Giftalk

Having trouble deciding what to give for Christmas?

Perhaps the following gift ideas will help you select just the thing for everyone on your list. And, for your convenience, Chapel Hill merchants will be open until nine o'clock each night through Friday of this week.

By all means stop by Danziger's to see what new things Mr. D has brought in from all over the world. Gift ideas here include beautiful handmade wrought iron candelabra from Sweden and Norway from $1.60. . . . charming bell strings from India from $1.50 (these are handmade and come in dozens of designs!) . . . the intriguing three-dimensional Italian kitchens carved in wood ($2.95 to $10.00).

Peter Arno's brand new book of cartoons, "Ladies and Gentlemen," is in stock now at the Intimate Bookshop. Also at the Intimate Bookshop: beautiful bound and gold Embossed Collector's Edition books. . . . Shakespeare, Flaubert, Austen, etc. . . . at $1 each! Good books are good gifts and you'll find every kind at this shop. . . . Churchill's "Closing the Ring," children's books, others!

A glamorous holiday-inspired blouse makes a perfect package for any feminine name on your list. Choose from gold or silver Lurex on nylon, Rhinestones and embroidery on rayon crepe or boucle, from $5.98 up, at Robbins Fashion Center. Sweaters in every color, style and yarn, too, from $3.98. If your gift to her comes from Robbins, she'll love it!

Wentworth and Sloan offers a panorama of gifts in good taste. Whether you have a little or a lot to spend, your gift in silver or crystal will be the best. Suggestions: an attractive silver cigarette holder for coffee table ($4.25). . . . a set of chrome vanadium Carvel Hall or Personna cutlery. . . . an Elgin American or Wadsworth compact (from $3.00). . . . crystal and silver bud vases ($4.25 up).

Treasures in chinaware from Japan, England, Germany and Italy are yours to choose from at the Carolina Drapery Shop. A real special: real linen hand-hemstitched table cloth and 2 napkins at $18.00! In the baby department you'll find clothes and toys, and what toys! There are baby bath toys that'll float. . . . a set of transparent blocks with animals inside. . . . and the Jump-E-Jack, the perfect crib playmate!

Styled by Jewelite in tinted plastic, the brush set—with complexion brush, hand brush, hair brush and comb—at Sloan Drug Company is a gift that'll last every day for years. Real leather Amity billfolds in red or brown start at $3.50. . . . with models for men or women. Other "just right" gifts at Sloan's: Kaywoodie pipes from $3.50. . . . Hollingsworth candies. . . . perfume. . . . manicure sets. . . . Max Factor cosmetics.

Tell 'em you saw it in Giftalk!

nesday night in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial.

The Charlotte Carolina Club dance will be held in Charlotte on December 27. Bids for the dance may be picked up this week between 9 and 12 a.m. in the lobby of Graham Memorial.

DR. HENRY BRANDIS, dean of the Law School will preside at an open luncheon meeting of the UNC chapter of the United World Federalists at 12:30 today in Lenoir Hall.

Rev. Rodney Shaw, midwest director for UWF, will speak on "Organizing the World for Peace." Persons attending are requested to buy their lunch in the cafeteria line shortly before meeting time and to carry their trays to the northeast corner, second floor room.

SUBSCRIBERS TO THE CAROLINA QUARTERLY who did not receive their copy of the current issue are requested to come by the office on the north mezzanine of Graham Memorial today or tomorrow between 2 and 3 p.m., or call 9866, or write Box 1117 and it will be mailed to you.
