Wagner's "Die Walkure," three etudes by Chopin, and Weber's "Invitation to the Dance."

Final numbers will include "Malaguena," by Lecuona, Debussy's "Clair de Lune," "Polichinelle" by Villa-Lobos, Prokofieff's march "Love for Three Oranges," a polka by Shostakovitch "The Golden Age," and the "Tarantella" dance by Rossini-Liszt.

CHRISTMAS CAROLING for combined men's and women's dorms will be planned in Roland Parker Lounge No. 1 today at 4 p.m.

All dorm social chairmen are asked to be present at this meeting or to send a representative.

Teachers' Classes To Begin Jan. 5

Registration for the winter quarter's Saturday classes for students and teachers within commuting distance is scheduled for Saturday, January 5, between 8 and 9:30 a.m., it was announced today by Dean Guy B. Phillips of the School of Education.

The classes will also open on January 5, Phillips said, and will continue throughout the winter quarter until Saturday, March 15. No registrations will be permitted after classes begin.

Six courses will be given, all scheduled between 9 and 11:30 a.m. each Saturday during the quarter.

Subjects and instructors are: Educational administration, Prof. W. E. Rosenstengel; secondary education in the United States, Prof. J. Minor Gwynn; Progressive Practices in the Modern School, Prof. Willinda Savage; Language Arts in the Elementary School, Prof. Carl F. Brown; Growth and Development of the School Child, Prof. A. M. Jordan, and Administrative Aspects of the Guidance Program, Prof. Gordon Ellis.

Law Team Gains National Finals

The University Law School Moot Court team will participate in the national finals in New York City on December 13 and 14.

The team composed of Paul A. Johnston, Robert E. Giles and Ernest DeLaney, Jr., defeated the University of Virginia in the regional finals held in Washington on November 30. The argument was held before a three-judge court presided over by Judge Washington of the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

HE'S ENTHUSED

about our wonderful haircuts and shaves! Come in Today and you'll agree that they are the best in town.

UNIVERSITY BARBER SHOP

Lovely Gifts

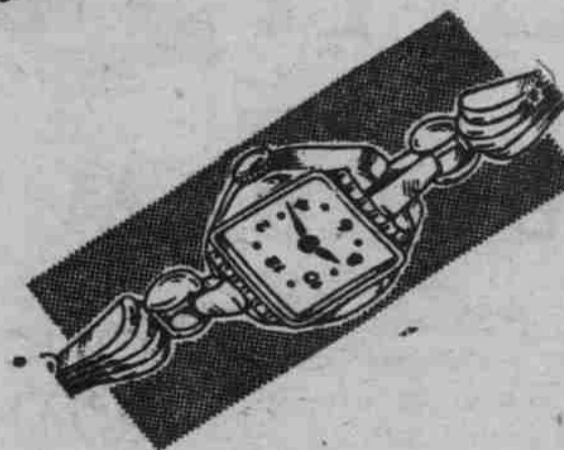

TO MAKE HER DREAMS COME TRUE

A GIFT TO SHARE ALWAYS:—

... for you both to add to, year by year. A set of silver . . . Your family silver.

Eternal Gift:—

her lifetime watch

A GIFT OF BEGINNING:— . . . of beginning her own personalized placeware.

WENTWORTH & SLOAN JEWELERS

Electric TRAINS and ACCESSORIES

at your Home and Auto Supply Store in Chapel Hill

AMERICAN FLYER TRAINS Complete Train Accessories (Prices Starting at $8.95)

Here's A Hint, Santa:—

We charge prices identical with those of any other store: So..

For Economy and Satisfaction, Buy At HOME & AUTO SUPPLY Across from Bust Station